

PRAYING THROUGH THE MONTH OF FEBRUARY 2016

February was named after the Latin word “Februum” meaning purification. It was so named after the purification ritual “Februa” dedicated to deity Juno, held on February 15th in the old Roman calendar.

The Biblical calendar observes a 13 month leap year every two or three years. Since the Biblical Civil year 5776 is a leap year, it will have 13 months because of the intercalated 12th and 13th months Adar 1 and Adar II. From 10th February to 10th March marks Adar I the sixth (6th) month following the Biblical civil calendar and the twelfth (12th) of the Biblical Sacred calendar.

On leap years Purim is celebrated a month later on the 13th month or Adar II. However, the little Purim (Purim Katan) celebrated on the 12th month will occur on 14th-15th Adar 5776 (23-24 February 2016). February is the second (2nd) month according to the Gregorian calendar. February is the shortest month of the Gregorian year with 28 1/4 days. After every 4 years, the quarter days add up to one full day creating a 29th day in each leap year. Therefore 2016 is a leap year too.

This is a month of many deeply pagan events and it would do well to know their significance, in order to pray through those days because each day is the LORD's day and not dedicated to any other deity or unGODly event.

PRAYING THROUGH THE MONTH

- Proclaim the Psalms 29 Psalm 136, 69:30; 118:23. This is twelfth month of the Sacred calendar, receive it with song ministrations of praise and thanksgiving to YHVH,
- Read Isa 50.4-5, 51.16, Psa 141.3. Thank the LORD that He has already seen you through the first month of this year. It is indeed a season of acceleration and time is already flying by. Pray that Isaiah 51.16 will be your reality – The word of YHVH will be on your lips to create His purposes at every moment of life and existence. Pray this for kingdom citizens everywhere.
- This is a unique month with an extra day. Pray that in this leap year, you will indeed experience a leaping forward in areas of stagnation, and a leap over stubborn obstacles in your life, family, workplace, and territory.
- Pray for leaping progress in your intellect and level of wisdom and discernment. Pray this for everyone who is connected to you and for kingdom citizens in your territory.
- Proclaim Psalm 18.29 that in this season you will leap over every hindering wall spiritually, academically, health wise, financially, relationally, territorially, ministry wise, geographically, in your mind, will and emotions. Pray this for kingdom citizens in your territory.

- Read Eph 1.6 Pray that in this season you are accepted in the Beloved and you will receive a revelation of His love and acceptance and do away with any sense of condemnation.
- Read Rom 8: A condemned building is one which has been rendered unfit for use. Condemnation whether by self or imposed says that we are unfit for use by YHVH. Remind yourself on a regular basis, whether you have good success, or are struggling in an area of failure that you are the righteousness of YHVH. You did nothing to deserve it in the first place, there is nothing you can possibly do to lose it. if you accepted freely that you were born in sin, not because of any particular sinful action but because of one man Adam, then you can as well accept freely that because of one man Yeshua, you were imputed righteous and have a right and access to all that His death and resurrection acquired for you – abundant life, peace, joy, wealth, health, success in every aspect of existence; by your faith i.e. belief and receiving in His finished work.

- Ezek 14:4, Rom 1:20-21 Roma 12:1-2 it is a season of heightened idolatry and we ought to examine ourselves to ensure that there are no idols and foreign gods we are bowing to. We have to ensure that our image of YHVH is true and not an idol of our own making. In order to know YHVH as YHVH, there is need to demolish the idols that you have raised in your heart as the image of YHVH. Is YHVH your Shepherd so you shall not want? Or are there areas of your life which you still find wanting? Is your God Ruler of all the earth? Or are there portions of the earth you feel He is not present? Is your God a Healer? Or are there portions of divine healthy life that He has so far been unable to touch? Is your God a Provider? Or are there areas of provision which He has failed to meet? Is your God optional and not a necessity in every area of life? Do you feel forsaken by your God? He says He will never leave you nor forsake you. Then that is not YHVH, that is something other than Adonai Elohim. YHVH will respond to you according to that God whose image you have in your heart. Ask the Holy Spirit to bring down every imagination of YHVH that you have hitherto had, and reveal to you Who YHVH truly is. Idolatry begins not with bowing to things but with a wrong concept and image of YHVH in your mind.

- Read Gal 5.6 Bring repentance for areas where you have made YHVH fit in your own box; and shaped Him according to your circumstances; so that you fail to have faith that this loving YHVH will meet and supply every need, comfort you, heal you, provide for you, promote you, affirm you, and protect you. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you receive a revelation of YHVH's love. Only when you understand His love will you activate your faith and trust in Him because faith works and is activated by knowledge that you are deeply and unconditionally loved by Him whom you are directing your faith toward.

Jubilee Year 5776

This year 5776 is a Jubilee year and therefore a season for restitution, restoration, return to inheritance, rejoicing, rebuilding, repentance, repositioning and resurrection for as many as will embrace these virtues for this season. Read Eccl 2.26 - To survive and even thrive in a recession it means “upping your game”; take up another degree course or workshop to stay relevant and employable or float in the marketplace; crack your head for the most effective marketing strategy, spend longer hours on the job, do whatever it takes to maintain a death-grip on the corporate ladder while others are being shaken off by the gale-force winds of recession.

Kingdom citizens rather are being encouraged to rest while the world is working hard. Why? Yeshua paid it all. When our eyes are on Him, when we spend time in His presence, in the Word, renewing our minds, He will release divine economic strategies that will cause the wealth that has been so far amassed by the wicked to flow to the righteous.

- Praise YHVH for this truth, and pray that you will receive your divine revelation of His grace as you labor to rest in the finished work of Yeshua. Ask the Holy Spirit for
- Read Psalm 24 and 50. “Recedere” is the Latin root word for recession. It literally means “return to Original Owner”. Psalm 24 informs us Who the Original Owner truly is. The reason why every kingdom citizen who embraces the full meaning of “sozo” will prosper, and thrive in this season, is simply because we are heirs to YHVH’s possessions – the earth is YHVH’s and the fullness thereof. In a recession when the world is going broke, it is time for Kingdom citizens to prepare their baskets and experience their greatest wealth transfer. Are you willing to obey, believe and receive “sozo”? Pray for renewed thinking concerning your imputed righteousness – pray this for kingdom citizens everywhere.
- Is it a wonder that in this season when everyone is struggling to up their game economically, it has fallen on a Jubilee season? For kingdom citizens, it is in quietness and rest that deliverance shall come in a way that no man shall credit anything else but will say “it is the doing of YHVH and its is marvelous in our eyes.” Thank YHVH for His wisdom in planning times and seasons to display His powerful workings behind the scenes of world affairs.
- 2015 Shemitah ended with an entrance into a Year of Jubilee. It marked the 70th Jubilee year since the Exodus led by Joshua crossed the Jordan and sat on the riverside in Gilgal looking over at Jericho. Pray that there will be a rising of a righteous Joshua generation that has been prepared over the years to bring kingdom citizens, nations and territories into their jubilee season and there will be no mistakes. Pray this especially for kingdom citizens in the gates of governance, political leadership and corporate governance.
- That year of Jubilee 70 sabbatical years ago, was the season when the manna stopped flowing; they were leaving the season of manna and controlled provision of YHVH and entered a season of sustenance and abundance– where they would drink from wells they did not dig, get oil from olive groves they did not plant, drink wine and eat food from farms they did not plant, live in houses and dwell in cities they did not build. It was UNMERITED favor that provided all of that simply because they were heirs to YHVH the Possessor of Heaven and earth. How much more will it be a reality to those who will lean on confidently in YHVH and embrace “sozo” because of what Yeshua did 2000 years ago? Prophetically key into this reality.

- This year we are experiencing 40 complete Jubilee cycles following Yeshua’s death more than 2000 years ago. Forty generally symbolizes the end of a period of testing, trial or probation and the separation of epochs. It symbolizes a “coming of age”. It has been a trying period. Pray that after the various testings and trials that kingdom citizens have experienced in the past season, there will be a coming of age, a maturity that is borne out of the tests experienced.

- The reality and magnitude of the consequences of His sacrifice on Calvary are yet to be felt by the Ecclesia. The sacrifice on the Cross, basically blotted out ALL that occurred from Genesis 3 up to Revelations 21 where a new heaven and new earth are formed after Yeshua secured the title deed of the universe. Yet we are living with the effects of the fall due to our inability to accept everything He died for, and also give ourselves completely to Him for He also paid for ALL of our beings to be His. Pray that in this season of a 40th Jubilee you and the Ecclesia at large will enter into your season of rest from the wilderness into a Promised Land – by embracing our identity as the righteousness of YHVH. Isn’t it amazing that this season is one of ENTERING THE GATES of times and seasons

- Read Rev 3.8 This year a number of the prophetic words received have to do with breaking through and breaking out. It is a season where the LORD has promised that He has opened great doors that no man can shut. Even where there are adversaries warring at the gates, there is an assurance that doors He has opened, you will walk through them. Thank the LORD that even where it looks like situations are impossible, you will read and pray through the prophetic words released over your life, and you will believe what He is saying against all odds and every contrary circumstance.

- Read Psa 144.1, Jer 20.10-13 Breaking through has nothing to do with walking thru an open door, but it has everything to do with forcing your way through a wall, or a seemingly impenetrable barrier. It is warlike language. Pray that in this season you will be very alert and present in realizing when battles arise at your open doors and for the Holy Spirit to prepare your hands for battle.

- Read Jer 20.10-13, and pray that in this season the LORD will send angelic warriors to assist in you in every situation of war.

- One key aspect of the Shemitah is, it is a season to let go – release. As we aspire to operate in our identity as the righteousness of YHVH, forgiveness and releasing those who have in any way offended us and release of debts and trespasses becomes key. Are there people you are holding in any capacity? Are there situations that you must let go of? For you to lay hold of what YHVH has for you, you need to have room on your hands to receive it. You cannot do it when you are holding onto people, things, grudges; and in the spirit realm, you can only do one or the other. That is why Paul let go of everything else, good or bad in order to lay hold of that for which Yeshua lay hold of him Lev 25.1-13, Phil 3.12-14.

- How shall we prove our trust in YHVH Our Provider in this season? Read Prov 3.6-9 and 2Cor 9:6-15. We prove that we do not trust in the arm of flesh by our giving to kingdom purposes as YHVH will direct you. Giving is proof to ourselves that we trust in YHVH as Provider, to give us every surplus we require for abundance. Remember “sozo” informs us that we already have everything Yeshua died for so we do not give to get any “blessing” from YHVH. He owns everything and as He says in Psalm 50, He does not need our sacrifice. He has given us the privilege of giving our tithes, offerings and alms in order to prove that we truly believe and trust (lean confidently on) Him in this season of recession. Basically He is saying “put your money where your heart truly is”.

- Read Matthew 19.16-22 Pray that in this season kingdom citizens will not be like the rich young man who came claiming that He loved YHVH and followed all His commandments. Yeshua proved to him where his heart truly was when He pointed out to him to give away his wealth and follow Yeshua. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you renew your mind in this area of giving which has been so abused by many to rip people off; but it was a tool of the enemy also to divert you from the place of true prosperity and true wealth by perverting it through erroneous teachings on wealth, giving etc.

- Yeshua was not trying to impoverish the rich young man. He wanted to show him where his heart truly was. He went away grieved at that saying. Grief is related to feelings of loss. He felt he was losing something greater and was willing to walk away when his real love was exposed. Pray that you will realize that it's not about amassing possessions; but becoming a conduit through whom YHVH's kingdom purposes can be established in the coming revival. Financial and other resources will be needed to push forth the Kingdom; but YHVH wants vessels who have clear understanding of the purpose for the great wealth He is about to release in this season.

Today as many government legislations continue to push against Biblical patterns, and as the occult seems to gain strength in matters of government and law, there are many fears of persecution and great oppression of the Body of Yeshua, and those who will live GODly lives. YHVH has given anyone who will seek Him the ability to stand against the onslaught of the enemy and to do exploits like Daniel did in Babylon, and like Joseph did in Egypt.

- Pray that the Holy Spirit will guide the Body of Yeshua back to the strength of the covenant we have with YHVH. He will be with us as we take our roles and disciple our nations back to His purposes.
- Psalm 149:6-9, Isaiah 28:5-6; In this season YHVH said He is vacuum cleaning every sector of society. He also said that He is raising governments that will develop zero-tolerance for corruption in a number of nations. We have seen this in Tanzania and in some parts of Nigeria. Pray for your nation that there shall be a vacuum cleaning in the area of government and governance.
- Read Zechariah 5:1-5, Command the flying scroll that will go after the thieves in government to be released. Pray that every national thief, every continental thief, every local thief, every family thief and every destiny thief will be captured by the flying scroll of YHVH.
- It is the honor and glory of every saint to execute the written judgments against kings and rulers. Command every seat of government authority, every piece of timber, every brick, every piece of furniture in every government buildings to cry out against any person who continues to operate in corruption, who has entered by bloodshed, or who has been established by iniquity in this coming season.
- Read Isaiah 60:18; Command the borders of your territory to reject every whisper of violence or destruction in this season. Let every perpetrator of violence at any level be exposed and severely judged.
- Command the walls of every government building to allow only that which will bring redemption and salvation to the nation. Command every gateway of government to allow only that which is praiseworthy in this season of divine governance.
- Rev 22:2, this is the 2nd, 6th and 12th months of the year. Pray that you and the Body of Yeshua globally will receive the fruit of the tree of life for the 2nd, 6th and 12th month for your spiritual nourishment.
- Pray that the leaves for your healing, the healing of your family, finances, relationships, territory and the Body of Yeshua assigned for the 2nd, 6th and 12th months will be released for your bodies, souls and spirits.
- 2 Chron 7:14 Pray that as the healing of individuals and groups occurs, there shall be a level of healing released into the land.

Birth Days

Is it the month of your birth? You may pray these only the weekday of your birth every week of the year.

- Thank Him for your specific day of birth. Declare that day blessed.
- Thank Him that He ordained that you will be made manifest on earth on a specific day in that month at a specific hour and minute.
- Thank Him that He has a purpose for your life and it will be fulfilled.
- Ask YHVH to forgive you where you have for one reason or another, ignored or rejected to recognize your day of birth.
- Thank YHVH for the day of your conception. (Psa 139:13)
- Thank YHVH that when He thought of you, he already thought of your entire life. Thank Him that He did not leave anything to chance. (Isa 49:1)
- Thank Him that he knew exactly what your redemptive purpose was going to be. (Psa 139:16)
- Pray that He will reveal the original you more and more as you enter another year of your life. (Psa 139:13-15)

- Pray that He will restore the heavenly label, and the heavenly name He gave you before you were conceived. (Jer 1:5).

Speak into the foundations of your life and prophesy good things.

- Prophecy that you will live and not die prematurely in any area of your life. Your family will live, the work of your hand will live and grow from strength to strength Deut 33:6, Psa 27:L13, 118:17

- Prophecy and proclaim the blessing of Levi upon your life as a priest unto YHVH (2 Pet 2:9, Deut 33:8-11)

- Prophecy and proclaim the blessing of Benjamin upon your life Deut 33:12

- Prophecy the blessing of the wisdom of Issachar in every area of life. Wisdom to establish the work of your hands, your family, as you grow a year older 1Chron 12:32, Deut 33:18b-19, Pro 24:3-4

- Prophecy the blessing of Dan concerning your role as a leader. Prophecy over your inheritance that YHVH will indeed ensure you leave an inheritance for your descendants. Deut 33:20-21, Psa 16:5-6.

- Prophecy the blessing of Joseph. Speak to the earth and declare that the earth will bring forth its best for you in this new year. Prophecy to the heavens to declare the glory of YHVH over your life every day of this new year. Deut 33:13-17, Lev 26:4-5, Hos 2:21-22, Psa 19:1-2, Isa 55:12

- Prophecy that you will grow in your spirit man into a matured son so you can receive your inheritance. Wherever you go in this new year, creation will experience release from frustration. Rom 8:19-20, Gal 4:1-2

- Praise YHVH that your birthday marks the entry into another season of Jubilee. Thank YHVH that immediately you were born, you cried out prophetically blowing the your own jubilee cornet, and prophetically rejoiced in yourself. Ask Him to give you joy no matter your circumstance, to rejoice on this day

FESTIVALS DURING THIS MONTH

There are a number of festivals that occur during the month of February. A number have to do with the commencement of observances that lead up to the Easter period. One thing to note is that, every feast or festival that was “superimposed” with a Christian significance always tends toward a lot of destruction to the family and community at large in one way or another.

Over the years the enemy has taken these celebrations which are a counterfeit of the Feasts of YHVH and turned them into something wicked. Many of these festivals have become very deeply entrenched among kingdom citizens of various denominations, so that it is almost very offensive to say anything contrary to just ‘going with the flow’ and embracing whatever cute meaning is wrapped around these days.

- First and foremost put it in your heart that every day, and every single moment of it is YHVH's day and it is our duty to rejoice, be glad in it and fulfill His redemptive purpose for us within those segments of time. Therefore praise YHVH for each day of the festivals for He made the day for His pleasure. Rev 4.11

The Carnival, Gay Pride March, V-Day, Valentine's Day, Fat Tuesday (Mardi Gras) And Lent

These festivals will all commence on 10-14 February 2016 and the gay community has locked into these days to establish their “worship” too. There is a lot of history tied into the above festivals. Though celebrations like the Carnival and Mardi-Gras are not very popular in modern day Africa, their roots are found on the continent. Valentine's day and Lent have both gained more and more prominence in a number of denominations within the Ecclesia. Each of these festivals and observances are rooted in pagan practices. Having done away with the power of the Holy Spirit to transform, the early Roman church found it very difficult to transform their followers from these observances. Therefore they simply superimposed the Feasts of YHVH over some of the more popular observances.

Valentines day 14 February 2016: Like Christmas, Easter, Halloween, New Year's and other holidays of this world, St. Valentine's Day is another attempt to “whitewash” perverted customs and observances of pagan gods and idols by “Christianizing” them.

As innocent and harmless as St. Valentine's Day may appear, its traditions and customs originate from two of the most sexually perverted pagan festivals of ancient history: Lupercalia (feast of sexual license) and the feast day of Juno Februata.

The Romans celebrated Lupercalia to honor the hunter god Lupercus god of fertility and husbandry, protector of herds and crops, and a mighty hunter. To the Greeks, from whom the Romans had copied most of their mythology, Lupercus was known as Pan, the god of light. The Phoenicians worshipped the same deity as Baal, the sun god. Baal was one of many names or titles for Nimrod, a mighty hunter, especially of wolves. He was also the founder and first lord of Babel (Gen. 10:10-12). Defying YHVH, Nimrod was the originator of the Babylonian Mystery Religion, whose mythologies have been copied by the Egyptians, the Greeks, the Romans and a multitude of other ancient peoples. Under different names or titles—Pan, Lupercus, Saturn, Osiris— Nimrod is the strong man and hunter-warrior god of the ancients.

From Feb. 13 to 15, the Romans celebrated the feast of Lupercalia. The men sacrificed a goat and a dog,. Clothed in loincloths made from the sacrificed goats and dogs smeared in their blood, the Luperci (male priests assisted by female vestal virgins) would run about Rome, striking women with februa, thongs made from skins of the sacrificed animals. The Luperci believed that the floggings purified women and guaranteed their fertility and ease of childbirth. This bloody pagan rite is where the red color of the day comes from.

The brutal fete included a matchmaking lottery, in which young men drew the names of women from a jar. To the Romans, February was also sacred to Juno Februata, the goddess of febris ("fever") of love, and of women and marriage. On February 14, billets (small pieces of paper, each of which had the name of a teen-aged girl written on it) were put into a container. Teen-aged boys would then choose one billet at random. The boy and the girl whose name was drawn would become a "couple," joining in erotic games at feasts and parties celebrated throughout Rome. After the festival, they would remain sexual partners for the rest of the year. This custom was observed in the Roman Empire for centuries.

After Constantine had made the Roman church's brand of Christianity the official religion of the Roman Empire (A.D. 325), Ecclesia leaders wanted to do away with the pagan festivals of the people. Lupercalia was high on their list. But the Roman citizens thought otherwise.

It was not until A.D. 496 that the church at Rome was able to do anything about Lupercalia. Powerless to get rid of it, Pope Gelasius instead changed it from February 15 to the 14th and called it St. Valentine's Day. It was named after one of that church's saints, who, in A.D. 270, was executed by the emperor for his beliefs.

In A.D. 494, Pope Gelasius renamed the festival of Juno Februata as the “Feast of the Purification of the Virgin Mary.” The date of its observance was later changed from February 14 to February 2, then changed back to the 14. It is also known as Candlemas, the Presentation of YHVH, the Purification of the Blessed Virgin and the Feast of the Presentation of Christ in the Temple.

Today, the holiday is big business: According to market research firm IBIS World, Valentine's Day 2015 sales exceeded $18.6 billion. And so the celebration of Valentine's Day goes on, in varied ways. Many will break the bank buying jewelry and flowers for their beloveds. Others will celebrate in a SAD (that's Single Awareness Day) way, dining alone and binging on self-gifted chocolates.

The V-Day which was inaugurated along with the Gaypride carnivals on the same 14th February after the popularity of the infamous V-monologues play by a lesbian playwright to celebrate all “experiences” of the female sexual organ.

- During the season surrounding the Easter celebration there is increase sexual immorality as pagan deities are given homage in a veiled rituals and observances. This season of endings and new beginnings between December and March tends to have some of the vilest observances which usher in new season and plunge whole territories into grosser darkness with each observance. Pray for revelation within the Ecclesia which has ignored the real feasts of YHVH but rather given great prominence to these other unGODly feasts

- Ask the Holy Spirit to help you gain a greater revelation of these seasons of men and how they take away from the real Feasts of YHVH. It is only by obedience and revelation that the grip these particular holidays have can be released from kingdom citizens.

- These festivals of men have become cause for untold damage to relationships and a greater sense of loneliness for others. It is a season where in nations like Namibia, they record the highest number of suicides. When people feel abandoned or rejected because they have not been remembered with “gifts”, there is a sense of guilt when relatives, friends or colleagues cannot afford to spend lavishly or give “time off” to employees during these festivals. Marriages have experienced breakdown because at Christmas or Easter certain expectations were not met in terms of time spent with loved ones, gifts and holidays given to significant others, illicit affairs exposed, sickness even death from over indulgence and reckless abandon in morals and general behavior etc etc. Yet funny enough, you never hear of such damage to relationships because of the 7 real Feasts of YHVH. Ask YHVH to deliver you and kingdom citizens at large from the traps of the enemy wrapped up in these various celebrations.

- Some good has come out of these days when people have taken them seriously for what they are supposed to stand for. Thank YHVH that He redeems everything for His own purposes especially when His people are still very ignorant about these celebrations.

- When you gain a revelation of these festivals and their true significance – for the enemy to find any worship he can gain, do not condemn those who are ignorant; rather pray for them and that their eyes will be opened to rather begin to respect the Feasts of YHVH instead.

Carnival – Voodoo/voudon is a pagan religious practice popular in ancient West Africa. It incorporates a lot of magic, witchcraft, sacrifices and self indulgent activities. There was specific worship music and dance composed especially for that carnival. Basically the priests of the various demon-deities worshipped in voodoo would be celebrated as people danced on the streets to rhythmic intoxicating music with carefree abandon. That music and dance was referred to as “semba” (meaning “to invoke” the spirits) which was borrowed by the Portuguese and renamed “samba” very popular in South America and the Caribbean today.

On 14th February the most popular voodoo carnival commences in Haiti and spreads around through the Caribbean and then South America. Inspired by Voodoo carnivals of ancient West Africa, the Carnivals in , the Caribbean islands, South America are rapidly being embraced in other parts of the world. During the season which amalgamates with Valentine’s Day, there is an acceleration of immoral events – gay pride marches involving lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender culture, and the carnival celebrated in the Caribbean Islands and South America are all celebrated around the 14th – 16th February.

They are a platform for promoting very deep levels of sexual immorality, drug abuse and the wildest self indulgent activities. The Carnival gives the last opportunity for revelry and self indulgence in food, drink, music and sex, after which the “Christians” put up an act of penance during Lent! They thereby express high levels of hypocrisy to the faith.

- What religious observances have you been involved with? What are their origins? Do you realize that you dedicate your day/days to the deities you serve? Are you aware that these observances are renewals of covenants whose conditions you may not be fully aware of? When you take up dances like “Samba” do you realize you are invoking certain deities? Do you realize that these intoxicating dances that are so popular have a deeply pagan origin inspired by demon-deities for purpose of worship to themselves?

- Have you even “Christianized” some of these dances/music styles? Is it impossible for YHVH to inspire dance and music styles that will glorify Him? Do we have to always copy the ways of the world? Do you realize that you are drawn to that kind of music/dance because of its intoxicating style deliberately implanted by these demon deities?
- Do you realize that when you do not make those covenantal renewal observations especially blood sacrifices as required, there is a backlash on you? Do you notice increased levels of blood letting, even death through accidents etc.? Ask YHVH to give you understanding of His righteous standards in all these aspects.
- Do you wonder why there may be some calamities that befall people because of rituals and practices you may be ignorantly practicing? From the Christmas season to the time of Epiphany on the 12th night after Christmas, through to the Carnivals and mardi gras (Fat Tuesday) events and the Lent season up to the Easter season, there is escalating pagan practices that bring many to bondages they may not even be aware of. –

Fat Tuesday/Mardi Gras: Billed as the “greatest free party on earth,” Mardi Gras is celebrated by millions around the world. Colorful costumes. Spectacular parades. Elegant pageants. Masked balls. People dancing in the streets to rhythmic, intoxicating music. All with an air of carefree abandon. As the music reverberates, alcohol flows. Wildly elaborate floats glide down the street, with frenzied masqueraders onboard. Crowds of onlookers shout encouragement.

Mardi Gras (also called “Carnival” in many countries) is a time of unrestrained merrymaking, in which participants passionately indulge every fleshly desire. Celebrated predominantly in Roman Catholic communities in Europe and Latin America, pre-Lenten carnivals are spreading in the U.S and Africa too. Even Asia is not being left behind in these festivities.

Although the term Mardi Gras refers to a specific day, it is not a single-day celebration. Every year, beginning in January, Carnival festivities occur daily, culminating in the final climatic Mardi Gras celebration the day before the observance of Lent, a 40-day period of self-denial. Mardi Gras is considered to be the last day for indulging in the pleasures of the flesh before Lent begins. In fact, the word Carnival means “farewell to the flesh,” and comes from the Latin words carnis (“flesh”) and vale (“farewell”).

The earliest record comes from ancient times, when tribes celebrated a fertility festival that welcomed the arrival of spring, a time of renewal of life. The Romans called this pagan festival Lupercalia in honor of “Lupercus,” the Roman god of fertility as explained previously. Lupercalia was a drunken orgy of merrymaking held each February in Rome, after which participants fasted for 40 days.

Also it dates from the pre-Christian era when the Druids sacrificed offerings to pagan gods, seeking more fertile women and livestock. This day was also known as “Shrove Tuesday” (from the old English word “shrive,” which means to confess all sins) and “Pancake Tuesday.” The custom of making pancakes came from the need to use up all the fat, eggs and dairy products before the fasting period of Lent began.

Interestingly, similar to modern celebrations, the Romans donned masks, dressed in costumes and indulged all of their fleshly desires as they gave themselves to the gods “Bacchus” (god of wine) and “Venus” (goddess of love). The masks and costumes were used as disguises to allow sexual liberties not normally permitted as individuals engaged in “bacchanal,” the drunken and riotous occasion in honor of Bacchus. In France, the festival was called Mardi Gras, meaning “Fat Tuesday.” This name comes from the ancient pagan practice of killing and eating a fattened calf on the last day of Carnival; Mardi Gras represents a blend of religion and immorality, steeped in ancient pagan fertility rites.

As pagans converted to Catholicism, they did not want to give up this popular celebration. Church leaders, seeing that it was impossible to divorce the new converts from their pagan customs, decided to “Christianize” this festival. Thus, Carnival was created as a time of merrymaking immediately preceding their pagan 40-day fast, which the church renamed “Lent.” During Carnival, participants indulged in madness and all aspects of pleasure allowable, including gluttony, drunkenness and fornication.

In modern times as YHVH is removed from western societies, on Fat Tuesday, revelers jam the streets with non-stop partying. The atmosphere is charged with drunkenness and unbridled sexual activity and perversion. In the French Quarter, homosexuals have costume contests before audiences of thousands. Women lean over balconies and openly expose their nakedness to anyone who will give mardi gras beads to them (The rosary was given to superimpose the mardi-gras beads). The practice of revelers engaging in sex with strangers is common and marriages and relationships suffer. After the festival ends, city streets are so filthy that the following day is jokingly referred to as “Trash Wednesday,” instead of Ash Wednesday.

Lent: Unfortunately the foundations of the coming season of Lent leading up to Easter are not as GODly as they seem. Today, Lent is used for “fasting from sin and from vice...forsaking sin and sinful ways.” It is a season “for penance, which means sorrow for sin and conversion to YHVH.” This tradition teaches that fasting and employing self-discipline during Lent will give a worshipper the “control over himself that he needs to purify his heart and renew his life. However, the Scriptures clearly show that self-control—temperance—comes from having the Holy Spirit working in the life of a converted mind (Gal. 5:16-17, 22-23). Fasting—of and by itself— cannot produce GODly self-control. Read Col 2.20-23: Paul warned against using self-denial as a tool to rely on your own will. He called it “will worship.” YHVH did not design fasting as a tool for penance, “beating yourself up” or developing will power: Isa 58.5-7. It is meant to subdue our flesh so we are more alert in our spirit man to hear and obey YHVH, to humble ourselves and draw closer to Him so we can think and act like Him and live His way of life in every aspect. Jer 9.23-24.

Coming from the Anglo-Saxon Lencten, meaning “spring,” Lent originated in the ancient Babylonian mystery religion. “The forty days abstinence of Lent was directly borrowed from the worshippers of the Babylonian goddess...Among the Pagans this Lent seems to have been an indispensable preliminary to the great annual festival in commemoration of the death and resurrection of Tammuz...” (The Two Babylons). Tammuz was the false Messiah of the Babylonians—a satanic counterfeit of Yeshua.

The Feast of Tammuz was usually celebrated in June (also called the “month of the festival of Tammuz”). Lent was held 40 days before the feast, celebrated by alternate weeping and rejoicing. This is why Lent means “spring”; it took place from spring to early summer.

The Bible records ancient Judah worshipping this false Messiah Ezek 8.14. Again, to conciliate the Pagans to nominal Christianity, ancient Roman church, took measures to get the Christian and Pagan festivals amalgamated, and, by a complicated but skillful adjustment of the calendar, it was found no difficult matter, in general, to get Paganism and Christianity—now far sunk in idolatry—in this as in so many other things, to shake hands. The Roman church replaced Passover with Easter, moving the pagan Feast of Tammuz to early spring, “Christianizing” it. Lent moved with it. This change of the calendar in regard to Easter was attended with momentous consequences. It brought into the Church the grossest corruption and the rankest superstition in connection with the abstinence of Lent

Before giving up personal sins and vices during Lent, the pagans held a wild, “anything goes” celebration to make sure that they got in their share of debaucheries and perversities—what the world celebrates as Mardi Gras or Fat Tuesday today before Ash Wednesday.

- Yeshua said in John 8.32 – You shall know the truth and the truth (you know) shall set you free. The information given is for the knowledge of believers. There is a lot of information available today on these various festivals. When Daniel and his friends chose not to partake of the king’s delicacies, it was not necessarily a sinful thing. They chose to consecrate themselves in what seemed a simple matter, but its consequences gave them a level of spiritual authority that others did not have. Ask the LORD what He would have you do, now that you know the background of some of these observances.

- Read Jer 10.23 and 17.9, Matt 4.4, John 10.35: YHVH commands His people to follow Him—not the traditions of men. His ways are higher—better than man’s Isa 55.8-9.. Men cannot determine for themselves right from wrong or how to properly worship YHVH. Only He can has given clear direction on how He should be worshipped and honored and it is all documented in Scriptures. We must realize that our worship must be by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of YHVH and that His scriptures are irrevocable. Pray as the Holy Spirit will lead you on these matters. Rev 18.2-4, 2 Cor 4.4, Rev 12.9

- Pray that in this season you will pay greater attention to the reality of the Feasts of YHVH rather than pagan festivals that are covered with a thin veil of piety and religiosity.

- Pray that your belief that each day is the day of YHVH, means that it shall be completely dedicated to Him and Him alone; without the trappings of the doctrines of men that nullify the power of YHVH.

- Yeshua made it clear exactly what observances ought to be made by His disciples in every generation - As surprising as it may seem, Lent was never observed by Yeshua or His apostles. He commanded His disciples to “Go you therefore, and teach all nations...to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you” (Matt. 28:19-20). Yeshua never commanded them to observe Lent or Easter. He did, however keep and become the fulfillment of the Passover and the Days of Unleavened Bread. In fact, during His last Passover on Earth, He gave detailed instructions on how to observe the Passover service. He also instituted new Passover symbols with Himself as the Lamb of YHVH slain for the salvation of the world and the partaking of the Holy Communion to remember His sacrifice as often as it was observed (John 13:1-17; Luke 22:19-20).

PRAYING FOR NATIONS

Israel

- Read Esther 8: During this little Purim i.e. Purim Katan people of Jewish descent have a minor feast preceding the main one next month; recalling their deliverance from Haman and the destruction of their adversaries in Persia led by Esther and Mordecai.

Pray that in this season of heightened anti-Semitism from around the world, the LORD will execute a mighty deliverance for Israel and the Jewish people in the diasporas.

- Read Genesis 12.1-3: Pray for the leadership of Israel as they navigate through delicate relations across the world; where former allies seem to have abandoned them, and new relationships are being forged especially in Africa. Pray for the renewal of diplomatic ties between Tanzania and Israel.

Zika Virus

Zika is a disease caused by Zika virus that is spread to people primarily through the bite of an infected Aedes species mosquito. A disease linked to the Zika virus in Latin America poses a global public health emergency requiring a united response, says the World Health Organization. Experts are worried that the virus is spreading far and fast, with devastating consequences. The infection has been linked to cases of microcephaly, in which babies are born with underdeveloped brains. The WHO alert puts Zika in the same category of concern as Ebola. The virus is spreading in South America and the Caribbean Islands. So far they have reported 4000 cases of the ailment in Brazil alone.

- Read Psalm 107.20 Present South America as a region before YHWH Rapha our Healer declaring His healing hand over the people, especially areas where there is very little access to fumigation and other preventive interventions like the heavily crowded slums and overpopulated areas.

- Pray that the Ecclesia will take this opportunity to lead in reaching out to the affected areas in supporting and educating the masses and in medical initiatives. Pray that it will be an opportunity to take the gospel of Yeshua to these people and minister healing by faith even to the children born with microcephaly.
- Pray that this virus will be contained, even though the WHO have declared it a global disaster. We nullify these words and declare that the virus will be contained, and it will not spread any further than it has already; but will begin to have solutions.
- What people need the most, the LORD always ensures they have it in abundance, that is why we have air everywhere; it is in abundance because it is a necessity. It is similar for when there is an abundance of an illness in a community or territory. The LORD always has a local solution to that ailment in nature. Pray that kingdom citizens in Science and technology will be given divine inspiration as to how to deal with this spreading virus using locally available alternatives so that it is accessible to all.

- Pray that the elections will be free and fair and will also be finished within the designated time
- Pray for the peace of the above nations as they go for their various elections.
- Pray that there shall be a clear winner in every category of governance.
- Pray that YHVH will indeed raise through the governments that come to power in this season, leaders who will fear YHVH and heed His word.

PRAYING THRU THE HEAVENS

YHVH gave created righteous man authority of all that He created including the heavens and the earth. However after the fall this authority was taken away. Men had minimal knowledge of the heavens, except those who dabbled in wickedness and gained some perverted knowledge on how to control the heavens and manipulate the sun, moon and stars to do other than what they were created for. In Psalm 115.16 before Yeshua's sacrifice on Calvary, the heavens were the domain of YHVH's authority. However after His triumphant redemption of all creation, Yeshua declared ALL AUTHORITY IN HEAVEN AND ON EARTH was given to Him. He then commissioned all who will be His disciples to take this authority and use it to disciple all creation back to its original purposes as spelled out in scriptures.

- Praise YHVH for the wonderful privilege of understanding the heavens, their role and from month to month, redeeming them to do their original bidding especially through this prayer guide.
- The role of the heavens is clearly spelled out in Genesis 1.14-17. They are to mark out the times and seasons and they have done it with precision since creation. Praise YHVH for their effective role. Dedicate all times and seasons into the hands of YHVH.
- Read Psa 19.1-6, Psa 148 Command the heavens to declare the glory of YHVH alone, and obey only His command through Kingdom citizens who are aligned with His purposes. Command them to disregard every other voice print from the kingdom of darkness through the occult and false religions. Psa 19. 1-6, Psa 148
- Read Isa 44.24-25 The kingdom of darkness tries to align the heavens to adhere to their evil plans and purposes to strengthen the world system. Pray that every prognostication, every alignment from the kingdom of darkness will be turned into confusion in every part of the earth. The heavens shall be closed unto all diviners and prognosticators, and their words will be unintelligible mutterings without any power

• Proclaim Ps 7:10; 59:9&17 and Ps 94:22 for strength and fortification.

Lunar Events

The month opens with a Last Quarter moon which will occur on 1 February 2016 @03.29UTC. The First Quarter moon will occur on 15 February 2016 @07.47UTC

- Command the quarter moons to praise YHVH in their season.
- The quarter moon is D shaped and the occult uses it as a bow to shoot arrows of wickedness to the unsuspecting and to gain unfair advantage. Proclaim Psalm 64 to counter every such attack at these phases of the moon.
- Read Zech 10.3-5 Yeshua is the Lion of the tribe of Judah and therefore all who are called by His name are of that lineage in the spirit. Declare that you will become a bow in His hand and you will be counted as one of those whom He will use to destroy the works of the enemy during such seasons as these as you counter every power that wants to use the quarter moons as bows to shoot wickedness.

- Pray that in the incoming month, with their swords drawn and their bows bent for destruction of the righteous, YHVH will cause the swords of the wicked to enter their own heart, and their bows will be broken. (Ps 37:14-15)

The new moon that ushers in the next month will occur on February 8 2016

@14.40UTC

- As the new moon appears, command it and the crescent to praise YHVH alone and dedicate the new month to Him.
- Read Psalm 81. During the new moon it was a time to gather properly and present solemn intercessions before the LORD. During the coming new moon season, take time to solemnly present yourself as a tool of prophetic intercession for your family, the Ecclesia, your territory as the Holy Spirit leads you.
- During the new moon, prophetically prophesy the things you would like to see occurring into the next month as YHVH will guide you and as the new moon waxes, declare that the seed of your prophetic word will germinate and grow and come to fullness during the full moon. Declare that the manifestation will occur as the moon wanes into the next month.
- A C shaped moon or its mirror image is a crescent. The occult use the crescent moon as sickles (e.g. Hecate's sickle), for harvesting the gains of the ignorant. Proclaim Isa 44.24-25 over every evil gathering that draws power from the new moon.

The Full Moon will occur on February 22 @18.20UTC

- This is the season when the moon is in its full strength. Command the moon to praise YHVH and dedicate all its strength to heeding only to His command and purpose.
- At the full moon declare that every prophetic decree you had prophesied for this month will have reached it fullness and will begin to be released to you with the waning of the moon.
- At the full moon pray 1 Tim 1.7 over your mind will and emotions, and those who are connected with you
- During the full moon the gravitational pull causes the waters of the earth to ebb and flow causing the ebb and flow of tides. All creatures are also largely water so the waters in the body become imbalanced causing a lot of "lunatic" – mentally distorted actions. Those with mental challenges get more troubled, emotionally creatures are affected and there is heightened crimes of passion. Declare that during this full moon, command over all the waters of the earth and in the body "peace be still".

Solar Events

From January 20 2016 to 17 February 16 2016 as the sun made its circuit through the heavens, it passed through a cluster of 51 stars in the constellation called CAPRICORNUS symbolized by the sea goat. This represents Yeshua as the Goat of atonement slain by the arrow of YHVH for the Redeemed. You may refer to the January 2016 Prayer guide to pray through the heavens up until Feb 17th.

From February 17th 2016 to March 11th 2016 as the sun makes it circuit through the heavens it will pass through a cluster of 108 stars in the constellation called AQUARIUS located in a region of the sky sometimes called the Sea. In sky lore astronomers tend to associate these star patterns with water. It is in Aquarius we find Cetus the Whale, Pisces the Fish, Eridanus the River and Piscis Austrinus the Southern Fish. Named: "Their blessing ensured" or "The living waters of blessing poured forth for the redeemed," Frostbitten of Him coming down; YHVH's rivers/streams; Pours out Spirit Isa 33, Joel 2.

The constellation is pictured in the heavens by a man (Yeshua) pouring forth water from an urn which seems to have an inexhaustible supply and flows forth downward into the mouth of a fish (the redeemed) which receives it and drinks it all up. The word of YHVH is symbolized by water in its purifying, cleansing, refreshing and reviving effect on the receiver (Eph 5:26)

- Praise YHVH that in this month He is the original Purifier and not the demon-deity Juno to whom the month was dedicated. Therefore dedicate this month of purification to YHVH.
- This is a year of the Word of YHVH. The water of the word purifies. Take time to read larger chunks of the word and as you read out the scriptures, pray the Word, worship with the word, prophetically pray that there will be a cleansing effect in areas of your body soul and spirit where cleansing is required for this season. Whether you need to have cleaner language, cleaner spiritual ears to hear YHVH more clearly, a cleaner conscience cleansed from feelings of condemnation and guilt, a cleaner blood system, nerve system, mental capacity from various diseases, proclaim those areas that you sense require a cleansing effect in this season.

- As the heavens declare, ask that the Holy Spirit will guide you in these coming days, to be in a posture of repentance, restitution and rededication of your own life to YHVH. Pray this for kingdom citizens everywhere.
- Proclaim Isaiah 47 Present your family and your community for purging of every defiling activity. Where there are oaths taken, unGODly blood covenants made, heightened ancestral worship activity, ask YHVH to drain the counterfeit purification activities.
- In this season a counterfeit from the kingdom of darkness, in the form of water spirit activities like the various pagan-inspired festivals of February take place. It is a strongman of pride and an obstinate spirit released over territories and people groups. Proclaim Psalm 18 over yourself and all who are connected with you as the sword of YHVH against every strongman of pride
- Proclaim Isa 27.1 and Ezek 32.1-5 over every strongman of pride through the water spirit Leviathan. Utter the voice of YHVH from Psalm 29 over the influence of these powers; as you proclaim the word of YHVH may its waters purify every defilement that has come from these powers released to operate in this season in the family, workplace, communities, the Ecclesia and in territory.
- Read Heb 12.24 Utter the voice of the blood of Yeshua which washes whiter than snow will cleanse and purify your community of every evil blood-letting that does not purify but defiles the land.

The other smaller group of stars called decans that form part of Aquarius describe the blessings bestowed upon the redeemed by Yeshua, the One who blesses.

Piscis Australis (The southern fish) represents the blessings bestowed. Piscis Australis is inseparable from Aquarius and represents the mouth of the fish. Water brings refreshment. Named: mouth of the fish; blessing is bestowed on the redeemed.

- As Yeshua pours out the water of His word over you as you read and pray the word over the body of Yeshua and territory, ask that His purifying water pass through all the waters of your body, the waters of your family and territory and drain them of every water spirit manifestation from your ancestry, from idolatrous activities, from bloodletting activities, sexual immorality, and any covenant breaking with YHVH
- Ask YHVH to do a deep and thorough sweeping of the Body of Yeshua as you faithfully read out the scriptures daily so that the voice of Ecclesia will become relevant with regard to governance of the nation as this is a season of divine governance.

“In the last day, that great day of the feast, Yeshua stood and cried, saying, If any man THIRST, let him come unto me and drink. He that believeth on me, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water”. Yeshua, by this call was referring to the Holy Spirit which they who believe in Him should receive after He has been glorified. (John 7:37-39)

- Pray that many will heed to this call of YHVH to purification and holiness in this season. And as many as desire a baptism of the Holy Spirit and manifestation through speaking in tongues, will receive this blessing in this season in your family and among kingdom citizens.

- Read Ezek 47.1-12 Pray that through your giving and sharing of His word, YHVH will give you opportunities to become a conduit through whom His living water will flow and touch lives of those who are otherwise dead in various aspects of sin and do not understand that the grace of Yeshua has been shed abroad to all who will believe and receive it.

Pegasus (The winged horse) represents the blessings quickly coming. Named; chief horse; speedy bestowment of living waters

- Read Isaiah 40:29-31. Thank YHVH that He exists outside of our time. Are there areas in which you feel He has delayed and you have been “waiting” too long? His blessings are coming quickly. Ask YHVH to help you walk in His timing with regard to His purposes being fulfilled in your life. Pray this for the Kingdom citizens everywhere.

- Read Isa 19.1-4 and invite the LORD to come swiftly on His chariot into your territory and cause a shaking of every idolatrous activity that has weakened your government and leadership, and weakened your nation.

- Pray that in this season when there is heightening demonic activity in the various pagan festivals, YHVH will activate in kingdom citizens the nature of the goodly war-horse to withstand and counter those vile activities. Proclaim Job 39.19-25 over this nature in your life as follows:

May we take on the nature of the strong war-horse may we be clothed with thunder on our neck. May we be fearless as he is and may our voice strike terror in the kingdom of darkness over _____. Everywhere our feet will tread upon in _____ we will rejoice in our strength for the joy of YHVH is our strength and we will run into the clash of arms. We will mock at fear and we will not turn back from the sword. The weapons of our warfare are mighty through YHVH to the pulling down of strongholds in _____ and we will have good success. YHVH strengthen our legs that we will devour the distance with fierceness and holy rage; and we will not stop because the trumpet has sounded. At the blast of the trumpet we will laugh. We will smell battle from afar, the thunder of captains and shouting, and we will go into the battle with the kingdom of darkness knowing that greater is He that is in us than He that is in _____. (Culled from Praying Thru the 10/40 Window @2014 Lily Mudasia GCLA Publication)

Cygnus (The swan) represents the one who blesses surely returning. It has to do with the Great Blessor and His speedy return. The swan is not so much a bird of the air but a bird peculiarly belonging to both the earth and waters. Named: Ethics from afar, fountain of life Psa 36.8-9

The entire star constellation signifies “The living waters of blessing poured forth for the redeemed who drink in the blessing. Bringing speedily the good news of the returning Redeemer.

- Read Psalm 121.6-8, Mal 4.2 This is a season of revival and healing. Thank Yeshua He is the Son of Righteousness who will in this season rise with healing in His wings. If there is any area of ailment, command the heavens to release healing to you and your loved ones. Remember that “sozo” has to do with healing too. The heavens shall not smite you, but rather, they will release every healing and succor for your body, soul and spirit. Pray this for the every kingdom citizen

- Read Rev 22.17 Thank YHVH that He has promised to return for His own and the heavens do declare this in this season. Pray that the Ecclesia will go back to the message of the Day of YHVH and that many kingdom citizens will have the call for the return of YHVH as we fulfill His purposes..

PROCLAIM

YHVH IS OUR REFUGE AND STRENGTH, AN EVER PRESENT HELP IN TROUBLE THEREFORE WE WILL NOT FEAR, THOUGH THE EARTH GIVE WAY AND THE MOUNTAINS FALL INTO THE HEART OF THE SEA, THOUGH ITS WATERS ROAR AND FOAM AND THE MOUNTAINS QUAKE WITH THEIR SURGING. THERE IS A RIVER WHOSE STREAMS MAKE GLAD THE CITY OF YHVH, THE HOLY PLACE WHERE THE MOST HIGH DWELLS. YHVH IS IN THE MIDST OF HER, SHE WILL NOT FALL; YHVH WILL HELP HER AT BREAK OF DAY PSALM 46:1-5
