PRAYING THROUGH THE MONTH OF DECEMBER 2020

The Prayer Guide is sent to many users all over the world and can look quite lengthy at times. We have numbered the pages and provided a table of contents to allow the reader to access the areas that are of interest. We have inserted hyperlinks so you can go directly to the sections you are interested in.

PREPARING THE INTERCESSORS TO BRING IN THE END TIME HARVEST

On March 11, 2020 the World Health Organization (WHO) declared Coronavirus COVID-19 a pandemic. Currently, the worldwide death toll is over 1,443,000 with over 61,614,150 confirmed cases. Countries have closed their borders and ordered their residents to stay at home.

On April 8, 2020 at the conclusion of the Eagle's Fast at Logos-Rhema Central Community Assembly in Accra, Ghana Dr. Abu Bako was ministering. The Lord said that it was time to release the prophetic at unprecedented levels of expression and manifestation. The Lord also said this was the time of unprecedented release and manifestation of the supernatural and increased human and angelic collaboration.

The Lord has spoken to many prophets about the times we are in. The summary of what we have been hearing is:

- 1) Prepare for my coming.
- 2) Focus on the end time harvest.
- 3) Though part of the Lord's shaking (Haggai 2:6-9) the coronavirus pandemic should not be allowed to distract us but rather, promote us into our place in God.

As we focus on the end time harvest, we are offering resources to equip the intercessors to bring in the harvest.

Here are some recommended online resources:

Dr. Abu Bako has prepared a series entitled "Times and Seasons" that can be seen on the Facebook page of Logos-Rhema Foundation HQ. Professor Vincent Anigbogu has prepared a series entitled "Developing the Total Man for God's Use". The recordings are on the Facebook page of Prof Vincent Anigbogu.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE MONTH OF DECEMBER

December derived its name from the Latin word “Decem” meaning ten (10). According to the old Roman calendar, it was the 10th month. This was before they dedicated their new first month to January moving December to the position of being the 12th month though it maintained its name as 10th month. According to the Biblical calendar, 1st of Kislev 5781 began on the 17th November 2020. The 29th of Kislev 5781 is December 15, 2020. The 1st of Tevet 5780 is December 16, 2020.

This month will be the third (3rd) and ninth (9th) month of the Biblical Civil and Sacred calendars respectively. This is the twelfth (12th) and final month of the year 2020 according to the Gregorian calendar.

This month in the northern hemisphere we are in a hibernating season when there is little productivity. While in the southern hemisphere people are going for summer vacation and shutting down for the festive season, in the northern hemisphere they are going into hibernation at the gates of the winter season.

HANUKKAH (CHANUKAH)

On 24th Kislev 5781 (10th December) the 8 day festival of Hanukkah (Chanukah) commences – this is the Jewish festival of lights. It ends on 2nd Tevet (17th December). This festival remembers the dedication of the Temple in Jerusalem after it had been recovered by the Jewish forces of Yehuda Maccabee in 164 BC. The Syrian King Antiochus IV Epiphanes was seeking to coerce the Jews into abandoning their religion and culture for that of Greece. He issued edicts forbidding circumcision, observance of Jewish Sabbaths and feast days. He had defiled the Temple by offering a pig on the altar and raising up in the sanctuary a statue of Zeus. The defiled Temple needed to be cleansed and re-dedicated. The Temple was purified and the wicks of the menorah miraculously burned for eight days, even though there was only enough sacred oil for one day's lighting. Yehuda Maccabee ordained “that the days of the dedication of the altar should be kept in their season from year to year by the space of eight days, from the five and twentieth day of the month of Kislev, with mirth and gladness.” (1 Maccabees 4:59)

CHRISTMAS DAY

December is referred to as a festive season. It is the period of time when many in the ecclesia celebrate the commemorative birth of Jesus on 25th December – Christmas Day.

WINTER SOLSTICE

This month the winter solstice in the northern hemisphere will occur on 21 December 2020 at 10:02 UTC. That is the gate of the winter season. In the southern hemisphere they will experience their summer solstice on the same day. In the Northern Hemisphere, the December solstice marks the longest night and the shortest day of the year. Meanwhile, in the Southern Hemisphere it will be the longest day and the shortest night. The North Polar Region of Earth has 24 hours of night, while the South Polar Region will have 24 hours of daylight. On December 21, 2020 at 10:02 UTC the sun reaches its farthest southward point for the year.

The solstice is an astronomical event that is caused by the Earth's tilt on its axis, and its motion in orbit around the sun. The tilt of the earth –not our distance from the sun – is what causes winter and summer. At the December solstice, the Northern Hemisphere is leaning farthest away from the sun for the year.

WHAT IS THE NAME OF OUR GOD?

According to Wikipedia "Jehovah is the Latinization of the Hebrew יהוה, one vocalization of the Tetragrammaton (יהוה) YHWH), the proper name of the God of Israel in the Hebrew Bible. The consensus among scholars is that the historical vocalization of the Tetragrammaton at the time of the redaction of the Torah (6th century BCE) is most likely Yahweh. The historical vocalization was lost because in Second Temple Judaism, during the 3rd to 2nd centuries BCE, the pronunciation of the Tetragrammaton came to be avoided, being substituted with Adonai ("my Jehovah"). The Hebrew vowel points of Adonai were added to the Tetragrammaton by the Masoretes, and the resulting form was transliterated around the 12th century as Yehowah. The derived forms lehouah and Jehovah first appeared in the 16th century.

"Jehovah" was popularized in the English-speaking world by William Tyndale and other pioneer English Protestant translations such as the Geneva Bible and the King James Version. It is still used in some translations, such as the New World Translation and Young's Literal Translation, but it does not appear in most mainstream English translations, as the terms "Jehovah" or "Jehovah": used instead, generally indicating that the corresponding Hebrew is Yahweh or YHWH." (From Wikipedia) In the Bishop's Bible (1568), the word Jehovah occurs in Exodus 6:3 and Psalm 83:18.

The Authorized King James Version (1611) renders Jehovah in Exodus 6:3, Psalm 83:18, Isaiah 12:2, Isaiah 26:4, and three times in compound place names at Genesis 22:14, Exodus 17:15 and Judges 6:24. The Leningrad Codex is the oldest complete manuscript of the Hebrew Bible in Hebrew. It is dated 1008 CE.

You can download it at www.seforimonline.org/seforimdb/PDF/264.pdf This Hebrew manuscript contains 50 occurrences of the full spelling of the name Yehovah. The Aleppo Codex is an ancient vocalized Hebrew manuscript. It is about 100 years older than the Leningrad Codex but it is not complete. This document contains the name Yehovah. When you look at Ezekiel 28:22 in the Aleppo Codex it says: "Thus says Adonai Yehovah.."

I encourage you this month to read and study this document for yourself. There a website that will help you. It is www.aleppocodex.org.

The King James Version uses "JEHOVAH" to translate the divine name in most instances. Jesus's Hebrew name "Yehoshua" (יהושע) (means "Yehovah saves" and is derived from יהוה). This Hebrew name became "Jesus" in Aramaic and "Ἰησοῦς" (Iesous) in Greek.

WHAT IS THE MEANING OF YEHOVAH (JEHOVAH)?

According to Easton's Bible Dictionary "Jehovah - the special and significant name (not merely an appellative title such as Jehovah [adonai]) by which God revealed himself to the ancient Hebrews (Exodus 6:2 Exodus 6:3). This name, the Tetragrammaton of the Greeks, was held by the later Jews to be so sacred that it was never pronounced except by the high priest on the great Day of Atonement, when he entered into the most holy place.

Whenever this name occurred in the sacred books, they pronounced it, as they still do, "Adonai" (i.e., Jehovah), thus using another word in its stead. The Massorets gave to it the vowel-points appropriate to this word. This Jewish practice was founded on a false interpretation of Leviticus 24:16. The meaning of the word appears from Exodus 3:14 to be "the unchanging, eternal, self-existent God," the "I am that I am," a covenant-keeping God. (Compare Malachi 3:6 ; Hosea 12:5 ; Revelation 1:4 Revelation 1:8 .)

The Hebrew name "Jehovah" is generally translated in the Authorized Version (and the Revised Version has not departed from this rule) by the word JEHOVAH printed in small capitals, to distinguish it from the rendering of the Hebrew Adonai and the Greek Kurios , which are also rendered Jehovah, but printed in the usual type. The Hebrew word is translated "Jehovah" only in Exodus 6:3 ; Psalms 83:18 ; Isaiah 12:2 ; 26:4 ... " Let us look at some examples: 1 Kings 18:24 says: Then you call on the name of your Elohim, and I will call on the name Yehovah, and the Elohim who answers by fire, He is Elohim. Isaiah 60:19 says: No longer will you have the sun for light by day, nor for brightness will the moon give you light, but you will have Yehovah for an everlasting light, and your Elohim for your glory.

The ancient Israelites used the name as a blessing in daily life. Ruth 2:4 gives us an example. It says: Now behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem and said to the reapers "May Yehovah be with you." And they answered him, "May Yehovah bless you."

WHY ARE WE LOOKING AT THE BIBLICAL CALENDAR?

Our current Gregorian calendar is a solar calendar (it is based only on the length of a year as determined by the sun). The starting day of the year and the length of months are not based on any physical or Biblical principles but merely a happenstance of history.

The moon is given to mark Feasts—which are usually explained as a certain day of a certain month in the Bible: He appointed the moon for seasons [Hebrew moed means "festivals"]; the sun knows it's going down (Psalm 104:19, NKJV).

Blow the trumpet at the time of the New Moon, at the full moon, on our solemn feast day (Psalm 81:3, NKJV).

Genesis 1:14-16 also states that the sun and moon are the two great lights to indicate "festivals, days and years". The sun marks the days and years, but Festivals are in certain days of certain months—marked by the moon. The first day of a month (“new moon”) was observed with a special meal in the Old Testament (1Sam 20:5, 2 Kings 4:23, Amos 8:5). That practice continued in the New Testament Col 2:16.

The practice will continue during the new heavens and new earth (Isa 66:23, Ezekiel 46:1,6). New moons were not the same as the annual Feast days in Leviticus 23—there is no specific command and explanation of how to keep them. But many verses say they were observed.

Most references to dates in the Bible are like those of Genesis 7:11: “In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month...” The day and the month are numbered, but the year is given as a year of the persons’ life, the year of a king’s life, or the year from some big event.

Although months are generally referred to by number, there are two systems of naming them in the Bible. The first system uses Hebrew names, the second uses largely Babylonian names acquired when the Jews were in captivity in Babylon. The four Hebrew names are:

- Abib the first month (Ex 13:4, 23:15, 34:18, Deut. 16:1)
- Zif the second month (1Kngs 6:1,37)
- Ethanim the seventh month (1 Kings 8:2)
- Bul the eighth month (1Kngs 6:38)

The original Hebrew names for the other months are apparently unknown. (From Biblical Calendar Basics, Third edition - April 2002).

As we seek to understand the times, we will look at events that took place in each month as determined by the Biblical Calendar.

WHY DO WE INCLUDE A SECTION ON PRAYING THROUGH THE HEAVENS IN OUR GUIDE?

Believers are a royal priesthood unto Jehovah (1 Pet 2:9), we have also been made kings and priests unto our Jehovah (Rev 1:6; 5:10). The priest’s lips should keep knowledge and the law should be sought at his mouth (Mal 2:7). Jehovah interprets our ignorance of various aspects of the kingdom as a rejection of knowledge with grievous consequences (Hos 4:6). Knowledge of the heavens and how to deal with them in every season is a very important aspect of the Kingdom of heaven.

In Primeval Astronomy, “The Gospel in the Stars,” Joseph Augustus Seiss explains the purpose of the stars and their constellations in their original context. In a lecture entitled, “The Starry Worlds,” first published in 1882, he attests: “Such wonderful creations of almighty power and wisdom were not without a purpose.” Seiss explains that stars and groups of stars, constellations, were created to fill the galaxy – in a particular order for a very specific purpose. God created the stars (Gen. 1:16) and positioned them in their exact places in the universe (Ps. 8:3). Stars were, “for signs and for seasons, and for days and for years, in the expanse of the heavens to give light upon the earth.” (Gen. 1:14, 15).

Stars were so important that God named them. “He determines the number of the stars and calls them each by name.” (Ps. 147:4). The stars are a continual reminder that the Seed of the woman will ultimately triumph over the Serpent (Gen. 3:15). God’s revelation is constantly told in the stars (Ps. 19) — which is a message of salvation — available to every generation who professes faith. (Romans 9-11, Joel, Isa.) The entire ancient world received the gospel prior to Christ ever being born— through the stars.

TEACHING – APPLYING THE BIBLICAL WORLDVIEW IN A TURBULENT WORLD

APPLYING THE BIBLICAL WORLDVIEW IN A TURBULENT WORLD

INTRODUCTION

What is worldview? Your worldview is the way you see the world around you. If you take a pair of green-tinted sunglasses and wear them the world around, you will have shades of green in everything. Colors will be distorted. The color of clear water will become greenish. Similarly, if you take a pair or brown tinted or red tinted sunglasses the world around you will take on those shades. It does not mean that the world has changed. It simply means that your eyesight has been controlled by the color of the sunglasses you wear.

When you wear sunglasses on a very hot day, because they dim the brightness of the day, psychologically, you begin to feel cooler because the sky is not quite as blue when seen through sunglasses. It looks grayish. The sun will not be quite as bright and hot, because your mind will perceive that it is a little cooler.

Scientists have discovered that people wearing sunglasses will experience sunburn more than those who do not. Why? Skin color changes when you are exposed to the sun because your body is told to produce more melanin - skin pigment - by your pituitary gland. Melanin stops your skin from absorbing ultraviolet light. It is this ultraviolet light which has the effect of burning the skin. But the pituitary gland only knows how much melanin to make from the signals it gets from the eye. If the eye says it is sunny, the pituitary gland goes into overdrive. But with tinted sunglasses on, the pituitary gland is fooled so less melanin is produced - meaning a higher risk of burning.

That is an illustration of the power of an altered or tinted view of the world around you. It can affect you positively or negatively, depending on what kind of view you are wearing.

STUDY

How does this apply to the power of your worldview to transform your life, or family or community? How will a Biblical worldview alter the way you see a territory that is faced with the challenge of fundamentalist Islam and rejection of the Biblical standards of life?

As you examine your world and the various activities that are going on around you, do you have any person who is opposed to your Christian views and beliefs?

Have you made any attempt to reach out to them or pray for them? Yes or no.

What was their response?

What do you honestly think of that person?

If Jesus lived with you, what do you think He would do to that person?

LOVE-TINTED SUNGLASSES

Do you not have Jesus Christ living with you, inside of you? Why is it not happening? Where is the challenge? The following is a testimony of one Ghanaian brother who partners with a ministry called “Mercy Ships” which does medical missions and other outreaches in many developing nations. He was invited to Guinea in West Africa, a strongly fundamentalist Islamic nation to help teach concerning the power of Biblical truth in transforming cultures and worldviews. Chris says:

“This week, we had a wonderful conference for pastors and church leaders with almost 600 participants. Interestingly, the conference was held at Winners Chapel which had been attacked by Moslems a few weeks before the conference. Now, the church has a solution—to love their Moslem brothers, and they have made plans to initiate seed love actions towards them ... they have no option than to love them.”

What caused the brothers in Guinea to respond with acts of love toward the terrorists? A renewed love-tinted worldview – a removal of the “spiritual sunglasses” they had worn for a long time i.e. retaliation for terrorists, cowering and hiding their faith so they can blend in, or being passive Christians.

The truth of the LORD’s word that they shall know you are My disciples when you have love one for another became the new love-tinted sunglasses they were taught to wear. It really is that simple – a choice to change the way they think about themselves and the God they serve in a hostile community.

RESPONDING TO A HOSTILE WORLD

We are living in turbulent times and in a hostile world. The Body of Christ in the Arab world has become unsure of the way they should go. Jihadism is that radical Islam that wages jihad, or war, against non-Muslims and even against moderate Muslims. For the sake of discussion, let us say everyone agrees that Jihadism poses a threat to freedom. That is the situation we are living in.

Let us say that everyone agrees that the job of a government is to protect its citizens. Yet that government may largely adhere to the tenets of a Jihadist state.

So, then, how is the body of Christ in a community to respond to the threat of human enemies against our Biblical worldview? If the Bible provides for governments to wield the sword, what is the role of the Body of Christ?

Should we too arise and train our people in martial arts, making Molotov cocktails? Self-defense tactics? To build bunkers where we can run and hide when they attack? To blend in so much and disguise ourselves so that nobody can recognize us?

The Body of Christ was called to STAND OUT and not BLEND IN to society. We are the salt of the earth, the light of the world the city on the hill that cannot be hidden. We are the Bride of Christ, the center of His and the world's attention. A bride can never blend in she ALWAYS stands out. We were never created to hide but to be the pathfinders and to lead the pack from in-front.

The language of the Kingdom of God is completely contrary to that of the world. We cannot use the world's methods to bring cultural transformation in our societies.

Transformation idea-shaper Darrow Miller writes about one model from a church in Peru during the turmoil of a different terrorist movement called, the Shining Path.

Pastor Samuel Alcarraz Curi recalls that "when the guerillas were really active in Peru, they were preaching death, but my church was preaching life. We gained the reputation as a church that loved the people; the guerillas were calling to kill and be killed. And so our church grew greatly because we offered health, security, nutrition, clothing, love and peace, the practical kingdom of God." (from Mosques & Miracles: Revealing Islam and God's Grace, by Stuart Robinson, Upper Mt Gravatt, Qld, Aus: CityHarvest Publications, 2004, 298.)

God ordains human governments and authorizes their just use of force. He also founded the body of Christ in the world. Given that the Body of Christ is comprised of real flesh-and-blood people, it cannot simply act as if no threat of terror exists.

CALLED TO LOVE & COMPASSION

But the Bride of Christ is called not to wage war or wield power such as the world does. Like any bride, she is called to LOVE. Many times, the Body of Christ in a hostile world forgets that she is A BRIDE. Her main role is TO LOVE her Lover and all that is His i.e. the entire creation. It is through that love that we wage war and wield our power. The Power of love and compassion can never be measured or compared to any other initiative.

Make this prayer – LORD empty me of my own understanding of what love is, and teach me to love like You do.

Read 1 Corinthians 13 and of the 13 verses, pick 2 and write down what they mean in the context of the person whom you discussed in the first set of questions

Our Lover and LORD Jesus Christ calls us to love even our enemies. It is the last thing you want to do in a hostile environment. You too want to show your might and your ability in a world where humility and love is compared to being “yellow bellied”, “sissy-like”, “weak” or “foolish.”

Yet that is the HIGHEST STANDARD. The Body of Christ responds to the violence of the sword with the vulnerability of the cross; to the culture of death with the culture of life; to hatred with love and compassion, injustice with justice, tyranny with freedom.

Brother Andrew of Open Doors Ministry is the man who covertly carried Bibles into communist countries during the height of the Cold War. After the fall of communism, Brother Andrew turned his attention to the Middle East. He wrote a book called “Lightforce – A stirring account of the church caught in the Middle East Cross fire.” It is a moving account of His interactions with great and small of people in the Middle East as He carried Bibles into the lands.

He challenges Christians to say, “I Sincerely Love All Muslims (I.S.L.A.M.)’ and to prove it by putting their arms around Muslims and say, “God loves you; therefore I love you,” (from “The Good Jihad,” by Priya Abraham in WORLD, 12/8/07)

Some will scoff at such an idea as weak and naïve and may need more action-packed ways to reach out to the world around them. But maybe it is not, as demonstrated by this story from the Philippines.

Liberato [not his real name] is a pastor from the Philippines and part of the minority Christian community on an island with a Muslim majority. Muslims wanted to overrun the central government and set up an Islamic state on the island. They sought to drive the Christians out by burning down their homes.

The Philippine army arrived to crush the Muslim rebellion by blowing up the terrorist’s homes. Liberato responded by saying: “We need to love our enemies. We need to demonstrate God’s love.”

None of the other pastors in the community agreed. So Liberato organized his church to rebuild the terrorist’s homes. Eventually other churches joined them. When I heard the pastor tell the story, they had rebuilt the homes of 40 Muslim families. Not surprisingly, the attitude of the Muslim community toward Christians was changing dramatically!

Another example comes from a church in Jakarta, Indonesia serving in slums inhabited by Muslims.

They started schools, soup kitchens, literacy programs, and skills training for unemployed Muslims. ... When a group of radicals came to burn down the sanctuary, they were prevented by poor Muslims who streamed out of their community and surrounded the church, saying “You are not going to touch this church. These people love us.”

May these examples be multiplied a million times over everywhere a kingdom citizen touches a Muslim community. May we be able to write countless such stories of the love and compassion of Christ to transform our communities in Egypt, Syria, Jordan and across the nations of the Arab World in this season.

ACTION PLAN

What do you think you ought to do, in order to begin to demonstrate love toward those who are so opposed to the kingdom of God? Write down your thoughts.

What activities can you begin to engage in practically to reach out to the unreached as a seed of love and compassion toward them?

- Think of an activity displaying love and compassion which you can engage in on a personal basis at least once a month for the next three months.
- It should not be something that is costly.
- It should not be too time consuming.
- It should not be very difficult to execute

Has the violent rejection to the gospel made you cower in fear and close yourself out or has it made you bolder and more determined to perform acts of compassion to your neighbors?

Reflect on the simplicity of presenting a different worldview to a person who is opposed to you by simply giving them a quotation of the Word of the LORD as narrated below:

While traveling on a horse to a preaching engagement, John Wesley was stopped by a highwayman who took all of his money. As the man started to leave, Wesley said to him: “The time may come when you will regret the course of life in which you are engaged. Remember this: ‘The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth us from all sin.’” Years later, when Wesley was leaving a fellowship a man stopped him and said he was the highwayman who had come to God from that simple verse. What drove John Wesley? It was compassion and a fearless faith in the power of truth to transform the life of the person who had confronted him in violence.

BIBLICAL TRUTH SETS FREE

Read John 8:31-32. What does this passage mean to you?

Wise men say that the knowledge of the truth concerning any circumstance is already 50-75% of the solution. For example, if you are feeling unwell, knowing exactly what is the cause of your un-wellness, is the biggest step to its cure. If you find that you have Malaria, then you can count the cost for its remedy. However, if you are unwell and you cannot find out exactly what is wrong, then it becomes a very big challenge and you will guess for the remedy using different things without assurance of healing. Knowing the truth is very effective.

If say, you present that Malaria before the LORD, you will be able to name the disease accurately, and command that virus causing malaria to be destroyed and flushed out of your body in the name of the LORD Jesus Christ. Truth liberates you to act precisely, accurately and a greater ability to use the right methods to deal with the challenge.

When you are confronted with a circumstance, just like John Wesley, sometimes the most dramatic action is not necessary. All you need is to address that situation with the truth. What is the truth? It is what the word of the LORD says concerning every situation. It is also the remedy that the LORD gives concerning every situation.

You do not know how the Word will work within the heart of a person or in a circumstance to make it right. Read Hebrews 4:12-13 - His word is sharper than a two-edged sword and it pierces to the dividing of spirit and soul, and penetrating every circumstance to bring an accurate solution in His way.

What activity will you get involved in as you reach out in Christ's love to those around you who are not "lovely"? Remember the purpose is not so much to go and preach the gospel to them. It is your action as a concerned, compassionate person that you reach out to them. As they watch your actions they will be ministered to by the Holy Spirit in His time. Remember it is a SEED of LOVE. By your actions, not your preaching or quoting scripture, that you are planting something that will one day germinate. It is a different way of evangelizing by action.

There are many things including, helping out as a volunteer at an orphanage, visiting the sick in hospital, helping to fix something at the local police station, offering voluntary services to a place of need, giving clothing or food to the hungry, doing some fun activity at a women's shelter and spending some time with them and so many other things which the LORD will lay on your heart to do within your own context.

- Pray for that activity
- Ask the LORD to open your eyes to practice His compassion and love at least to one person at your workplace, in your neighborhood, at school or even in the public transport.
- Step out and do it! Make a journal of the responses you may or may not receive.
- Pray about them and keep praying for those who are touched by your life on a regular basis whether the experience with them was good or bad.

Everyday remember to wear your new love and compassion-tinted sunglasses, and you will begin to see your world in a whole new and colorful way.

EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK PRAYING THROUGH THE GATES OF TIME BY DR ABU BAKO

CHAPTER FOUR

IMPORTANCE OF TIME

What makes time so important? The question to ask is, is there any thing that is not measured by time? (Mark 13:32-37; 2Kings 22:21-22; 1Chronicles 12:32). The importance of time is seen in the fact that it is the measure for everything else in all of creation. Time is required to measure length or mass but the reverse is not the case.

Simply put, time is the frame of operation for the rest of creation daily. There is an appointed and an appropriate time for everything. There is a right and a wrong time for everything. The principle of time applies to the individual as well as nations. This is why even God Himself deals with men and nations according to His timetable for them (Acts 17:26-27).

In Genesis 1, we see the whole of creation was measured by time. The first day, light was created; the second day, the firmament or heaven; third day, land and vegetation; fourth day, the greater light, sun, the lesser light, moon and the stars of light; fifth day, animals on the sea and land; sixth day, man and on the seventh day, God rested.

Everything goes through the gates of time. When it comes to individuals, everybody goes through the gates of time, that is, everybody had to pass through yesterday to get to today, and will have to pass through today to get to tomorrow. All of the constellations: the sun, the moon, the stars and other planets, also go through the gates of time.

The day you were conceived, you entered into the gates of time. Your life became relevant with regard to the passage of time. It could be said that the pregnancy is 2 months old, until the time you are manifest into the fullness of existence when you were born.

There is nothing under the sun without a time element in it. Your life is measured in terms of the time you have lived. It is the only thing you have been given as raw material to work with and make meaning of your life.

From the beginning when God said "let there be," a limited period was established for the existence of creation. There were things that ought to have been accomplished by all of creation to fulfil God's purposes. Every event has taken time since then. Today we can say that we have been on this earth for a little over 6000 years. During that time frame, there have been events that had to take place at particular periods and for particular periods to further God's kingdom purposes.

The Bible predicts that one day, this earth will pass away. It means that time must be managed and used maximally in order that when the earth passes away, everything that needed to be fulfilled will have been fulfilled to God's satisfaction.

THERE IS A TIME FOR EVERYTHING

Having established the above, realize that there is a time for everything, and for every matter there is a season, under the sun. Even when it comes to the worship of God, there is the right time and right procedure. In Ecclesiastes 8:5-6, the Bible says

Whoever obeys His command will come to no harm, and the wise heart will know the proper time and procedure. For there is a proper time and procedure for every matter though a man's misery weighs heavily upon him.

Even when it appears a man's misery weighs heavily upon him and he is under pressure, still there is the right time and right procedure for every matter under the sun. The Bible also makes it clear in Acts 17:26 that

From one man he made every nation of men, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he determined the times set for them and the exact places where they should live.

The amplified Bible, in Proverbs 16:33, says, “. . . even events that seem accidental are really ordered by Him.” The first thing that God did was to bring into operation that which will form the foundation of everything else.

There is a time to work and finish everything that needs to be done and that is why when anything was going to happen, to any particular nation, God said ‘for the time is not yet’. When they wanted to capture Jesus Christ, they could not lay hands on Him, because HE said ‘His time had not yet come.

So anything that God does to any individual or nation is at the appointed time or in the fullness of time. Even angelic activities, at least on earth, are tied strictly to time; for example, in Revelation 9:15,16 we see angels prepared for a particular hour of a particular day, of a particular month, of a particular year!

One early morning at 4.30am I just heard clearly that ‘the time has come’. I asked God what that exactly meant and He said that “The Time has come and Africa is going to rise! The Time to influence the world has come, and the Time for the enemy’s tenancy agreement to end has come”. Africa is going to rise and shine whether the devil likes it or not!

In John 17, Jesus in prayer says to the Father, the hour (time) has come. In John 7, He says to His brothers, who were asking Him to go to the feast in Jerusalem, “my time is not yet’. He said, to them anytime was right, but for Him, He moved only according to ‘the appointed time’. Ecclesiastes 3 gives a treatise on the various appointments we all have to keep with life, death, growth, building, etc.

In Ecclesiastes 3:1-8, the Bible says

- There is a time for everything, a season for every activity under heaven:
- a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot,
- a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build,
- a time to weep and a time to laugh a time to mourn and a time to dance
- a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace
- and a time to refrain, a time to search, and a time to give up,
- a time to keep and a time to throw away, a time to tear and a time to mend,
- a time to be silent and a time to speak, a time to love and a time to hear,
- a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace

Everything is operated by time. If you know the right time, you will make all the difference. If you will discover and possess the gate of Time, you possess everything else. What made the sons of Issachar different from the rest of Israel was that they understood the times and knew what Israel should do (1Chronicles12: 32). As a result of this they were able to bring David back to Israel and made him king at the right time. If David had been made King earlier or later, there would have been serious challenges.

In Hebrews 5:7, the Bible says...

Yet while Christ was here on earth he pleaded with God, praying with tears and agony of soul to the only one who would save him from premature death. And God heard his prayers because of his strong desire to obey God at all times.

There is a right time to die: Jesus, though He came purposely to die, did not want to die before the appointed time. He wanted to keep an appointment with God, not an appointment with death. Again because of His strong desire to obey God, God heard His prayer. As you read this now, pause and pray that God would give you a strong desire to obey Him at all times & move according to His Divine Timing. Pray that He will enable you keep every appointment He has for you in life. Once your time is ripe for a particular purpose, God will perform His good promise!

God said in Matthew 16:16-19 that the thing you must possess is the gates, and one of the keys we need to possess the gates is the Key of the knowledge of Time. Time itself can be redeemed.

WHAT SHOULD WE BE DOING AS KINGDOM CITIZENS IN THE NATIONS?

Jesus instructed us in Matthew 28:19-20 (Hebrew Gospel of Matthew) to: "Go and teach them to carry out all things which I have commanded you forever." This is what Paul did in Ephesus and in three years there was national transformation. Paul proclaimed the whole will of God Acts 20:27. As we pray for transformation in our nations what are we supposed to teach them? He said, "to carry out all things that He had commanded". We must teach them what the Bible says about family, government, politics...about all the spheres of society. We are called to be a transforming influence in society. The Bible provides us with a frame of reference for life.

The Jubilee Centre has over the past 30 years researched extensively around promoting good and right relationships at personal, organizational and public policy levels, as a practical expression of the biblical vision of society. Visit them on the web at www.jubilee-centre.org for resources to help you to teach them. If we don't teach them how will they know what to do?

"Jesus is LORD" is one of the most radical realities of Christianity. It means that He is the Supreme Ruler over ALL.

Jesus was commissioned by God the Father to come to earth, destroy the works of the Devil, and restore that which was lost. Jesus OBEYED everything the Father told Him to do. When Jesus left the earth, He gave His followers the same commission He had received from the Father - Go reconcile the human family to the Father, destroy the works of the Devil, and restore that which was lost. Proclaiming Jesus as LORD means we are to OBEY what He commands us to do. You are not saved to go to heaven: You are saved to bring heaven to the earth. Matthew 6:10 -- "Thy kingdom come, they will be done, on earth as it is in heaven." (From <http://www.the-covenant-kingdom.com>)

This month as you pray through this guide ask Jehovah to show you what He would have you do to bring heaven to the earth.

PRAYING THROUGH THE MONTH OF DECEMBER

- Command all of creation at the gates of the month to praise Jehovah. Proclaim Psalm 148 over all creation this month.
- Give thanks for thus far Jehovah has brought you. It is the end of a year and you have been privileged to see it up to this point. Proclaim Psalm 24.7-9 over the gates of this season, and declare that you and your household, will see this year ending well.
- Read Mark 11.23-24: At the gates of this season make prophetic proclamations into the womb of the month as seeds, concerning the things you would like to see happen to you and your loved ones, with regard to health, provision, all levels of relationships, salvation, deliverance, redemptive purpose and destiny, forgiveness and repentance, inheritances, ministry, the work of your hands, etc.
- Read Joel 2:25 Jehovah is able to do a quick work. Pray for restoration that you will make up for any lost or wasted time in order to finish 2020 well. Pray this for kingdom citizens in your territory.
- Read Isa 60:6 Tarshish means "distant shores", Make a prophetic declaration from this scripture that, whatever is due us from the distant shores we call forth. Our sons, those who will build us in every sense of the word, build the nations of Africa, will bring their resources. Those in the diaspora that are supposed to help develop the continent, we call back. Those who are meant to rebuild various gates of society including family, belief systems, government and leadership, economy, education, science and technology, media, arts sports and culture; we call them back from distant shores. We declare an African Aliyah. Foreigners will build that which will protect us. Israel will partner with Africa in various aspects of physical and spiritual development.
- Read 1 Sam 3:19-21. We are in the season of the Word i.e. Scripture. Jehovah will have us engage with His Word on a more intimate and more frequent level so that the Word will be so deeply rooted in our lives, guiding every one of our conversations, creating or destroying things to come, bringing life or death in situations depending on how we speak. Deliberately set aside time on a daily basis to pray thru a portion of scripture with regard to your life, family, occupation, redemptive purpose and the gate(s) of society you are connected to

- Psalm 141:3, Prov 18:21 Be mindful of what you say as part of your practice toward that place of authority in your words. You cannot be talking carelessly in certain forums, then be holy in your conversation when you are with other believers. You confuse the spirit realm, so they are never too sure whether you mean what you say or say what you mean. When you rise to declare healing, the angels wonder whether you are joking, exaggerating, serious or lying. Pray that Jehovah will help you sanitize your speech, and grow to the point where none of your words will fall to the ground,
- There is heightened crime during the month of December, due to the increased pressure for people to have financial stability for the festivities that come with the end year functions. Pray for the Shalom and protection of Jehovah to be made manifest where you and kingdom citizens are located. Pray that you will be recognized enough in the spirit realm to command that authority.
- Proclaim Isaiah 35 over every highway and byway that you and kingdom citizens will pass thru, every vehicle you will be found in, every building or other space you occupy; that because of your presence, those roads will be highways of holiness and nothing unclean or that which hurts, will be found on them; the spirit of death destruction and accidents will never find space on the roads you pass thru, the vehicles you use and the places and spaces you occupy. Prophecy that you will become a preservation for those who are around you every time.
- With increase in crime and other calamities during festive season, use this season to dedicate your neighborhood (at home and place of occupation). On a regular basis, remember to walk your neighborhood, at least around the block and declare the lordship of Jehovah and overthrow any contrary entity that resides or rules over the place. Ask them to pack and leave and invite the Holy Spirit and angelic protection in every gathering, every solitary person, every family and every stranger that comes within your space. Pray that there will be a shift in the Spirit realm bringing peace everywhere your feet tread in this season.
- Read Ps 89:14, Ps 97:2. Speak into the foundation of each day of this coming month, and declare that the foundation of the Kingdom of heaven and Jehovah's throne will become evident. These will be days of righteousness and justice in every aspect of your life and family, the Ecclesia and your territory at large.
- Read Gal 5:23, Prov 16:32, 25:28; This month is characterized by excessive indulgence and expenditure. Pray that you will exercise self-control in you, your family and the Ecclesia.
- Ask Jehovah to show you ways in which He will have you and kingdom citizens to fulfill responsibilities, and even do what He will have you do, without unnecessary waste of time and resources.
- Read Matt 28:18-20; Ask the Holy Spirit to guide you during this month of many interactions with various people, to provide you with opportunities to share the gospel with people whom you will encounter.

- Pray for boldness among Kingdom citizens to display and share the gospel so that the Great Commission will be activated across the society.
- Read Phil 1.6; This month signifies various levels of completion. The numbers 3, 9, and 12 all signify various levels of completion and stability. Pray that you will be a partaker of the Finishing anointing that comes with the 3rd, 9th and 12th months. Pray this for the Ecclesia
- Ask the Holy Spirit to bring to remembrance significant things that started in your life, your family, your relationships, in the Ecclesia in this past season that need closure that have been a long time coming. Whether it is in your work, relationships, ministry or destiny journey, as He reminds you, pray that in this season, you will experience a level of closure and in some areas a complete closure to those issues.
- Read Rom 8:14-23 Pray that you will be part of the many matured sons of Jehovah who will be manifested in this season to liberate creation from its bondage in your family, workplace, Ecclesia and in your territory.
- Read Matt 14:23-29: This is the 4th and final quarter of 2019. It is the winter season in the northern hemisphere and summer season in the southern hemisphere. Jesus watched His disciples striving and getting overwhelmed by the elements out in the open sea, but during the 4th watch He walked on the troubled waters to their rescue. Thank Jehovah that whatever situation seems to overwhelm you, at the appointed time, He simply walks over it and you too can, in faith walk over every situation that troubles you and seems to overpower as long as your eyes remain firmly fixed on Him Who is on the waters with you. In this 4th season, pray that there will be that miraculous intervention from Him.
- Pray mentioning every situation that has become overwhelming to you at the individual level, at the family level, on the national level, shall find lasting solutions in this 4th season.
- Pray that Jehovah will cause you to step out and walk over it by faith. Pray for the wisdom, the faith and focus required to successfully skim over all overwhelming circumstances in your life, in the Ecclesia and for your nation and continent. Jehovah can skim over the economic and financial crisis hitting the nations, He can cause kingdom citizens to triumph and prosper in such times, He can walk over adverse climatic challenges that are threatening nations, over wars and unrest, and over every situation that seems to have few or no solutions.
- Pray that you will no longer delay or derail His purposes or bring Him displeasure by misusing the created things released to you. Pray this for the Ecclesia and your territory
- Read 1 Cor 15.10; This is the final season for Africa to be prepared to enter fully into her redemptive destiny as the 4th man in the relay of the nations¹. Africa must make up for any lost grounds. It means we must run faster, aim higher, and shoot further. It is her season. Pray for the necessary grace and strength to work harder than the rest and fulfill this calling.

- Many Africans and people of African extraction in the nations are so concerned for their personal salvation and prosperity or oppression from the enemy, that they are unaware of the importance of the times we are living in. Pray for Africa and people of African extraction especially kingdom citizens in the diaspora, to really understand the significance of this season and to key into it spiritually.
- Prophetically proclaim Isa 60 over Africa; Pray that in this final season the Holy Spirit will release a sense of urgency so that as many as shall be prompted, will begin to seek Jehovah, and to have their ears and eyes opened to see, perceive and understand the times; and respond to Jehovah's behest to arise, work and shine among the nations.
- Thank Jehovah for this season of completion. Pray that every area where there is incompleteness within every gate of society, whether it be family, in the government and leadership, in the education system, media or culture, that Jehovah will begin to release the wisdom to bring closure where it is needed, completeness where there is a lacking, stability where there have been shakings; so that only that which is permanent and eternal will remain.
- Read Matt 18.16,20, John 8.17, 2 Cor. 13.1 When Abram stopped asking for the deliverance of Sodom and Gomorrah, kingdom citizens interpret it to be a failing and that he should have continued asking for 5 righteous people or even one; however in the Eastern cultures, the number 10 was the minimal governmental quorum that could legally make decisions and pass laws for any situation. Thank Jehovah that in Jesus where two or three are gathered in His name, we can make legislations on earth that heaven will align to. Take advantage of your gatherings to make decrees that will transform your lives, families, workplaces and territory at large.
- 12 is the number for divine government. Read Isa 19.1-3, 1 Cor 3.11; In this season of divine governance, Jehovah is visiting the foundations of the thrones of nations and these are the beginnings of a great shaking especially in Africa. Pray that the foundations of every throne which does not reflect the patterns of the kingdom i.e. righteousness and justice, whether they are already in place or are campaigning to be in place, shall receive a visitation of Jehovah. Every unjust and unrighteous foundation shall be shaken, broken, so that The Foundation which is Jesus, the ONLY foundation shall be laid in the nations of Africa.
- Read Ezek: 47.12 , Rev. 22:1-2, The tree of life bears fruit every month and its leaves are for the healing of nations. Pray that you will receive the fruit of the tree of life for the 3rd, 9th and 12th month and enjoy every one of their benefits.
- In paradise there will be no need for healing. The leaves for the healing of the nations are for our dispensation. Pray that the leaves that are needed for the portion of healing for this month in your territory shall be released. Where there is need for healing from individual illnesses, epidemics and pandemics, age-old feuds, unresolved wounded-ness, bloodshed, loss of human or natural resources, in every gate of society, pray that the leaves for the healing of your life family and territory will be released.

As you draw to the end of the year and strategize for the next, there are many decisions to be made, you are at a crossroads and sometimes at cross-purposes. Therefore, it is a season to step back, slow down, get back into focus. It is the beginnings of the season for hibernation in the northern hemisphere. Creation prepares for a time of a sabbatical, a time to rest and recuperate, a time to rebuild depleted resources to get in touch with their nature and their Creator. That way they keep that original decree to multiply and replenish themselves.

You may not be able to take physical time away, but you can retreat during this season by the following:

- Reduce your information intake and limit it to consuming more of the Word of the LORD. Read or listen to large chunks of scripture rather than watching TV or listening to the radio or reading newspapers. The LORD is so faithful He will ensure you receive every information you will need during this season.
- Spend quality time in song ministration and prayer to the LORD.
- Have fellowship with people who will help you grow in the word and in Biblical doctrines; this includes reading literature to this end.
- Throughout the year you have heard much. You have spoken much. It is time to begin to slow down and digest all that information. Pray and ask Jehovah the following: What is the LORD speaking for the next year? What does 2021 hold for you? What does it hold for your family? Your business or ministry? The Ecclesia? The nation? Jehovah is faithful to answer questions pertaining to His kingdom agenda without fail.
- Read Isa 50:5, Isa 30:21, Prov 18:15, Mic 6:6-8 It is time to listen to Jehovah's strategy. Spend time in silent meditation and create an atmosphere of listening to the LORD for feedback every so often. Ask the LORD to open your ears this coming month so you can hear what He is saying and His purpose and plan for each moment. Pray that you will also have the grace to humbly obey each time you hear His voice.
- Participate in various types of fasting as a way of waiting upon the LORD where possible.
- Read Job 33:14-17 This is a season that creation prepares for hibernation in the northern hemisphere? A time to retreat and meditate, plan and dream into the days to come. Pray for Jehovah-given dreams, visions concerning His plan for your life, family, the Ecclesia and territory in the days to come.

IS THIS THE MONTH OF YOUR BIRTH?

Even if this is not your month of birth, pray into the day of your birth on a weekly basis (that is the weekday in which you were born). Take time on a regular basis to be praying for yourself and prophesying over your own life. Speak into the foundations of your life and prophesy good things.

- Prophecy that you will live and not die prematurely in any area of your life. Your family will live, the work of your hand will live and grow from strength to strength Deut 33:6, Psa 27:L13, 118:17.
- Prophecy and proclaim the blessing of Levi upon your life as a priest unto GOD 2 Pet 2:9, Deut 33:8-11.
- Prophecy the blessing of the wisdom of Issachar in every area of life. Wisdom to establish the work of your hands, your family, as you grow a year older 1Chron 12:32, Deut 33:18b-19, Pro 24:3-4.
- Prophecy and proclaim the blessing of Benjamin upon your life Deut 33:12.

- Prophecy that you will grow in your spirit man into a mature son so that you can receive your inheritance. Wherever you go in this new year, creation will experience release from frustration because you are growing not just in years but also in maturity of spirit to take responsibility of your Father's estate i.e. the territory GOD has allowed you to inhabit. Rom 8:19-20, Gal 4:1-2
- Thank Him for your specific day of birth. Declare that day blessed.
- Thank Him that He ordained that you will be made manifest on earth on a specific day in that month at a specific hour and minute.
- Thank Him that He has a purpose for your life and it will be fulfilled.
- Ask Jehovah to forgive you where you have for one reason or another, ignored or rejected to recognize your day of birth.
- Thank Jehovah for the day of your conception. (Psa 139:13)
- Thank Jehovah that when He thought of you, he already thought of your entire life. Thank Him that He did not leave anything to chance. (Isa 49:1)
- Thank Him that he knew exactly what your redemptive purpose was going to be. (Psa 139:16)
- Pray that He will reveal the original you more and more as you enter another year of your life. (Psa 139:13-15)
- Pray that He will restore the heavenly label, and the heavenly name He gave you before you were conceived. (Jer 1:5).
- Speak into the foundations of your life and prophecy good things.

FESTIVALS DURING THIS MONTH

THE SEASON OF KISLEV – Began on November 17, 2020 and will end on December 15, 2020.

Kislev is the third month of the civil year and the ninth month of the ecclesiastical year on the Hebrew calendar. In a regular year Kislev has 30 days, but because of the Rosh Hashanah postponement rules, in some years it can lose a day to make the year a "short" year. Kislev is an autumn month which occurs in November–December on the Gregorian calendar and is sometimes known as the month of dreams. The name of the month derives from Akkadian kislimu, which means "inspissated, thickened" due to plentiful rains. But some popular etymologies connect it to the Hebrew root K-S-L as in the words "kesel, kisle" or "ksil" because of the expectation and hope for rains.

CHANUKAH

Chanukah is the Hebrew word for "dedication." The eight-day Jewish celebration bearing that name — it is also called the Festival of Lights. This celebration remembers the dedication of the Temple in Jerusalem after it had been recovered by the Jewish forces of Yehuda Maccabee in 164 BC. The Syrian king Antiochus IV Epiphanes (a forerunner of the anti-Christ, foretold in Daniel 11:21), seeking to coerce the Jews into abandoning their religion and culture for that of Greece, had issued edicts forbidding circumcision, observance of Jewish Sabbaths and feast-days. He had defiled the Holy Temple by offering a sow on the altar and raising up in the sanctuary a statue to Zeus.

As depicted in the First Book of Maccabees (an account of Jewish history found in the Apocrypha), a revolt was launched by the priest Mattathias and later led by his son Yehuda (Judas) Maccabee. It led to the defeat of the Syrian forces, and the defiled Temple was cleansed and re-dedicated. Another account relates how during this cleansing there was only enough sanctified oil left to burn in the menorah for one night—yet a miracle occurred, and it continued burning for eight days. The victorious warrior Yehuda ordained "that the days of the dedication of the altar should be kept in their season from year to year by the space of eight days, from the five and twentieth day of the month of Kislev, with mirth and gladness" (I Maccabees 4:59). Today, part of the celebration includes the use of a special eight-branched menorah upon which a new oil lamp or candle is lit each evening. Each light is ignited from the flame of a separate "branch" called shamash—"servant."

This year Chanukah begins at sundown on December 10, 2020 and ends at sundown on December 18, 2020.

GATES OF WINTER/ WINTER SOLSTICE

On December 21, 2020 the winter solstice occurs @ 10:02 UTC in the northern hemisphere. The South Pole of the earth will be tilted toward the Sun, which would have reached its southernmost position in the sky and will be directly over the Tropic of Capricorn at 23.44 degrees south latitude.

That will be the gates or first day of winter (winter solstice) season in the northern hemisphere and the first day of summer (summer solstice) or gates of summer in the southern hemisphere. It is the shortest day and longest night in the northern hemisphere, and it will be the longest day and shortest night in the southern hemisphere.

During these key seasons when the sun is over the lay-lines (sometimes called boundary lines or survey lines, or measuring lines in Scripture or latitudes/longitudes in geography) of the earth, those in the kingdom of darkness will speak into the lay-lines of the earth i.e. the equator, prime meridian, tropics of Cancer and Capricorn and international dateline, and seek to manipulate the occurrences in the nations from those places.

Why? The voice of the day runs along these lay lines to go throughout the earth. There is no speech or language where their voice is not heard. Their line has gone out through all the earth and their utterances to the end of the world. This means that if a person wants to control what will happen in the earth, they just need to understand at which points of the earth they need to make decrees.

- Read Job 38.4-5, Psalm 19:1-6, the threshold of this month, prophetically pray into the womb of the month and declare that the heavens including the sun, moon and stars will declare only the praise and glory of Jehovah and ignore enchantments and prognostications from any other contrary voice.
- Command the earth and its lay-lines to hear and receive only instruction that gives praise to Jehovah and will render void and vomit out every sacrifice, libation and utterance that is contrary to His purposes.
- Speak to the earth and remind it that the blood of Jesus flowed into it and His altar of Calvary was raised from the earth to redeem it from the bondage and curse of defilement from the activities of the kingdom of darkness.
- Speak to every lay line of the earth and command it to praise Jehovah as the sun is overhead the tropic of Capricorn. Command the day to obey only the voice of Jehovah and to declare only His glory.
- Pray into the womb of December 22, 2019 and sanitize the spiritual atmosphere over that day. Read out loud Psalm 17, 18, 46 calling on Jehovah our Fortress, and deliverer to shelter you, your family, the Ecclesia and so many in the territory who do not realize that He is their Refuge at such a time as this.
- Proclaim Proverbs 18:10 and call on the name of Jehovah to be a strong tower for your entire territory on that day.
- Declare Psalm 91; Speak the Scripture over every lay line, the Prime Meridian, the International Dateline, the equator, the tropics of Cancer and Capricorn and over all of Jehovah's people who are - vulnerable to the attack of the enemy and the spirit of death in this season. Declare that the enemy will not get the price that he is asking on this day because Jesus is the Price which covers as the heavens declare. He has already destroyed the spirit of death and the enemy has no right over anyone. The blood of Jesus covers all.

- Read Ps 92:14-15 Jehovah never intended the winter season (Old age) of one’s life to be dry, unfruitful and dreary. Jehovah pronounced it fruitful, fat and flourishing.
- Read 1 Tim 3:2c ; 2 Tim 2:24c ; Exo 35:34 If you are in the winter season of life, it is an exciting time to gather the youth in your field of specialization and pour into them all the experiences you have gathered. Pray for ability to mentor, teach and impart.
- Winter is a cold season, a time to share with others those physical things which are needful to the body especially with those who are less privileged.
- Read Luke 3:11; Jam 2:15-16 Practically give away food, clothing, and money to those the spirit of Jehovah will lead you to give to, demonstrating your love for them as an act of thanksgiving to Jehovah for His love, care and provision throughout the Gregorian year.

THE SEASON OF KISLEV

EVENTS IN THE SEASON OF KISLEV– (From the book, “Triumphing at the Gates of the Stars in Their Seasons” by Steve Ogan)

	Events in the Season of KISLEV	Implications for prayer and Practical Action
1	Greeks set up the “abomination of desolation” in the Temple.	Pray that the release of the Redeemer’s triumphant Archer, will restrain the practice of abominations.
2	Ezra compels the Jews to put away their strange marriages (Ezra 9:12)	Pray that men and women who have strange marriages will willingly bring restitution.

COUNTERFEIT FESTIVALS

Whereas a large part of the world commemorates the birth of Jesus during the winter solstice in December, these dates are also rooted in ancient pagan celebration. There is need for revelation, wisdom and understanding concerning how to deal with this season that is so deeply ingrained in the lifestyle of the Ecclesia and the world at large. Numerous Kingdom citizens join in these celebrations and choose this season to carry out charitable deeds and quite a lot of good is done. Jehovah has given different revelations to different people groups concerning the significance of such a season.

- Proclaim Psalm 18.23-24 over the festive season. Each day is Jehovah's day and not given to any other deity. Command the season to praise Jehovah and do only His bidding for you, your family, the Ecclesia and territory at large.
- As you are aware, Jehovah can turn any situation we hand over to Him for His own purpose and good. Where the enemy has chosen to pervert this season, hand it over to Jehovah and invite Him as King over the season. His purposes alone will come to pass and nothing that is self-seeking, humanistic or even demonic will find expression in these days. Speak into the womb of time and declare that those days shall bring forth Jehovah's redemptive purpose.
- Read Rom 14.5-12; After all has been said and done, take all the revelations you have heard from people, pray that Jehovah will bring His own revelation to each individual Kingdom citizen starting with yourself, concerning His own purpose for this season.
- There is heightened spirituality among Kingdom citizens during the festive season. It is sad but true that more people attend fellowships, pray and pay greater attention to Jehovah during this season. As their hearts are open and receptive to Him, pray that He will reveal Himself in a special way, and bring the true revelation to the Ecclesia worldwide, on what He originally intended for these dates which the kingdom of darkness took up and used to dedicate to pagan rites.
- While the world and the ecclesia at large continue to use this as a holiday season of rest, celebration, family reunion, traveling, there is plenty of bloodshed through vehicular accidents, excesses in drinking, eating, expenditures, spiritual rededication, heightened sexually immoral activities and decadence at all levels, pray that Jehovah will cover the nations with the blood of Jesus.
- Read Heb 12.24; During this season, pray that wherever the enemy is calling for your blood, or that of anyone in your family, Ecclesia or the territory, the redemptive blood of Jesus which speaks better things than the blood of Abel, will answer on your behalf and stay the hand of destruction until all come to the knowledge of Jehovah's truth concerning such a time as this.

As the year comes to a close, there are several festivals, end of year parties, giving of bonuses and gifts to employees, a number of which are veiled ritual ceremonies that give honor to various ungodly powers for seeing people, organizations and religious groups through the year. The blood of Jesus is the acceptable sacrifice. All other bloodshed and ritual drinking and eating, ritual giving of gifts and bonuses is demonic and releases ungodliness in the territory. Many kingdom citizens come under bondage through these "end of year parties" and bonuses/gifts. Thus, there is increased accidental death and bloodshed during this time of the year.

- This is not meant to release panic or cause you to avoid parties and gifts because it is only some which are ritualistic. However, it is to give you knowledge to pray and plead the blood of Jesus over all you receive and gatherings you attend; eating together is a covenantal action; therefore, ask for wisdom and heightened discernment in this season.
- Prophetically cover yourself, your family, organization and every event, with the blood of Jesus in this season.
- Pray for a release of angels from Jehovah to sabotage and derail any plans for ritual activities that are contrary to the purposes of Jehovah and will only serve to bring individuals and people groups under bondage. Pray that any such gatherings that may have a hidden agenda will be exposed and fail in their diabolic agenda.
- Break off all evil communication lines and gatherings of darkness that capitalize on the season to bring worship and dedications to their various demon-gods. Pray that angels of Jehovah are released to bring complete communication breakdown in those gatherings.
- Read Hos 2:12-13 Some gifts are snares and it's better to pray more over them than to ignore. During this season many organizations prepare bonuses and gift packs for their staff. Again, these are occasions that some of these organizations use to rededicate themselves, and bind their workers to subservience as they give them bonuses and gifts that have been offered and dedicated to demon gods. If you are a recipient of such gifts, ensure that you pray over them, break every curse over your life, every stolen virtue, every curse of oppression at work and income attached to these gifts and cast out every demon that is attached to the gift. Always ask Jehovah how He would have you pray and utilize these gifts.
- Read Gen 4:10-12 The earth is defiled by any level of bloodshed. Speak to the earth to reject every blood shed or sacrifice, every libation, every ritual activity that does not glorify Jehovah the Creator of the times and seasons during this month. Sanctify all that you will eat or drink during these coming days in the various festivities that will take place.,
- Hos 2.14; Pray that during this month, kingdom citizens will receive and utilize every opportunity given for sharing the love of Jesus to as many as come their way. Pray that your life, environment, and territory will be filled with the glory of Jehovah as the waters cover the sea.

PRAYING FOR NATIONS

Currently 213 countries and territories around the world have reported at total of more than 61,631,000 confirmed cases of the coronavirus COVID-19. The death toll is more than 1,443,856.

Please use these prayer points as you pray for the nations:

- Pray for the victims- that Jehovah would comfort them, pray that family members will be reunited.
- Pray for healing and mercy - God is our comfort and strength Psalm 46:1, Psalm 57:1-2
- Pray for wisdom and safety for those responding to the people in need. Pray for the safety of the rescue workers.
- Pray for the Body of Christ in the nation. Pray that the Body of Christ will be a witness of God's compassion and care for all who suffer. God is inviting us to be His watchmen in prayer and find Him as our refuge in hard times.

NATIONAL DAYS

The following nations celebrate national days in this month:

- 1) Finland 6 December (Independence Day of Finland, declaration of independence from Russia in 1917)

 - 13) Macau 20 December (Transfer of sovereignty to the PRC in 1999)
 - 14) Nepal 28 December federal republic 2008, earlier the king's birthday)
- Using Acts 17:26-28, pray into the womb of time for the above nations. Thank God that He is the One Who determined the boundaries of each nation at an exact time and season during a particular year for the purpose of redeeming each of these nations and causing men to seek Him and find Him.
 - For each nation celebrating an independence day, pray that the LORD will follow this with the independence of His people from the kingdom of darkness into His glorious kingdom of light. Many will have a personal encounter with Him which will lead to their decision for salvation over eternal death. Pray that the people in each of these nations will choose life and that there shall be fellowships which will be on hand to receive and disciple them into strong disciples of the LORD. Matt 28:18-20.

- Thank the LORD that He is Governor over the above nations and He rules justly (Psa 22:28)
- Pray that a level of kingdom governance will begin to reflect in each of the above nations as they mark various milestones during this month.
- Prophetically proclaim Isaiah 61 to the Ecclesia in each of the above nations.
- Pray that the LORD will strengthen the weak hands and knees of the Ecclesia in each nation. One common feature in each of the above nations is that the Ecclesia is not very strong. There is a strong occult presence in each of these nations. Pray that the LORD will raise a prophetic Ecclesia to deal with all forms of occult in this season.
- Pray for nations that have turned heavily to Secular humanism because of the relative successes they have enjoyed in areas of economic development. Many of these nations have become centers of immorality and defiance of the LORD. Pray that the LORD will in this season do something that will cause the people in these nations to turn their hearts back to Him.

NATIONAL ELECTIONS

We encourage you to keep praying for a nation's election for at least 2-3 years before the fact. That way, you pray without the frenzy of campaigns and the attendant pressures. Also, Jehovah can begin to reveal the person whom He wants to raise in position of leadership.

Be like Mary who anointed Jesus for his death and burial way before the actual event. While everyone else was scrambling around to do their good deed after He had died, and missed the opportunity because He was risen, she could rest content that she had done her bit on time. Be like the five clever virgins who paid the price of preparation before-hand, so that when the bride-groom did appear, they entered into their rest while the foolish virgins scrambled around trying to do a hasty last minute job.

Let us not be fire-fighters and crisis intercessors. Such an important matter as a nation or region, or constituency leadership should not be taken as lightly as it has been done in the past. Let this sacred new year commence a new beginning and new attitude toward matters of elections.

December

- 5 December: Kuwait, Parliament
- 6 December:
 - Romania, Chamber of Deputies and Senate
 - Venezuela, National Assembly
- 7 December: Ghana, President and Parliament
- 7–8 December: Egypt, House of Representatives \(2nd round, 2nd phase\)
- 8 December: [Liberia, Senate \[fr\]](#) and [Constitutional Referendum \[fr\]](#)
- 27 December:
 - Central African Republic, President and Parliament \(1st round\)
 - [Niger, President and Parliament^{\[83\]}](#)

- Thank GOD for the above nations that have different types of election activities.
- Pray that GOD's Shalom shall brood over each territory as they participate in elections.
- Pray that the elections will be free and fair and that the individuals whom GOD has marked for leadership will emerge as winners as the Ecclesia partners with GOD in making the proper selection
- Pray that the Ecclesia will no longer be used as a pawn in campaign activities in these nations. Rather the Ecclesia will have a strong voice in representing the kingdom of GOD in the national matters.
- Pray against the party spirit that breeds division in the Ecclesia whenever election seasons come.

PRAYING THRU THE HEAVENS

- For any army to win a war, they will ensure their air-force is in place. Whether it is simple Calvary in ancient times, or soldiers positioned on the city walls, or on high hills or elevated places, these have the best view of the battle. For you to overcome the enemy in this spring season, ensure that the heavens are in agreement with you. Speak to the heavens over the month and ask them to declare the glory of Jehovah. Command the sun, moon, stars and every heavenly being to do Jehovah's bidding, and to do that which they were created for - to give Him pleasure (Ps 19:1-2, Rev 4:11)

GOD created the heavens and gave them their role in creation – to determine the times and seasons on earth (Gen 1:14-18). It is a must for every kingdom citizen to study and understand the heavens and know our role as stewards of His estate toward them – not the ungodly astrology, horoscope and other occult practices.

Once we acquire GOD's ordained knowledge for the heavens, we will be able to set up their dominion here on earth (Job 38:31-33). Remember that in Mathew 28:18-20 Jesus commissioned the fledgling Ecclesia with all the authority given to Him to go out into all nations and disciple them. This authority included that which is in heaven and on earth. It is our duty to answer in the affirmative, the question that Job was asked concerning the visible firmament in Job 38:31-33. (For further teaching on "Understanding the Heavens" make a request of the teaching by email).

LUNAR MOVEMENTS

Crescents and Quarter Moons

When the moon is shaped like a C or its mirror image (Sickle), it is considered a crescent moon. The quarter moon is shaped like a D or its mirror image and considered to be a bow. The occult will use the bow shaped moon to shoot arrows of wickedness to the unsuspecting in order to draw unfair advantage in various areas of life. The occult use the crescent moon as sickles (e.g. Hecate's sickle), for harvesting the gains of the ignorant and for demonic strength and fortification with intense enchantments.

- Proclaim Psalm 148 and Command all creation especially the crescent and Quarter moons to praise GOD as instructed in Psalm 19.
- Proclaim Psalm 64 and fasten that judgment into the heavens.
- Proclaim Isa 26:1-9 and command the heavens to receive this instruction and reject every other voice of destruction; pray for strength and fortification "Trust in the LORD forever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength". Isa 26:4
- GOD abhors enchantment so He warned His people not to be involved in enchantment. (Lev 19:26b) Pray that the occult, involved in intense enchantment will equally and certainly face the fierce wrath of GOD. Is 13:9

The Full moon will occur on 30 December 2020 @ 03:28 UTC

- Praise GOD for the full moon this month.
- Declare that as the moon has waxed into fullness this month, so shall you receive a double portion of the prophetic release which will wax to fullness during this season.
- Command the full moon to declare the glory of GOD alone and reject every other instruction from any other source that is not ordained by GOD. Psa 19.
- Proclaim Zech 9:15-17; In this month, command the full moon to praise GOD. As the enemy comes in like a flood, as he comes as a terror by night or shoots arrows that fly by noonday, the Word of the LORD will be your shield and buckler. Psalm 91
- Ask Jesus who is the Conquering King, to ride forth victoriously on behalf of righteousness, humility and truth during the full moon season. Every enemy instruction for the full moon to strike the righteous by night will be returned to sender as the moon rejects every other instruction except that which is from the LORD Psa 45.3-6
- During full moon seasons the gravitational pull of the moon on the earth causes an ebb and flow of waters resulting in tidal action and instability of the waters on earth even in bodies of all creatures. Pray that the waters of your body will stabilize and be still during the full moon season when the waters ebb and flow, and body fluids are also affected adversely. Ask the LORD to be the stability of your times; pray this for your economy and for the political landscape in your territory.

The Last Quarter moon will occur on 7 December 2020 while the First Quarter moon will occur on 21 December 2020.

- Command the Quarter moons to praise GOD in this season.
- Pray that GOD will teach your hands to war and your fingers to do battle so you can break the steel bows of the witches, wizards, sorcerers, necromancers, diviners, monthly prognosticators, astrologers, traffickers of familiar spirits and the queen of heaven (Ps 18:34; Ps 144:1)

The New Moon occurs on 14 December 2020 @ 16:16 UTC

- Command the new moon to praise GOD who created it to mark the times and seasons. Psalm 104:19, 136:8-9, 148:3,
- Command the new moon to receive instruction only from GOD and from Kingdom citizens to fulfill only the purpose which GOD created it for in this season. Pray that the moon shall reject the incantations, prognostications and manipulation from any other ungodly source.
- Pray that as the new moon waxes as a witness in the sky, so shall their desire to know the true LORD GOD grow with it.
- Pray that GOD should cut off those that handle the sickle in the time of harvest against the ignorant and cause them to flee. (Jer 50:16)
- At the new and crescent moon proclaim and enforce Num 23:23 over your life, family, and the ignorant in the Ecclesia and territory.

SOLAR MOVEMENTS

From 30th November to 18 December 2020 the sun will move into the cluster of 134 stars in SERPENS and OPHIUCHUS. This represents the struggle with the enemy. In Scorpio we see merely the effort to wound the mighty Man Ophiuchus the healer in the heel; but in Ophiuchus we see the effort of the serpent to SEIZE THE CROWN, which is situated immediately over the serpent's head, and to which he is looking up and reaching forth. The contest is for dominion.

Serpens – the Serpent; stars the serpent held; Gen 3.15 bruise the head; Psa 91.13 tread on the adder; the accursed, encompassing, the reptile

Orphiuchus – the serpent holder; fighting with Satan; the Desired, holding the serpent, his foot on the head of the scorpion Hag 2.7; enfolding, in the foot bruised, the wounded, contending, head of him who holds

It was the Devil, in the form of a serpent, that robbed the first man of his crown; but in vain he struggled to wrest it from the sure possession of the Second Man and the last Adam - Jesus. Not only does he fail in the attempt, but is himself utterly defeated and trodden under foot. Throughout His passions from the betrayal, the last Supper, to the intercession at Gethsemane, the false accusation and torture at the hands of Pilate's soldiers and the Via Dolorosa to the Cross and the resurrection, Jesus was contending with the enemy.

- Read John 1:12, Heb 2:9-18 It is a season to join the heavens and all of creation as they declare the glory of the Jehovah in His capacity as our Kinsman Redeemer, as our Savior and Deliverer, the First-fruit among many brethren, the Healer of the breach between man and Jehovah, the Son who has made all who believe to become sons of Jehovah.
- Proclaim Psalm 45 and 136 The Victor Jesus then rides forth victoriously on behalf of humility, righteousness and truth. Take time to praise Jehovah Who is revealing His overcoming power in the heavens over this entire season. Praise Him who has not left Himself without a witness in the heavens.
- Proclaim Psalm 103:1-3, Isa 53:5-6, 1 Pet 2.24. The heavens declare that our Healer has arisen. Do you have any infirmities? Join the heavens in declaring divine healing from the Healer Himself who destroyed the works of the evil serpent including infirmities.
- Read Col 1:15-20, Rev 4:11, 5:12-14. Praise Jesus that He triumphed over the enemy so completely and all the authority, all the power, all the dominion was given to Him. He is crowned with many crowns and rules all things in righteousness and justice.
- Read Matt 28:18-20, Mark 16:15-18. Pray that in this season Jehovah will reveal to you a glimpse of this authority and power that was released to you through Jesus to overcome in your generation even as the heavens declare.

From December 18, 2020 to 19 January 2021 as the sun makes its circuit through the heavens, it passes through a cluster of 69 stars in the constellation called SAGITTARIUS symbolized by the archer. This represents the triumph of Jesus “The Coming One” who is represented as going forth “Conquering and to conquer.” The Bible testifies that He wrested from the enemy the keys of Death and Hades. He led captivity captive and released from eternal bondage the entire universe.

- Praise Jehovah that the heavens continue to so accurately declare the times and seasons we are in. It is a season to celebrate the Light of the world, Jesus who has set us free from bondage for eternity. After the season of warfare and intensive struggle, there is coming a time of succor, of triumphing over the enemy.
- The year 2019 has been a powerful year, a season of great trials and stretching to many. Yet we can celebrate at the end of the year that indeed through it all the heavens give assurance of the victory that Jehovah has won over every rebellion, and usurping spirit. Prophecy that what the heavens are declaring concerning the season we are ending shall be made manifest in your life, in your family, the Ecclesia and the territory you live in.
- Thank Him that throughout this year He has revealed through the heavens, His will concerning the earth and all that is in it.
- Rev 19.11-14 Pray that Jesus, the Conqueror, will go forth and conquer every opposition to His rule on the continent at every level and rule as King over every territory this month and in the year 2020.
- Pray that Jehovah’s arrows as the Archer will pierce deep into the heart of every enemy of His purposes in every area of life and destiny in your territory and scatter their wicked plans.

The other three smaller group of stars called decans that form part of Sagittarius describe in detail, Praise to the conqueror.

LYRA (the Harp) represents praise prepared for the conqueror. Stars: Two natured Conqueror is going forth; Praise prepared for the conqueror; Rejoicing; Be glad, give honor, blessing and honor Rev 19.7, Rev 5.13.

- Proclaim Psa 148-150 The harp is a celestial instrument of worship. The heavens declare a season of increased worship and song ministrations to the Jehovah. Take time ever so often to have long moments of adoration to the King of kings as you crown Him with many Crowns.
- Proclaim Ps 117; 68:32 Instruct all creation to praise Jehovah who has conquered the kingdom of darkness and forever obtained salvation for all creation.
- Read 2 Chron 20:1-30 During this month the theme of praise and worship is strong and the heavens do declare this truth. Have moments of praising Jehovah as Jehoshaphat and the Israelites did. As you praise Him over every circumstance, you lift His name and enthrone Him as the Conqueror. He will deploy help for you. Therefore, keep that PRAISING DISPOSITION

ARA (The Altar) represents consuming fire prepared for His enemies. It is written that "... whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast in the lake of fire" (Rev 20:12, 15). Stars; burning pyre; finishing; cursing; fire shall devour them; Psa 21.9

- Read Joel 2:1, Rev 20:11-15 These are the LAST days. The many calamities and disasters that befall nations are enough to warn any discerning kingdom citizen that indeed the time is short and we are in the last days. Many times, in the midst of the vicissitudes of fortune and seasons, we lose focus of this truth. Most sermons we listen to are focused on making us very comfortable with the earth and with no preparation for that Great Day of Jehovah. The heavens remind us that there is a Day coming when your life will cease, when the whole creation will stand before the Judgment seat of Jehovah. Will you be ready? Will your loved ones be ready? Pray that Jehovah will in this month of many festivities, bring back to your mind the REALITY of that Day and the desire to be PREPARED.
- Read Luke 12.5, Rev 20.10-15 There is a real hell prepared for the devil and his surrogate spirits. It was never prepared for man. The heavens declare the severity of punishment of the Jehovah's enemies. Pray that as many as you know who don't know the Jehovah today will have a real encounter with Him and receive an opportunity to accept His sacrifice (as the brazen serpent that was lifted up in the wilderness) for the redemption and healing of the nations; because when the grace is no longer there, the punishment for those who reject Jesus will be great.
- Read Prov 11:30b Pray for the Ecclesia to preach more about the second return of Jesus, not to redeem, but to judge. Pray that in the midst of all the festivities there will be sobriety with regard to the reality of this Savior and Redeemer, Who will return as Judge over Creation.

PROCLAIM

THE LORD IS WITH ME; HE IS MY HELPER. I LOOK IN TRIUMPH ON MY ENEMIES. IT IS BETTER TO TAKE REFUGE IN THE LORD THAN TO TRUST IN HUMANS. IT IS BETTER TO TAKE REFUGE IN THE LORD THAN TO TRUST IN PRINCES. ALL THE NATIONS SURROUNDED ME, BUT IN THE NAME OF THE LORD I CUT THEM DOWN. THEY SURROUNDED ME ON EVERY SIDE, BUT IN THE NAME OF THE LORD I CUT THEM DOWN. THEY SWARMED AROUND ME LIKE BEES, BUT THEY WERE CONSUMED AS QUICKLY AS BURNING THORNS; IN THE NAME OF THE LORD I CUT THEM DOWN. I WAS PUSHED BACK AND ABOUT TO FALL, BUT THE LORD HELPED ME. THE LORD IS MY STRENGTH AND MY DEFENSE; HE HAS BECOME MY SALVATION. SHOUTS OF JOY AND VICTORY RESOUND IN THE TENTS OF THE RIGHTEOUS: "THE LORD'S RIGHT HAND HAS DONE MIGHTY THINGS! THE LORD'S RIGHT HAND IS LIFTED HIGH; THE LORD'S RIGHT HAND HAS DONE MIGHTY THINGS!" I WILL NOT DIE BUT LIVE, AND WILL PROCLAIM WHAT THE LORD HAS DONE. PSALM 118.7-17
