Information about the Month of February

February was named after the Latin word "Februum" meaning purification. It was so named after the purification ritual "Februa" dedicated to deity Juno, held on February 15th in the old Roman calendar. From 27th February to 27th March marks the sixth (6th) month following the Biblical civil calendar and the twelfth (12th) and final of the Biblical sacred calendar. February is the second (2nd) month according to the Gregorian calendar. February is the shortest month of the year with 28 and a quarter days. In "ordinary years", it approximates to 28 ¼ days. After every 4 years, the quarter days add up to one full day creating a 29th day in each leap year.

February is the only month of the Gregorian calendar year that can pass without a single full moon because it has only 28 days in common years. It is also the only month of the calendar that once every six years and twice every 11 years, will have only four full 7- day weeks. February 2017 will have 4 of each of the days of the week. Researchers claim that this happens once every eight hundred and twenty-three (823) years.

This is a month of many deeply pagan events and it would do well to know their significance, in order to avoid participating in them, and helping other kingdom citizens to break free of the doctrines of men which have nullified the power of Jehovah in their lives.

What is the Name of our God?

According to Wikipedia "Jehovah is the Latinization of the Hebrew יהוה , one vocalization of the Tetragrammaton (יהוה) YHWH), the proper name of the God of Israel in the Hebrew Bible. The consensus among scholars is that the historical vocalization of the Tetragrammaton at the time of the redaction of the Torah (6th century BCE) is most likely Yahweh. The historical vocalization was lost because in Second Temple Judaism, during the 3rd to 2nd centuries BCE, the pronunciation of the Tetragrammaton came to be avoided, being substituted with Adonai ("my Jehovah"). The Hebrew vowel points of Adonai were added to the Tetragrammaton by the Masoretes, and the resulting form was transliterated around the 12th century as Yehowah. The derived forms lehouah and Jehovah first appeared in the 16th century.

"Jehovah" was popularized in the English-speaking world by William Tyndale and other pioneer English Protestant translations such as the Geneva Bible and the King James Version. It is still used in some translations, such as the New World Translation and Young's Literal Translation, but it does not appear in most mainstream English translations, as the terms "Jehovah" or "Jehovah": used instead, generally indicating that the corresponding Hebrew is Yahweh or YHWH." (From Wikipedia) In the Bishop's Bible (1568), the word Jehovah occurs in Exodus 6:3 and Psalm 83:18.

The Authorized King James Version (1611) renders Jehovah in Exodus 6:3, Psalm 83:18, Isaiah 12:2, Isaiah 26:4, and three times in compound place names at Genesis 22:14, Exodus 17:15 and Judges 6:24. The Leningrad Codex is the oldest complete manuscript of the Hebrew Bible in Hebrew. It is dated 1008 CE.

You can download it at <http://www.seforimonline.org/?s=hebrew+bible+manuscript>. This Hebrew manuscript contains 50 occurrences of the full spelling of the name Yehovah. The Aleppo Codex is an ancient vocalized Hebrew manuscript. It is about 100 years older than the Leningrad Codex but it is not complete. This document contains the name Yehovah. When you look at Ezekiel 28:22 in the Aleppo Codex it says: "Thus says Adonai Yehovah.."

I encourage you this month to read and study this document for yourself. There is a website that will help you. It is www.aleppocodex.org.

The King James Version uses "LORD" to translate the divine name in most instances. Jesus's Hebrew name "Yehoshua" (יהושע) (means "Yehovah saves" and is derived from יהוה). This Hebrew name became "Jesus" in Aramaic and "Ἰησοῦς" (Iesous) in Greek. What is the meaning of Yehovah (Jehovah)? According to Easton's Bible Dictionary "Jehovah - the special and significant name (not merely an appellative title such as Lord [adonai]) by which God revealed himself to the ancient Hebrews (Exodus 6:2 Exodus 6:3). This name, the Tetragrammaton of the Greeks, was held by the later Jews to be so sacred that it was never pronounced except by the high priest on the great Day of Atonement, when he entered into the most holy place.

Whenever this name occurred in the sacred books they pronounced it, as they still do, "Adonai" (i.e., Lord), thus using another word in its stead. The Massorets gave to it the vowel-points appropriate to this word. This Jewish practice was founded on a false interpretation of Leviticus 24:16. The meaning of the word appears from Exodus 3:14 to be "the unchanging, eternal, self-existent God," the "I am that I am," a covenant-keeping God. (Compare Malachi 3:6 ; Hosea 12:5 ; Revelation 1:4 Revelation 1:8 .)

The Hebrew name "Jehovah" is generally translated in the Authorized Version (and the Revised Version has not departed from this rule) by the word LORD printed in small capitals, to distinguish it from the rendering of the Hebrew Adonai and the Greek Kurios, which are also rendered Lord, but printed in the usual type. The Hebrew word is translated "Jehovah" only in Exodus 6:3 ; Psalms 83:18 ; Isaiah 12:2 ; 26:4 ... Let us look at some examples: 1 Kings 18:24 says: Then you call on the name of your Elohim, and I will call on the name Yehovah, and the Elohim who answers by fire, He is Elohim. Isaiah 60:19 says: No longer will you have the sun for light by day, nor for brightness will the moon give you light, but you will have Yehovah for an everlasting light, and your Elohim for your glory.

The ancient Israelites used the name as a blessing in daily life. Ruth 2:4 gives us an example. It says: Now behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem and said to the reapers "May Yehovah be with you." And they answered him, "May Yehovah bless you."

Why do we include a section on Praying through the Heavens in our Guide?

Believers are a royal priesthood unto Jehovah (1 Pet 2:9), we have also been made kings and priests unto our Jehovah (Rev 1:6; 5:10). The priest's lips should keep knowledge and the law should be sought at his mouth (Mal 2:7). Jehovah interprets our ignorance of various aspects of the kingdom as a rejection of knowledge with grievous consequences (Hos 4:6). Knowledge of the heavens and how to deal with them in every season is a very important aspect of the Kingdom of heaven.

In Primeval Astronomy, "The Gospel in the Stars," Joseph Augustus Seiss explains the purpose of the stars and their constellations in their original context. In a lecture entitled, "The Starry Worlds," first published in 1882, he attests: "Such wonderful creations of almighty power and wisdom were not without a purpose." Seiss explains that stars and groups of stars, constellations, were created to fill the galaxy— in a particular order for a very specific purpose. God created the stars (Gen. 1:16) and positioned them in their exact places in the universe (Ps. 8:3). Stars were, "for signs and for seasons, and for days and for years, in the expanse of the heavens to give light upon the earth." (Gen. 1:14, 15).

Stars were so important that God named them. "He determines the number of the stars and calls them each by name." (Ps. 147:4). The stars are a continual reminder that the Seed of the woman will ultimately triumph over the Serpent (Gen. 3:15). God's revelation is constantly told in the stars (Ps. 19) — which is a message of salvation — available to every generation who professes faith. (Romans 9-11, Joel, Isa.) The entire ancient world received the gospel prior to Christ ever being born— through the stars.

Excerpts from the 2017 Prophecies

This year we will be proclaiming two or three Psalms each day of the week.

1st day of the week (SUN)	Isaiah 60, Psalm 103, Psalm 65
2nd day of the week (MON)	Psalm 59, Psalm 71, Psalm 106
3rd day of the week (TUES)	Psalm 67, Psalm 73, Psalm 107
4th day of the week (WED)	Psalm 119, Psalm 117
5th day of the week (THURS)	Psalm 29, Psalm 66, Psalm 118
6th day of the week (FRI)	Psalm 68, Psalm 3, Psalm 136
7th day of the week (SAT)	Psalm 72, Psalm 126, Psalm 100

You are going to program this year every morning but you start with the beginning of the day that is at 6 pm to 9pm. You can do a minimum of 15 minutes. If you can it is better to do one hour in the first watch of the day. There are only three watches [that you are required to keep]. Two night watches and one day watch.

That is what will provide the highway for God to take back His inheritance. It is His estate. His inheritance in you and through you will be taken back for the Kingdom. If you do not know anything else to pray, pray the psalms for that day. So between 6pm and 9pm is the first time that you must pray; preferably, one hour, but at least 15 minutes. You could also do the whole watch.

The second watch is the last watch of the night, 3 am to 6 am. For this one if it is possible those of you that are born on that day of the week you should meet in a central location for one hour: God is going to come riding upon the clouds and upon the waves. What He did to deliver the Israelites from Egypt He will do on your behalf.

The last watch is the last watch of the day which is 3pm to 6pm. This is the time that whatever is supposed to change history in your life, your lineage, your community, your city, nation whatever God leads you, you now proclaim. Proclaim the psalms and whatever else God is leading you. There will be a lot of warfare going on. Ultimately it is about God taking back His inheritance in you and through you as far as His kingdom is concerned.

FOR THE YEAR 2017 THERE ARE SEVEN ARMED ROBBERS YOU WILL HAVE TO ARREST AND SEVEN DISCIPLINES YOU WILL NEED TO DEVELOP.

THE SEVEN ARMED ROBBERS

These are the seven armed robbers that you will need to arrest this year if you are going to make it the way God ordained for you to make it.

1. The first armed robber is idolatry. That is what we need to watch out for this year. You say, "We are not idolaters. That is why we are here." In fact, I had to repent while I was with God because He said even opinions of men can be an idol. Where their opinion is more important to you than what God wants done, [that is idolatry]. I had to repent because there are times that [I would say] "Before they misunderstand..." Opinions of men, relationships, friendships, family relationships [can become idols]. You think, "I don't want to rock the boat." So you don't do what God has said you should do. That is idolatry and that has robbed many of us here of a lot of things and the progress that God wanted you to make. God said this year the armed robber will be arrested.

[Pray] I arrest every robber of idolatry. Every robber of idolatry in my life, in our home, in our family, in our ancestry, in our lineage, every altar of idolatry, every single symbol of idolatry, every access point of idolatry, every single platform of idolatry that has gained access to us one way or another, today we declare them arrested and destroyed. For the aspect of the platforms – they shall not be available any longer. We declare that it is no longer a platform of idolatry. It will be a platform of divine expression and ownership in the name of the Lord Jesus.

2. Second armed robber—It is the armed robber that many people don't seem to have even taken note of. [It is] superficiality. Being superficial you don't go deep enough. When He talked about superficiality, He said the reason is that because you want to keep friends. There are toxic friends that we have kept. It is a slow poison. God said the vital forces of life would be reduced in their functionality because of your toxic friends. A toxic friend will be recognized by anybody that comes around you and when you finish talking [with them] they have not added anything. You have wasted time. They come and they keep subtracting from you. They keep taking away your time, your opportunities, distracting you. The person might not be somebody who is poisoning your mind. Those who poison your mind are worse poisons. Anybody who every time you meet they do not add anything to your life, from today remove them. Cut them out. From today if you come with your toxicity I am not going to allow it. I am serious. I am telling you this is serious. Some of them have become like broken down vehicles on your way to progress.

Stand and pray for a minute—Let every form of toxicity that has gained access to my life be flushed out and let every access point be blocked right now. Including any part of my being that will begin to be activated so that it can reject them the moment I even sense them with the filaments that God has given me. Before they are in visibility you can feel it from afar. When they are coming you will be able to reject them and put up the defenses that God has given to you in the name of Jesus. I declare every toxicity that has gained access to my life, that has gained access to my circle, that has gained access to our office, toxicity in terms of ideas, toxicity in terms of people, toxicity in terms of specific system structures right now we declare that you are flushed out by the blood of Jesus in the name of the Lord Jesus. Every form of toxicity that has gained access to our home, that has gained access to our marriage, that has gained access to our lineage, that has gained access to our family, that has gained access to our family life, right now I declare you flushed out by the blood of Jesus. Be flushed out right now by the blood of Jesus. Be flushed out by the blood of Jesus, in the name of our Lord Jesus.

I block the access points for these toxins and toxic wastes that have gained access. There are some that are not outright toxins. If you take more than you should take the excess becomes toxic waste and over a period of time it becomes toxic overload. May all such access points be blocked in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Access point for toxins into hearts, into minds, into emotions, into wills, into intellects, into consciences, into dispositions, world views, mentalities, perceptions, understanding, relationships and relational skills, right now these access points are blocked in the name of Jesus. We increase sensitivity to be able to deal with whatever is supposed to be dealt with so that you can now know that is a signal that toxicity is about to come in and you will stop it. You will arrest it in the name of the Lord Jesus. We declare that settled right now according to God's original plan and purpose in the name of the Lord Jesus.

3. The third armed robber – Distraction. It has been robbing people. Haven't you seen situations where [with] just a little distraction you end up with an accident? A little distraction and you end up losing and missing an opportunity of a lifetime.
4. Armed robber number four: lethargy—(synonyms: inaction, slowness, idleness) You must arrest and deal with lethargy this year. Lethargy is lack of energy. How many of you have said, "I don't have energy for this?" If it is [for something] negative then that is correct. But for some of you, sometimes when God asks you to do something, you just look at how big the whole thing is and you say, "I don't have energy. I cannot do it." That is an armed robber called lethargy coming in. Lethargy is lack of enthusiasm. Lethargy is sluggishness. [In medicine lethargy is a pathological state of sleepiness or deep unresponsiveness and inactivity.]

May every iota of sluggishness in your system be flushed out in the name of Jesus. May God bring such enthusiasm back to you. May God bring that tenacity and that pride back into your life in the name of the Lord Jesus. How about inertia?—You have been planning to do the thing but there is no movement. This year will be a year of movement. May yours not be negative movement where people push you out of the way but you would rather be the one making progress. Inactivity—There are some people who like to lie down. You are shifting on the bed and you say I am going to have a shower and then twenty minutes later – I am going to have my shower soon. May God deliver you from that in the name of Jesus. May there be promptness of action in the name of the Lord Jesus. That you will act promptly to do anything that God would ask you to do. May there be fast action. Put life back into that which you do.

5. Armed robber number five: Laziness
6. Armed robber number six: Procrastination
7. Armed robber number seven: Lateness

THE SEVEN DISCIPLINES

1. The first discipline is the discipline of the Word. In terms of disciple of the Word—You will have to settle with yourself to read a certain number of chapters of the Bible each day. Those who are starters can start with ten chapters. Those who want to be serious, twenty chapters. Others can do forty chapters. Some can do one hundred and twenty, two hundred, whatever God leads you.
2. The second one is prayer.
3. The third is hearing the voice of God.
4. The fourth one is obedience. You hear, then you obey.
5. The fifth one is the discipline of fasting. Those of you who have not kept the aspect of fasting on the day of the week on which you were born, this is the year that you should do it. You should reconnect with your foundations. The original purpose for which God brought you on the face of the earth. You should reconnect with that and let the oil from the throne of God flow through your life.
6. The sixth discipline is the discipline of exercise. That is exercise in the realm of the spirit, in the realm of the soul and in the realm of the physical. Exercising spiritually is any spiritual exercise that you used to do that kept you in top form. God showed me that there were things that He helped us to do that brought us how far we have come and we have stopped doing them. So ask God for next levels of expression. Exercises in the realm of the soul, includes memorization, anything that will help your brain you have to do it this year. If you have to stretch yourself read things you never thought you could. Learn a new language. Learn a language that is very challenging for you. There are certain things you find most challenging—it is time to challenge yourself. You must out-perform yourself. God is serious. Physical exercises—this is the time you must take exercises seriously. If you need a coach or a personal trainer sign up.
7. The seventh discipline is the discipline of practicing the presence of God. God told Dr. Bako that He wanted him to acquire and cultivate the discipline of practicing His presence. The question He asked him was how did Enoch do it? He walked with Me 300 years and had other sons and daughters. It means he was actually going about business but he walked with Me [God] every step of the way. Dr. Bako said that was true. God then asked him who was he supposed to be copying after? Dr. Bako answered Jesus. God said was that not what he was doing throughout his life here? Whether Jesus was eating or sleeping he was in the presence of God. It is important that you practice the presence of God everywhere you go.

Dr. Bako praying for Israel, noted that whoever possesses the gates possesses anything that you are trying to possess. He looked at Ezekiel 26:1-3, (NIV) which says: "In the eleventh month of the twelfth year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: "Son of man, because Tyre has said of Jerusalem, 'Aha! The gate to the nations is broken, and its doors have swung open to me; now that she lies in ruins I will prosper,' therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, Tyre, and I will bring many nations against you, like the sea casting up its waves."

Verse 2 clearly says Jerusalem is the gate to the nations. That is why they want Jerusalem destroyed! It is not about land it is about a particular altar. The UN resolution 2334 – Look at Matthew 23:34 & 35: Therefore I am sending you prophets and sages and teachers. Some of them you will kill and crucify; others you will flog in your synagogues and pursue from town to town. And so upon you will come all the righteous blood that has been shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Berekiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.

This is what they are trying to push so that they can now increase the violence in the nations. God will delay it a bit. It might still come because of some things in Daniel 11:7: "One from her family line will arise to take her place. He will attack the forces of the king of the North and enter his fortress; he will fight against them and be victorious." Dr. Bako prayed that God's counsel over Jerusalem and over Israel would stand.

The second part of the prayer was that God would give the Israel and the Jews His own strategy. Pray that God would give the Arabs His strategy. According to Isaiah 19:19-25, the reason why you see these three being persecuted—the Jews, the Africans and the Assyrians amongst the Arabs is because they are supposed to be a blessing in the earth. There is a fight because if the three come together blessing will be upon the earth. The devil does not want the blessing. This is what the Dragon is fighting. That is why you will continue with the peace process but any way other than the way of God will not succeed. The congregation prayed the two prayer points:

1. Pray that God's counsel over Jerusalem and over Israel would stand. No other counsel will stand. Pray that the counsel of man will not stand.
2. Pray that God would give Israel and the Jews His own strategy. Pray that God would give the Arabs His own strategy.

Praying through the Month of February 2017

PRAYING THRU THE MONTH

Finally the twelfth and final month of the Sacred calendar is here, receive it with song ministrations of praise and thanksgiving to Jehovah.

The first 3 months i.e. January and February signify a season of reflection. January is the 1st month of the Gregorian calendar; February is the 12th and final month of the Sacred calendar; and March is the 1st month of the sacred Jewish calendar. It's a season of endings and beginnings. Thank Jehovah for another opportunity to dedicate this key gate of time and season to Him. Declare Psalm 24 over these gates.

Many people make resolutions during this season. Make prophetic declarations which dedicate this exit/entrance gate to Him. Refer to the various prophetic words that have been released especially over the New Year; and reinforce their significance at the watches of this key gate.

It is a season of proclaiming the Word of Jehovah. Pray that Kingdom citizens will understand and submit to the processes He is taking them through especially in relation to their utterances, so they will not speak unadvisedly with their lips against His purposes. Job 32:8; James 4:7a; Ps 106:33

It is a year of the Word of Jehovah. Pray that during this season as you increase your word intake and listen to, read, study, sing the scriptures then Isaiah 51.16 will be your reality – The word of Jehovah will be on your lips to create His purposes at every moment of life and existence. Pray this for kingdom citizens everywhere. Isa 50.4-5, 51.16, Psa 141.3.

This is the 2nd month of the Gregorian year. Two (2) is the number of witness, differences division and distinctness. From Gen 1:6-8, on the 2nd day the firmament was created and positioned in the middle of the waters to divide, separate the waters from the waters. In this month focus on the number 2 as depicting separation, division, difference and distinction.

- Pray that this month you will take a deeper walk of separation - and lead a consecrated life of separation unto Jehovah. (2 Cor 6:14-18)
- The world has come into the body of Jesus Christ and there is gross mixture, even outright unGODliness being permitted. Pray that the body of Jesus Christ will receive a revelation of the scripture that we are in the world but not of the world. Pray that you will be counted among the priesthood whom Jehovah is raising in these days, to take this truth into a reality and to disciple individuals, communities and territories within your gate of society to live out this truth becoming salt and light. (Num 8:6, 2Tim 2:19, Matt 5.12-14, Joh 17:14-17)

The sixth month of the Biblical civil year will commence during this month. Six (6) is the number of man. Jehovah created the first righteous man in the end of the sixth day of creation week. (Gen 1:26-31) Everything Jehovah created was good, yet the moment He created man; He saw that everything was VERY good. It shows that the RIGHTEOUS MAN HAS AN ENDOWMENT FOR IMPROVEMENT WHEREVER HE GOES. Every kingdom citizen has become the righteousness of Jehovah because of believing and receiving the finished work of Jesus Christ as our Substitute and Savior thru His passion, death on the greatest altar ever raised – Calvary and His resurrection to eternal life.

Romans 5.17-19 says: For if, by the trespass of the one man, death reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive Jehovah's abundant provision of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ, the Messiah. Consequently, just as one trespass resulted in condemnation for all people, so also one righteous act resulted in justification and life for all people. For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one man the many will be made righteous.

- Many Kingdom citizens struggle to embrace the truth that, if we readily agree that we were born into the Adamic original sin and its consequences; not by what we did but because of the fall; then equally, acceptance of Jesus Christ's righteous act of redemption gives us a right to access everything that He died for; our salvation and we are imputed righteous. Pray that in this season of Grace you will gain a revelation of His imputed righteousness as a right for you to access all He has in store for you. Pray this for kingdom citizens everywhere.
- What does imputed righteousness encompass? How do we walk in our identity in Jesus Christ as "the righteousness of Jehovah?" It is by embracing salvation by grace through faith. In the Strong's Greek Concordance for the word "saved," the #4982 (108 occurrences rather than #4992 soteria with 5 occurrences) Sozo is the root word for another word Soter(ia) which has to do with save or Savior or salvation. "Sozo/Soteria" means "TO SAVE, DELIVER, PROTECT, HEAL, PRESERVE, DO WELL, BORN AGAIN, PROSPER AND BE MADE WHOLE." Many of us embrace only the "born again" part of salvation and struggle to accept and embrace the other aspects of salvation. Pray that in this season of the word, as you have a greater intake of the Word, everywhere you encounter the word "save" or "salvation" then you will read it and believe and receive it in all its various contexts as spelled out by the word "sozo".
- Pray that the body of Jesus Christ will recognize that Jesus Christ died for all creation and that we will take the revelation of His "sozo" to as many as are ignorant of the fact that He has already paid for every single one of them to be righteousness of Jehovah if they will only believe and receive Him and all He encompasses as Jesus Christ – which means "He shall save" (The One Who will save, deliver, aids, give victory, give prosperity, give health, give help, give eternal life, give welfare, prosper).
- The understanding and embracing of imputed righteousness is the beginning of understanding the Grace of Jehovah and accepting His unmerited favor. Only where grace abounds shall truth also be rightly discerned. Pray that in this season of grace you will experience every aspect of unmerited favor and other virtues of the term "grace"; and that you will receive by grace and through your belief in the "sozo" of Jesus Christ every resource, whether spiritual, physical or emotional and move further into your destiny path.

Read Heb 4.16 Many kingdom citizens struggle with condemnation due to various areas of besetting sins and weights that hinder our walk with Jesus Christ. We did not merit anything to receive Jesus Christ's full blessing. Similarly there is nothing we can do EXCEPT failure to believe in His finished work, that can remove us from the path of righteousness. That is why the blood of Jesus Christ is there permanently before the throne of Jehovah for us to come for repentance and cleansing, and to return back on track to fulfill our destiny. However, for many our own mindset, culture and religiosity have made us feel condemned and paralyzed to move forward in our imputed righteousness.

- A condemned building is one which has been rendered unfit for use. Condemnation whether by self or imposed says that we are unfit for use by Jehovah. Remind yourself on a regular basis, whether you have good success, or are struggling in an area of failure that you are the righteousness of Jehovah. You did nothing to deserve it in the first place, there is nothing you can possibly do to lose it. If you accepted freely that you were born in sin, not because of any particular sinful action but because of one man Adam, then you can as well accept freely that because of one man Jesus Christ, you were imputed righteous and have a right and access to all that His death and resurrection acquired for you – abundant life, peace, joy, wealth, health, success in every aspect of existence; by your faith i.e. belief and receiving in His finished work.
- In order to know Jehovah as Jehovah, there is need to demolish the idols that you have raised in your heart as the image of Jehovah. Is Jehovah your Shepherd so you shall not want? Or are there areas of your life which you still find wanting? Is your God Ruler of all the earth? Or are there portions of the earth you feel He is not present? Is your God a Healer? Or are there portions of divine healthy life that He has so far been unable to touch? Is your God a Provider? Or are there areas of provision which He has failed to meet? Is your God optional and not a necessity in every area of life? Then that is not Jehovah, that is something other than Adonai Elohim. Jehovah will respond to you according to that god whose image you have in your heart. Ask the Holy Spirit to bring down every imagination of Jehovah that you have hitherto had, and reveal to you Who Jehovah truly is. Idolatry begins not with bowing to things but with a wrong concept and image of Jehovah in your mind. Ezekiel 14:4, Romans 1:20-21 Romans 12:1-2

In this 6th month of the civil year, only those who are transformed by the renewing of their minds concerning the aspects of our imputed righteousness and the full expression of “sozo” in their lives and circumstances, will thrive. The scriptures say those who know their Jehovah will be strong and do exploits. It does not matter which deity one worships – those who know theirs and rightly identify with them will be strong. Today we see Muslims and Buddhists, Hindus and pagan worshippers who are diligent and know their god doing exploits whether positively or negatively. What will kingdom citizens do? As long as we do not understand who we are and what our rights as kingdom citizens are, then we shall be weak and be exploited as it is in the various territories today.

- The way of man is to DO things. Now Jehovah is calling you to BE. There are certain battles that have been ongoing and unyielding, Jehovah has said in this season that it is in being still, embracing your true identity as the righteousness of Jehovah, that you will see His “sozo” i.e. His redemption from eternal death, deliverance from various bondages and besetting sin, protection, healing, preservation, well-being, financial prosperity etc.
- Read Jer 17:9, Mark 7:21, 1 John 3:19-24; The human heart is desperately wicked. Therefore when we become kingdom citizens it becomes difficult to embrace “sozo” in its fullness with a condemning heart. Therefore in the scriptures in 1 John 3, the writer encourages us to continually convince our hearts of this imputed righteousness. Ask Jehovah to give you a personal revelation concerning this scripture in 1 John 3:19-24. Pray this for kingdom citizens everywhere.

Jesus Christ said that the heart is wicked and In Hebrews 4 we are encouraged to labour to enter into the rest of Jehovah. The labour is in convincing our hearts which continually condemn us, that we are the righteousness of Jehovah. We must labour to transform our minds to begin to think differently about all aspects of “sozo” including our right to divine health, financial prosperity, divine protection in an increasingly violent world, divine preservation from calamities, a right to long, abundant and joyful life etc. For the longest time, we have imputed Jehovah with wickedness when we experience calamities e.g. terminal illness, death, failure, and put it on Him

- As you pray for revelation, in this season, every morning, and at every given time, make a proclamation “I am loved by the True and Living LORD, Jesus Christ loves me; and I am the righteousness of Jehovah. I stand above reproach every time I enter the throne room of Grace to find help, and He delights in me for He sees the blood and the sacrifice, not my faults and my failures. His mercies for me are new this day. I will be a recipient of Jehovah’s love, mercy and unmerited favor in my home, my workplace, my relationships, my business, my fellowship and in every aspect of my life. I believe and receive everything I need which Jesus Christ paid for on Calvary for this day, and this season.” Remember you don’t have to feel it, but make it a habit to proclaim these truths often.

Kingdom citizens are encouraged to enter into God’s rest. Why? Jesus Christ paid it all. When our eyes are on Him, when we spend time in His presence, in the Word, renewing our minds, He will release divine economic strategies that will cause the wealth that has been so far amassed by the wicked to flow to the righteous.

- It is not because of anything you have done. You must change your mind concerning your spiritual exercises. They are good for YOU and do nothing to add or reduce Jehovah’s favor. They make you more sensitive to the spiritual, hear more clearly and then obey more easily. It is not merited righteousness, but unmerited favor because of our belief that Jesus Christ already anticipated this season 2000 years ago, and He already paid for it to pass over us. Praise Jehovah for this truth, and pray that you will receive your divine revelation of His grace as you labour to rest in the finished work of Jesus Christ. This year a number of fasts have been announced. This will be the purpose for your fastings, increased word intake, deeper prayer and intercession – to prepare to enter fully into His rest while the world rushes along.
- Read Psalm 24 and 50. “Recedere” is the Latin root word for recession. It literally means “return to Original Owner”. Psalm 24 informs us Who the Original Owner truly is. The reason why every kingdom citizen who embraces the full meaning of “sozo” will prosper, and thrive in this season, is simply because we are heirs to Jehovah’s possessions – the earth is Jehovah’s and the fullness thereof. In a recession when the world is going broke, it is time for Kingdom citizens to prepare their baskets and experience their greatest wealth transfer. Are you willing to obey, believe and receive “sozo”? Pray for renewed thinking concerning your imputed righteousness – pray this for kingdom citizens everywhere.

Righteous Governance

This is the 12th month of the Biblical Sacred Year. Twelve (12) represents divine government. Today as many government legislations continue to push against Biblical patterns, and as the occult seems to gain strength in matters of government and law, there are many fears of persecution and great oppression of the Body of Jesus Christ, and those who will live GODly lives. Jehovah has given anyone who will seek Him the ability to stand against the onslaught of the enemy and to do exploits like Daniel did in Babylon, and like Joseph did in Egypt.

- Pray that the Holy Spirit will guide the Body of Jesus Christ back to the strength of the covenant we have with Jehovah. He will be with us as we take our roles and disciple our nations back to His purposes.
- Read Zechariah 5:1-5, Psalm 149:6-9, Isaiah 28:5-6; In this season Jehovah said He is vacuum cleaning every sector of society. He also said that He is raising governments that will develop zero-tolerance for corruption in a number of nations. Pray for your nation that there shall be a vacuum cleaning in the area of government and governance.
- Command the flying scroll that will go after the thieves in government to be released. Pray that every national thief, every continental thief, every local thief, every family thief and every destiny thief will be captured by the flying scroll of Jehovah.
- It is the honor and glory of every saint to execute the written judgments against kings and rulers. Command every seat of government authority, every piece of timber, every brick, every piece of furniture in every government buildings to cry out against any person who continues to operate in corruption, who has entered by bloodshed, or who has been established by iniquity in this coming season.
- Read Isaiah 60:18; Command the borders of your territory to reject every whisper of violence or destruction in this season. Let every perpetrator of violence at any level be exposed and severely judged.
- Command the walls of every government building to allow only that which will bring redemption and salvation to the nation. Command every gateway of government to allow only that which is praiseworthy in this season of divine governance.
- Rev 22:2, this is the 2nd, 6th and 12th months of the year. Pray that you and the Body of Jesus Christ globally will receive the fruit of the tree of life for the 2nd, 6th and 12th month for your spiritual nourishment.
- Pray that the leaves for the healing of you, your family, territory and the Body of Jesus Christ assigned for the 2nd, 6th and 12th months will be released for your bodies, souls and spirits.
- Pray that as the healing of individuals and groups occurs, there shall be a level of healing released into the land.

- Praise Jehovah that your birthday marks the entry into another season of Jubilee. Thank Jehovah that immediately you were born, you cried out prophetically blowing your own jubilee cornet, and prophetically rejoiced in yourself. Ask Him to give you joy no matter your circumstance, to rejoice on this day

Festivals that are celebrated this month around the world

There are a number of festivals that occur during the month of February. A number have to do with the commencement of observances that lead up to the Easter period. One thing to note is that, every feast or festival that was “superimposed” with a Christian significance always tends toward a lot of destruction to the family and community at large in one way or another.

Over the years the enemy has taken these celebrations which are a counterfeit of the Feasts of Jehovah and turned them into something wicked. Many of these festivals have become very deeply entrenched among kingdom citizens of various denominations, so that it is almost very offensive to say anything contrary to just ‘going with the flow’ and embracing whatever cute meaning is wrapped around these days.

- First and foremost put it in your heart that every day, and every single moment of it is Jehovah’s day and it is our duty to rejoice, be glad in it and fulfill His redemptive purpose for us within those segments of time. Therefore praise Jehovah for each day of the festivals for He made the day for His pleasure. Rev 4.11

The Carnival, Valentine’s Day, Fat Tuesday (Mardi Gras) And Lent

There is a lot of history tied into the above festivals. Though celebrations like the Carnival and Mardi-Gras are not very popular in modern day Africa, their roots are found on the continent. Valentine’s day and Lent have both gained more and more prominence in a number of denominations within the Ecclesia. Each of these festivals and observances are rooted in pagan practices. Having done away with the power of the Holy Spirit to transform, the early Roman church found it very difficult to transform their followers from these observances. Therefore they simply superimposed the Feasts of Jehovah over some of the more popular observances.

At first it seemed very harmless, but as the years have gone by, many of these festivals that were supposedly tied in with Jehovah are exposed for what they really stand for as nations especially in the west turn further away from Jehovah. Christmas is no longer considered a “holy” celebration. It is now a hollow time of lasciviousness and licentiousness. It is now referred to as “Festive Season” with no particular meaning. Similarly the celebrations around the Easter are being coined into something else as men turn further away from Jehovah. This is the common trend with every doctrine of men – to nullify the power of Jehovah and give worship to the enemy.

Valentine’s day — Like Christmas, Easter, Halloween, New Year’s and other holidays of this world, St. Valentine’s Day is another attempt to “whitewash” perverted customs and observances of pagan gods and idols by “Christianizing” them.

As innocent and harmless as St. Valentine's Day may appear, its traditions and customs originate from two of the most sexually perverted pagan festivals of ancient history: Lupercalia (feast of sexual license) and the feast day of Juno Februata.

The Romans celebrated Lupercalia to honor the hunter god Lupercus god of fertility and husbandry, protector of herds and crops, and a mighty hunter. To the Greeks, from whom the Romans had copied most of their mythology, Lupercus was known as Pan, the god of light. The Phoenicians worshipped the same deity as Baal, the sun god. Baal was one of many names or titles for Nimrod, a mighty hunter, especially of wolves. He was also the founder and first lord of Babel (Gen. 10:10-12). Defying Jehovah, Nimrod was the originator of the Babylonian Mystery Religion, whose mythologies have been copied by the Egyptians, the Greeks, the Romans and a multitude of other ancient peoples. Under different names or titles—Pan, Lupercus, Saturn, Osiris—Nimrod is the strong man and hunter-warrior god of the ancients.

From Feb. 13 to 15, the Romans celebrated the feast of Lupercalia. The men sacrificed a goat and a dog. Clothed in loincloths made from the sacrificed goats and dogs smeared in their blood, the Luperci (male priests assisted by female vestal virgins) would run about Rome, striking women with februa, thongs made from skins of the sacrificed animals. The Luperci believed that the floggings purified women and guaranteed their fertility and ease of childbirth. This bloody pagan rite is where the red color of the day comes from.

The brutal fete included a matchmaking lottery, in which young men drew the names of women from a jar. To the Romans, February was also sacred to Juno Februata, the goddess of febris ("fever") of love, and of women and marriage. On February 14, billets (small pieces of paper, each of which had the name of a teen-aged girl written on it) were put into a container. Teen-aged boys would then choose one billet at random. The boy and the girl whose name was drawn would become a "couple," joining in erotic games at feasts and parties celebrated throughout Rome. After the festival, they would remain sexual partners for the rest of the year. This custom was observed in the Roman Empire for centuries.

After Constantine had made the Roman church's brand of Christianity the official religion of the Roman Empire (A.D. 325), church leaders wanted to do away with the pagan festivals of the people. Lupercalia was high on their list. But the Roman citizens thought otherwise. It was not until A.D. 496 that the church at Rome was able to do anything about Lupercalia. Powerless to get rid of it, Pope Gelasius instead changed it from February 15 to the 14th and called it St. Valentine's Day. It was named after one of that church's saints, who, in A.D. 270, was executed by the emperor for his beliefs.

In A.D. 494, Pope Gelasius renamed the festival of Juno Februata as the "Feast of the Purification of the Virgin Mary." The date of its observance was later changed from February 14 to February 2, then changed back to the 14. It is also known as Candlemas, the Presentation of Jehovah, the Purification of the Blessed Virgin and the Feast of the Presentation of Christ in the Temple.

Today, the holiday is big business. And so the celebration of Valentine's Day goes on, in varied ways. Many will break the bank buying jewelry and flowers for their beloveds. Others will celebrate in a SAD (that's Single Awareness Day) way, dining alone and binging on self-gifted chocolates.

- During the season surrounding the Easter celebration there is increase sexual immorality as pagan deities are given homage in veiled rituals and observances. This season of endings and new beginnings between December and March tends to have some of the vilest observances which usher in new season and plunge whole territories into grosser darkness with each observance. Pray for revelation within the Ecclesia which has ignored the real feasts of Jehovah but rather given great prominence to these other unGODly feasts
- Ask the Holy Spirit to help you gain a greater revelation of these seasons of men and how they take away from the real Feasts of Jehovah. It is only by obedience and revelation that the grip these particular holidays have can be released from kingdom citizens.
- These festivals of men have become cause for untold damage to relationships and a greater sense of loneliness for others. It is a season where in nations like Namibia, they record the highest number of suicides. When people feel abandoned or rejected because they have not been remembered with “gifts”, there is a sense of guilt when relatives, friends or colleagues cannot afford to spend lavishly or give “time off” to employees during these festivals. Marriages have experienced breakdown because at Christmas or Easter certain expectations were not met in terms of time spent with loved ones, gifts and holidays given to significant others, illicit affairs exposed, sickness even death from over indulgence and reckless abandon in morals and general behavior. Yet funny enough, you never hear of such damage to relationships because of the 7 real Feasts of Jehovah. Ask Jehovah to deliver you and kingdom citizens at large from the traps of the enemy wrapped up in these various celebrations.
- Some good has come out of these days when people have taken them seriously for what they are supposed to stand for. Thank Jehovah that He redeems everything for His own purposes especially when His people are still very ignorant about these celebrations.
- When you gain a revelation of these festivals and their true significance – for the enemy to find any worship he can gain, do not condemn those who are ignorant; rather pray for them and that their eyes will be opened to rather begin to respect the Feasts of Jehovah instead.

Carnival —Voodoo/voudon is a pagan religious practice popular in ancient West Africa. It incorporates a lot of magic, witchcraft, sacrifices and self- indulgent activities. There was specific worship music and dance composed especially for that carnival. Basically the priests of the various demon-deities worshipped in voudon would be celebrated as people danced on the streets to rhythmic intoxicating music with carefree abandon. That music and dance was referred to as “semba” (meaning “to invoke” the spirits) which was borrowed by the Portuguese and renamed “samba” very popular in South America and the Caribbean today.

On 14th February the most popular voudon carnival commences in Haiti and spreads around through the Caribbean and then South America. Inspired by Voudon carnivals of ancient West Africa, the Carnivals in , the Caribbean islands and South America are rapidly being embraced in other parts of the world. During the season which amalgamates with Valentine’s Day, there is an acceleration of immoral events – gay pride marches involving lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender culture, and the carnival celebrated in the Caribbean Islands and South America are all celebrated around the 14th – 16th February.

They are a platform for promoting very deep levels of sexual immorality, drug abuse and the wildest self-indulgent activities. The Carnival gives the last opportunity for revelry and self-indulgence in food, drink, music and sex, after which the “Christians” put up an act of penance during Lent! They thereby express high levels of hypocrisy to the faith.

- What religious observances have you been involved with? What are their origins? Do you realize that you dedicate your day/days to the deities you serve? Are you aware that these observances are renewals of covenants whose conditions you may not be fully aware of? When you take up dances like “Samba” do you realize you are invoking certain deities? Do you realize that these intoxicating dances that are so popular have a deeply pagan origin inspired by demon-deities for purpose of worship to themselves?
- Have you even “Christianized” some of these dances/music styles? Is it impossible for Jehovah to inspire dance and music styles that will glorify Him? Do we have to always copy the ways of the world? Do you realize that you are drawn to that kind of music/dance because of its intoxicating style deliberately implanted by these demon deities?
- Do you realize that when you do not make those covenantal renewal observations especially blood sacrifices as required, there is a backlash on you? Do you notice increased levels of bloodletting, even death through accidents? Ask Jehovah to give you understanding of His righteous standards in all these aspects.
- Do you wonder why there may be some calamities that befall people because of rituals and practices you may be ignorantly practicing? From the Christmas season to the time of Epiphany on the 12th night after Christmas, through to the Carnivals and Mardi Gras (Fat Tuesday) events and the Lent season up to the Easter season, there is escalating pagan practices that bring many to bondages they may not even be aware of.

Fat Tuesday/Mardi Gras — Billed as the “greatest free party on earth,” Mardi Gras is celebrated by millions around the world. Colorful costumes. Spectacular parades. Elegant pageants. Masked balls. People dancing in the streets to rhythmic, intoxicating music. All with an air of carefree abandon. As the music reverberates, alcohol flows. Wildly elaborate floats glide down the street, with frenzied masqueraders onboard. Crowds of onlookers shout encouragement.

Mardi Gras (also called “Carnival” in many countries) is a time of unrestrained merrymaking, in which participants passionately indulge every fleshly desire. Celebrated predominantly in Roman Catholic communities in Europe and Latin America, pre-Lenten carnivals are spreading in the U.S and Africa too. Even Asia is not being left behind in these festivities.

Although the term Mardi Gras refers to a specific day, it is not a single-day celebration. Every year, beginning in January, Carnival festivities occur daily, culminating in the final climatic Mardi Gras celebration the day before the observance of Lent, a 40-day period of self-denial. Mardi Gras is considered to be the last day for indulging in the pleasures of the flesh before Lent begins. In fact, the word Carnival means “farewell to the flesh,” and comes from the Latin words carnis (“flesh”) and vale (“farewell”).

The earliest record comes from ancient times, when tribes celebrated a fertility festival that welcomed the arrival of spring, a time of renewal of life. The Romans called this pagan festival Lupercalia in honor of "Lupercus," the Roman god of fertility as explained previously. Lupercalia was a drunken orgy of merrymaking held each February in Rome, after which participants fasted for 40 days.

Also it dates from the pre-Christian era when the Druids sacrificed offerings to pagan gods, seeking more fertile women and livestock. This day was also known as "Shrove Tuesday" (from the old English word "shrive," which means to confess all sins) and "Pancake Tuesday." The custom of making pancakes came from the need to use up all the fat, eggs and dairy products before the fasting period of Lent began.

Interestingly, similar to modern celebrations, the Romans donned masks, dressed in costumes and indulged all of their fleshly desires as they gave themselves to the gods "Bacchus" (god of wine) and "Venus" (goddess of love). The masks and costumes were used as disguises to allow sexual liberties not normally permitted as individuals engaged in "bacchanal," the drunken and riotous occasion in honor of Bacchus.

In France, the festival was called Mardi Gras, meaning "Fat Tuesday." This name comes from the ancient pagan practice of killing and eating a fattened calf on the last day of Carnival; Mardi Gras represents a blend of religion and immorality, steeped in ancient pagan fertility rites.

As pagans converted to Catholicism, they did not want to give up this popular celebration. Church leaders, seeing that it was impossible to divorce the new converts from their pagan customs, decided to "Christianize" this festival. Thus, Carnival was created as a time of merrymaking immediately preceding their pagan 40-day fast, which the church renamed "Lent." During Carnival, participants indulged in madness and all aspects of pleasure allowable, including gluttony, drunkenness and fornication.

In modern times as Jehovah is removed from western societies, on Fat Tuesday, revelers jam the streets with non-stop partying. The atmosphere is charged with drunkenness and unbridled sexual activity and perversion. In the French Quarter, homosexuals have costume contests before audiences of thousands. Women lean over balconies and openly expose their nakedness to anyone who will give Mardi Gras beads to them (The rosary was given to superimpose the Mardi-Gras beads). The practice of revelers engaging in sex with strangers is common and marriages and relationships suffer. After the festival ends, city streets are so filthy that the following day is jokingly referred to as "Trash Wednesday," instead of Ash Wednesday.

Lent —This year Lent begins on March 1 and end on April 13. Unfortunately the foundations of the coming season of Lent leading up to Easter are not as GODly as they seem. Today, Lent is used for "fasting from sin and from vice...forsaking sin and sinful ways." It is a season "for penance, which means sorrow for sin and conversion to Jehovah." This tradition teaches that fasting and employing self-discipline during Lent will give a worshipper the "control over himself that he needs to purify his heart and renew his life. However, the Scriptures clearly show that self-control—temperance—comes from having the Holy Spirit working in the life of a converted mind (Gal. 5:16-17, 22-23). Fasting—of and by itself—cannot produce GODly self-control. Read Col 2.20-23: Paul warned against using self-denial as a tool to rely on your own will. He called it "will worship." Jehovah did not design fasting as a tool for penance, "beating yourself up" or developing will power: Isa 58.5-7. It is meant to subdue our flesh so we are more alert in our spirit man to hear and obey Jehovah, to humble ourselves and draw closer to Him so we can think and act like Him and live His way of life in every aspect. Jer 9.23-24.

Coming from the Anglo-Saxon Lencten, meaning “spring,” Lent originated in the ancient Babylonian mystery religion. “The forty days abstinence of Lent was directly borrowed from the worshippers of the Babylonian goddess... Among the Pagans this Lent seems to have been an indispensable preliminary to the great annual festival in commemoration of the death and resurrection of Tammuz...” (The Two Babylons). Tammuz was the false Messiah of the Babylonians—a satanic counterfeit of Jesus Christ.

The Feast of Tammuz was usually celebrated in June (also called the “month of the festival of Tammuz”). Lent was held 40 days before the feast, celebrated by alternate weeping and rejoicing. This is why Lent means “spring”; it took place from spring to early summer.

The Bible records ancient Judah worshipping this false Messiah Ezek 8.14. Again, to conciliate the Pagans to nominal Christianity, ancient Roman church, took measures to get the Christian and Pagan festivals amalgamated, and, by a complicated but skillful adjustment of the calendar, it was found no difficult matter, in general, to get Paganism and Christianity—now far sunk in idolatry—in this as in so many other things, to shake hands. The Roman church replaced Passover with Easter, moving the pagan Feast of Tammuz to early spring, “Christianizing” it. Lent moved with it. This change of the calendar in regard to Easter was attended with momentous consequences. It brought into the Church the grossest corruption and the rankest superstition in connection with the abstinence of Lent

Before giving up personal sins and vices during Lent, the pagans held a wild, “anything goes” celebration to make sure that they got in their share of debaucheries and perversities—what the world celebrates as Mardi Gras or Fat Tuesday today.

- Jesus Christ said in John 8.32 – You shall know the truth and the truth (you know) shall set you free. The information given is for the knowledge of believers. There is a lot of information available today on these various festivals. Since we are in an epoch making season within the Ecclesia and the nations, there is need for an army of kingdom citizens who will be able to stand like Daniel and Joseph within unGODly societies, and influence each gate with the purposes of Jehovah. How will we do it when we are entangled with pagan covenantal practices? If you will stand in this key season, you need to decide whom you will serve and what you will dedicate your times and seasons to. Now you know, ask for guidance from the Holy Spirit on what direction you will take.
- Read 1 Cor 14.33; Jehovah is not the Author of confusion. He never instituted Lent, a pagan observance connecting debauchery to the supposed resurrection of a false Messiah. As the Holy Spirit leads you, bring repentance for involving yourself in such observances.
- Read Jer 10.23 and 17.9, Matt 4.4, John 10.35: Jehovah commands His people to follow Him—not the traditions of men. His ways are higher—better than man’s Isa 55.8-9.. Men cannot determine for themselves right from wrong or how to properly worship Jehovah. Only He can have given clear direction on how He should be worshipped and honored and it is all documented in Scriptures. We must realize that our worship must be by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of Jehovah and that His scriptures are irrevocable. Pray as the Holy Spirit will lead you on these matters. Rev 18.2-4, 2 Cor 4.4, Rev 12.9

- Pray that in this season you will pay greater attention to the reality of the Feasts of Jehovah rather than pagan festivals that are covered with a thin veil of piety and religiosity.
- Pray that your belief that each day is the day of Jehovah, means that it shall be completely dedicated to Him and Him alone; without the trappings of the doctrines of men.
- Jesus Christ made it clear exactly what observances ought to be made by His disciples in every generation - As surprising as it may seem, Lent was never observed by Christ or His apostles. He commanded His disciples to "Go you therefore, and teach all nations...to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you" (Matt. 28:19-20). Jesus Christ never commanded them to observe Lent or Easter. He did, however, command the keeping of Passover and the Days of Unleavened Bread. In fact, during His last Passover on Earth, He gave detailed instructions on how to observe the Passover service. He also instituted new Passover symbols with Himself as the Lamb of Jehovah slain for the salvation of the world (John 13:1-17; Luke 22:19-20).

PRAYING FOR NATIONS

Israel

- Proclaim Psalm 83 over Israel as ISIS, Iran, Russia and North Korea take a stand against the nation.
- A major international conference to try to kick-start peace talks between Israel and the Palestinians took place on January 15, 2017 in the French capital, Paris. Delegates from 70 nations gathered to reaffirm support for a two-state solution to the decades-old conflict. Palestinians welcomed the meeting but Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu - did not attend - says the conference is "futile". The last round of direct peace talks collapsed amid acrimony in April 2014. Israel and the Palestinians were invited to hear the conclusions of the meeting, but not to participate in the summit itself. This came at a time of tension between Israel and the international community after the UN passed a resolution last month denouncing Israel's settlement activity on occupied land.

The result of this two-state Israel will cause Israel to lose the most Holy sites of Israel, including the Western Wall and the Temple Mount, which will subsequently belong to Palestine. The "Palestinians" are not a nation, but are part of the Arab Nations who already have thousands of acres and miles of land. The 15th of January was a very crucial day in the life and survival of Israel. Many were invited to join a worldwide RINGING OF BELLS and DECLARATION day for Israel on the January 15, 2017.

Pray the following scriptures:

- Psalms 33:10-11
- Psalms 9:15-16
- Job 5:12-16
- Psalm 120

- Psalm 2

Jewish Holidays

Tu BiShvat or Tu B'Shevat or Tu B'Shvat (Hebrew: ט"ו בשבט) is a minor Jewish holiday, occurring on the 15th day of the Hebrew month of Shevat. It is also called "The New Year of the Trees" or (Hebrew: ראש השנה לאילנות, Rosh HaShanah La'llanot). Tu BiShvat is one of four "New Years" mentioned in the Mishnah. Tu BiShvat begins at sundown on Fri, 10 February 2017.

Middle East

- Use the publication "Praying Thru the 10/40 Window" to pray over the Middle East and North Africa where Islamist terror groups ISIS and Boko Haram, and other unknown militia are wreaking havoc and killing aimlessly. Proclaim the law of Jehovah in every gate of society to counter the lawlessness.
- Pray for these shifting patterns in the political landscape of the Middle East which have been in crisis since the 2011 Arab Spring.
- Pray that there will be the required wisdom from kingdom citizens in governmental positions and in the agricultural sectors to come up with solutions that will aid food security and harnessing of these elements for useful purposes.
- Pray that where Jehovah may adjust and replace the damaged environment, He will raise people with the necessary know-how to bring about this change. Where there is need for miraculous healing of the atmosphere He will step in and restore.

United States of America

As it relates to the checks and balances of our American government, the Executive Branch is responsible for the daily administration of the state bureaucracy. The head of the Executive Branch is the President of the United States. Underneath the President are the several Departments that have been created by Executive Order. The Department of Homeland Security, the Department of Defense, and the Department of Justice are just a few examples of these subgroups within the Executive Branch. The representative leaders of these departments are collectively known as the President's "Cabinet" of advisors. Since the Executive Branch of our government is in charge of administering the affairs of the nation, it is important to keep them in our prayers. The Executive Branch directs the general political flow of the federal government.

During this transition time, please pray:

- Please pray for the new President Donald Trump as he leads this nation.
- For Donald Trump and his family members as they work through various relocations.

- For the Trump Transition Team, as they continue to meet with and vet potential members of the Administration.
- That the prayers of righteous men and women will be felt in the White House.
- For the Obama family as they leave the White House.
- For Barack and Michelle Obama as they raise two teenage daughters.
- For guidance as they ponder the future.

Holidays this month

Washington's Birthday officially honors the life and work of George Washington, the first president of the United States. The day commemorates past presidents of the USA. Washington's Birthday is sometimes known as Presidents' Day. This is because while most states have adopted Washington's Birthday, some states officially celebrate Presidents' Day. Some states pay particular attention to Abraham Lincoln, as his birthday was also in mid-February. In the weeks or days leading up to the holiday, schools often organize events and lessons for students about the presidents of the United States and George Washington in particular. The US federal holiday is on the third Monday of February each year, but records show that George Washington's birthday is on February 22.

Pray a prayer in general for leaders and that they would leave a legacy of Godliness. In many instances in history, God has used rulers, whether believers or not, to accomplish His purposes on Earth, for example Cyrus in the Persian Empire. Neither the collapse of Communism nor the spread of democratic governmental systems has ended tyrannies, autocratic power-seekers or corrupt, greedy dictators. Pray that those who are unfit to rule their lands may repent and change (as did Nebuchadnezzar) – or be removed (as were Pharaoh and Belshazzar).

Syria

Syria is entering a fourth year of conflict and over that time things have only got worse – much worse – for the children of Syria. Peace talks have failed to make progress and the fighting continues. Without peace and a massively scaled up humanitarian response we will lose a generation of children.

In mid-March Church leaders and prayer networks are encouraged to collectively cry out in prayer to God - individually, as churches and prayer networks, and by gathering in vigils - for a break in the conflict that is putting a generation of Syrian children at risk.

Pray for peace, protection, education and psychosocial support.

Kenya

The general elections are scheduled to be held on 8 August 2017. Voters will elect the President and his deputy, members of Parliament (Senate and National Assembly) along with county governors and ward representatives. Please keep the believers in Kenya in your prayers. Pray for a fair and peaceful election.

PRAYING THRU THE HEAVENS

Jehovah gave created righteous man authority of all that He created including the heavens and the earth. However after the fall this authority was taken away. Men had minimal knowledge of the heavens, except those who dabbled in wickedness and gained some perverted knowledge on how to control the heavens and manipulate the sun, moon and stars to do other than what they were created for. In Psalm 115:16 before Jesus Christ's sacrifice on Calvary, the heavens were the domain of Jehovah's authority. However after His triumphant redemption of all creation, Jesus Christ declared ALL AUTHORITY IN HEAVEN AND ON EARTH was given to Him. He then commissioned all who will be His disciples to take this authority and use it to disciple all creation back to its original purposes as spelled out in scriptures.

- Praise Jehovah for the wonderful privilege of understanding the heavens, their role and from month to month, redeeming them to do their original bidding especially through this prayer guide.
- The role of the heavens is clearly spelled out in Genesis 1.14-17. They are to mark out the times and seasons and they have done it with precision since creation. Praise Jehovah for their effective role. Dedicate all times and seasons into the hands of Jehovah.
- Command the heavens to declare the glory of Jehovah alone, and obey only His command through Kingdom citizens who are aligned with His purposes. Command them to disregard every other voice print from the kingdom of darkness through the occult and false religions. Psa 19. 1-6, Psa 148
- The kingdom of darkness tries to align the heavens to adhere to their evil plans and purposes to strengthen the world system. Pray that every prognostication, every alignment from the kingdom of darkness will be turned into confusion in every part of the earth. The heavens shall be closed unto all diviners and prognosticators, and their words will be unintelligible mutterings which will return to them (Isa 44:24-25)
- Proclaim Ps 7:10; 59:9&17 and Ps 94:22 for strength and fortification.

Lunar Movements

On February 10/11, 2017 there will be a Penumbral Lunar Eclipse.

A penumbral lunar eclipse takes place when the Moon moves through the faint, outer part of the Earth's shadow. This type of eclipse is often mistaken for a normal full Moon.

© iStockphoto.com/Hydromet

The Moon shines because its surface reflects the Sun's rays. A lunar eclipse happens when the Earth comes between the Sun and the Moon and blocks sunlight from directly reaching the Moon.

The full moon will occur on 11 February 2017 @00:33UTC.

- This is the season when the moon is in its full strength. Command the moon to praise Jehovah and dedicate all its strength to heeding only to His command and purpose.
- During the full moon the gravitational pull causes the waters of the earth to ebb and flow causing the ebb and flow of tides. All creatures are also largely water so the waters in the body become imbalanced causing a lot of "lunatic" – mentally distorted actions. Those with mental challenges get more troubled, emotionally creatures are affected and there are heightened crimes of passion. Declare that during this full moon, command over all the waters of the earth and in the body "peace be still".

The last Quarter moon will occur on 18 February 2017 @19:34UTC and the First Quarter moon will occur on 4 February 2017 @04:19UTC

- Command the quarter moons to praise Jehovah in their season.
- The occult uses the quarter moons as a spiritual bow for shooting terribly destructive arrows of bitter words at Jehovah's people that will slay some and cause some to stumble in their walk with Jehovah. (Ps 64:3-5)
- Pray that in the incoming New Year, with their swords drawn and their bows bent for destruction of the righteous, Jehovah will cause their swords to enter their own heart, and their bows will be broken. (Ps 37:14-15)

The new moon that ushers in the next month will occur on February 26, 2017 @14:59UTC

- As the new moon appears, command it and the crescent to praise Jehovah alone and dedicate the new month to Him.
- During the new moon, prophetically prophesy the things you would like to see occurring into the next month as Jehovah will guide you and as the new moon waxes, declare that the seed of your prophetic word will germinate and grow and come to fullness during the full moon. Declare that the manifestation will occur as the moon wanes into the next month.
- A C shaped moon or its mirror image is a crescent. The occult use the crescent moon as sickles (e.g. Hecate's sickle), for harvesting the gains of the ignorant. Proclaim Isa 44.24-25 over every evil gathering that draws power from the quarter moons.

Solar Movements

On February 26, 2017 there will be an Annular Solar Eclipse.

An annular solar eclipse happens when the Moon covers the Sun's center, leaving the Sun's visible outer edges to form a "ring of fire" or annulus around the Moon. ... In an annular eclipse of the Sun, the Moon casts its ant umbra - the outer part of the Moon's umbra - on the Earth.

From January 19th to February 18th as the sun makes its circuit through the heavens it will pass through a cluster of 108 stars in the constellation called AQUARIUS located in a region of the sky sometimes called the Sea. In sky lore astronomers tend to associate these star patterns with water. It is in Aquarius we find Cetus the Whale, Pisces the Fish, Eridanus the River and Piscis Austrinus the Southern Fish. Named: "Their blessing ensured" or "The living waters of blessing poured forth for the redeemed," Frostbitten of Him coming down; Jehovah's rivers/streams; Pours out Spirit Isa 33, Joel 2.

The constellation is pictured in the heavens by a man (Jesus Christ) pouring forth water from an urn which seems to have an inexhaustible supply and flows forth downward into the mouth of a fish (the redeemed) which receives it and drinks it all up. The word of Jehovah is symbolized by water in its purifying, cleansing, refreshing and reviving effect on the receiver (Eph 5:26)

- Praise Jehovah that in this month He is the original Purifier and not the demon-deity Juno to whom the month was dedicated. Therefore dedicate this month of purification to Jehovah.
- This is a year of the Word of Jehovah. The water of the word purifies. Take time to read larger chunks of the word and as you read out the scriptures, prophetically pray that there will be a cleansing effect in areas of your body soul and spirit where cleansing is required for this season. Whether you need to have cleaner language, cleaner spiritual ears to hear Jehovah more clearly, a cleaner conscience cleansed from feelings of condemnation and guilt, a cleaner blood system, nerve system, mental capacity from various diseases, proclaim those areas that you sense require a cleansing effect in this season.
- As the heavens declare, ask that the Holy Spirit will guide you in these coming days, to be in a posture of repentance, restitution and rededication of your own life to Jehovah. Pray this for kingdom citizens everywhere. Psalm 51
- Present your family and your community for purging of every defiling activity. Where there are oaths taken, unGODly blood covenants made, heightened ancestral worship activity, ask Jehovah to drain the counterfeit purification activities. Isaiah 47
- In this season a counterfeit from the kingdom of darkness, in the form of water spirit activities like the demonic festivals of February, become manifest as they endeavor to secure the final gates of the sacred year and open up the new season to defilement. Ask Jehovah to pass through every moment of this month, and every activity in your life, in your relationships, in the Body of Jesus Christ and in the territory draining them of every water spirit defilement Ezek 32.1-15

- Pray that the blood of Jesus Christ which washes whiter than snow will cleanse and purify your community of every evil blood-letting that does not purify but defiles the land.
- As the heavens declare, pray for a fresh anointing for the coming season upon the Ecclesia worldwide.

The other smaller group of stars called decans that form part of Aquarius describe the blessings bestowed upon the redeemed by Jesus Christ, the One who blesses.

Piscis Australis (The southern fish) represents the blessings bestowed. Piscis Australis is inseparable from Aquarius and represents the mouth of the fish. Water brings refreshment. Named: mouth of the fish; blessing is bestowed on the redeemed.

- As Jesus Christ pours out the water of His word over you as you read the word out daily over the body of Jesus Christ and territory, ask that His purifying water pass through all the waters of your body, the waters of your family and territory and drain them of every water spirit manifestation in every gate of society
- Ask Jehovah to do a deep and thorough sweeping of the Body of Jesus Christ as you faithfully read out the scriptures daily so that the voice of the Body of Christ will become relevant with regard to governance of the nation as this is a season of divine governance.

“In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus Christ stood and cried, saying, If any man THIRST, let him come unto me and drink. He that believeth on me, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water”. Jesus Christ, by this call was referring to the Holy Spirit which they who believe in Him should receive after He has been glorified. (John 7:37-39)

- Pray that this will become the clarion call of the Body of Jesus Christ to the nations as He wipes away the damaging effects of the unbiblical prosperity gospel at the expense of a righteous, holy and pure life before Jehovah.
- Pray that through your giving and sharing of His word, Jehovah will give you opportunities to become a conduit through whom His living water will flow and touch lives of those who are otherwise dead in various aspects of sin and do not understand that the grace of Jesus Christ has been shed abroad to all who will believe and receive it.

Pegasus (The winged horse) represents the blessings quickly coming. Named; chief horse; speedy bestowment of living waters

- Thank Jehovah that His timing is not similar to our timing. Are there areas in which you feel He has delayed and you have been waiting too long? His blessings are coming quickly. Ask Jehovah to help you walk in His timing with regard to His purposes being fulfilled in your life. Pray this for the Kingdom citizens everywhere. Isaiah 40:29-31.
- Pray that in this season when there is heightening demonic activity in the various pagan festivals, that Jehovah will activate in kingdom citizens the nature of the goodly war-horse. Proclaim Job 39.19-25 over this nature in your life as follows: (We encourage you to personalize the prayer by putting the name of your territory in the blanks).

May we take on the nature of the strong war-horse may we be clothed with thunder on our neck. May we be fearless as He is and may our voice strike terror in the kingdom of darkness over _____. Everywhere our feet will tread upon in _____ we will rejoice in our strength for the joy of Jehovah is our strength and we will run into the clash of arms. We will mock at fear and we will not turn back from the sword. The weapons of our warfare are mighty through Jehovah to the pulling down of strongholds in _____ and we will have good success. Jehovah strengthen our legs that we will devour the distance with fierceness and holy rage; and we will not stop because the trumpet has sounded. At the blast of the trumpet we will laugh. We will smell battle from afar, the thunder of captains and shouting, and we will go into the battle with the kingdom of darkness knowing that greater is He that is in us than He that is in _____. (Culled from Praying Thru the 10/40 Window @2014 Lily Mudasia GCLA Publication)

Cygnus (The swan) represents the one who blesses surely returning. It has to do with the Great Blessor and His speedy return. The swan is not so much a bird of the air but a bird peculiarly belonging to both the earth and waters. Named: Ethics from afar, fountain of life Psa 36:8-9

The entire star constellation signifies "The living waters of blessing poured forth for the redeemed who drink in the blessing, bringing speedily the good news of the returning Redeemer."

- This is a season of revival and healing. Thank Jesus Christ He is the Son of Righteousness who will in this season rise with healing in His wings. If there is any area of ailment, command the heavens to release healing to you and your loved ones. Remember that "sozo" has to do with healing too. The heavens shall not smite you, but rather, they will release every healing and succor for your body, soul and spirit. Pray this for the every kingdom citizen. (Psalm 121:6-8, Mal 4:2)
- Thank Jehovah that He has promised to return for His own and the heavens do declare this in this season. Pray that the Ecclesia will go back to the message of the Day of Jehovah and that many kingdom citizens will have the call for the return of Jehovah as we fulfill His purposes. Rev 22:17

From February 18th to March 20, 2017 as the sun makes it circuit through the heavens it will pass through the constellation PISCES symbolized by the fishes. One smaller than the other, joined together by a band around their tails. The smaller fish crosses the constellation Andromeda while the larger fish sits on the back of Pegasus. The Hebrew word for fish and multitudes are the same word - daga(im). The constellation is named - The fishes of Him that comes; the fishes; multitudes. This indicates the multitudes that should enjoy the blessing of the Redeemer's work.

- Thank the LORD that the heavens declare a great opportunity for the Ecclesia to reach out and make Jesus known throughout the earth. Pray that kingdom citizens including yourself will tap into that opening.
- The LORD has spoken that this is a season of great grace. His unmerited favour is open to all who will believe and receive the finished work of Jesus. Pray that kingdom citizens will be conduits of this grace as we display His favour over our lives and draw others to drink from the well of grace which is available to all. The other smaller group of stars called decans that form part of Pisces describe the detailed teaching of the sign Pisces.

The BAND (the redeemed bound, but binding their enemy) represents Jesus the coming one in relation to the redeemed; Jer 31.11, Hos 11.5

- In this season the heavens declare that there is power to break every bondage, every chain that has hitherto withheld you from accessing all that Jesus redeemed on your behalf on Calvary. Tap into this truth and join the heavens as you wage war against every power that has been a hindrance (refer to the prayers in the beginning of this guide.)

ANDROMEDA - The chained woman stretched out. The star cluster is literally named -The broken down; the weak; struck down; the afflicted; set up as queen, daughter broken the bound and it represents the redeemed in their bondage and affliction. Jer 14.17, Isa 52.2

- Even though many kingdom citizens enjoy eternal redemption, the position as Bride of Jehovah on earth, they are still operating under various levels of bondage and besetting sin (Heb 12.1-2). Proclaim Psa 107, and Isa 45:2-3 over your life and over kingdom citizens you know who are experiencing areas of bondage or oppression. Proclaim Jesus's redeeming power to break every bondage no matter how deep long and strong and His ability to liberate us today because He paid for every redemption 2000 years ago.
- The heavens declare that it is a season for the Queenly bride to come forth. It is also a season of Purim. Revisit the prayers concerning the Purim above, and ask the LORD for a greater revelation of who you are as a kingdom citizen with regard to your royal role and character. Pray this for kingdom citizens.

CEPHEUS The crowned king; the branch; one cometh to rule; I will be GOD to all the families of Israel; It represents the Redeemer coming to rule.

- The heavens declare that Jesus, your King is coming to rule. Is it not time to actively invite Him the Benevolent King to come into the affairs of your territory and inspire a heavenly rule through you His queenly bride? Celebrate the LORD in this season as we prepare to enter the first set of the spring feasts of JEHOVAH, that the heavens do declare His glory and His majesty.
- Pray that as many as are seeking Him in this season wherever they may be, He will reveal Himself as Redeemer and King.
- Proclaim Psa 45, 145, and Rev 19 and seal these in the heavens over your territory.
- Prophecy Psalm 121, and Deut 33.13-17 over your life and family and over the gate of society you are assigned to, and the territory you live in.
