PRAYING THROUGH THE MONTH OF JUNE 2022

The Prayer Guide is sent to many users all over the world and can look quite lengthy at times. We have numbered the pages and provided a table of contents to allow the reader to access the areas that are of interest. We have inserted hyperlinks so you can go directly to the sections you are interested in.

PREPARING THE INTERCESSORS TO BRING IN THE END TIME HARVEST

On March 11, 2020 the World Health Organization (WHO) declared Coronavirus COVID-19 a pandemic. Currently, the worldwide death toll is over 208,000 with over 3,000,000 confirmed cases and over 775,000 recovered. Countries have closed their borders and ordered their residents to stay at home.

On April 8, 2020 at the conclusion of the Eagle's Fast at Logos-Rhema Central Community Assembly in Accra, Ghana Dr. Abu Bako was ministering. The Lord said that it was time to release the prophetic at unprecedented levels of expression and manifestation. The Lord also said this was the time of unprecedented release and manifestation of the supernatural and increased human and angelic collaboration.

The Lord has spoken to many prophets about the times we are in. The summary of what we have been hearing is:

- 1) Prepare for my coming.
- 2) Focus on the end time harvest.
- 3) Though part of the Lord's shaking (Haggai 2:6-9) the coronavirus pandemic should not be allowed to distract us but rather promote us into our place in God.

As we focus on the end time harvest, we are offering resources to equip the intercessors to bring in the harvest.

Here are some recommended online resources:

Dr. Abu Bako has prepared a series entitled "Times and Seasons" that can be seen on the Facebook page of Logos-Rhema Foundation HQ. Professor Vincent Anigbogu has prepared a series entitled "Developing the Total Man for God's Use". The recordings are on the Facebook page of Prof Vincent Anigbogu.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE MONTH OF JUNE

In the Gregorian calendar June is the sixth month of the year. In 2022 Sivan, the third (3rd) month in the Biblical Sacred Calendar, and the eleventh (11th) in Biblical Civil Calendar falls in May/June. This is the season when harvest begins in the northern hemisphere even as the winter season starts towards the tropic of Capricorn in the southern Hemisphere. The June Solstice this year is on June 21, 2022, at 09:13 UTC. This ushers in the summer gate. In this season the sun is positioned directly over the tropic of Cancer in the northern hemisphere. This results in the phenomenon known as the Summer Solstice or the high summer in the northern hemisphere. A solstice occurs when the sun's zenith is at its furthest point from the equator. On the June solstice, it reaches its northernmost point and the Earth's North Pole tilts directly towards the sun, at about 23.4 degrees. This is also known as the northern solstice since it takes place when the sun is directly over the Tropic of Cancer in the Northern Hemisphere.

June 21, 2022, records the longest daylight hours and the shortest night-time hours of 2022. In some areas of the northern hemisphere, they experience sunlight for up to 23 hours. The southern hemisphere experiences the winter solstice during that same day recording the shortest daylight hours and longest nighttime hours.

The Jewish month Sivan 5782 begins on May 31, 2022 and continues through to June 29, 2022. The month Tammuz begins on June 30, 2022 and ends at sundown July 28, 2022.

Sunday June 19, 2022 is Fathers' Day in many nations. Important events that occurred in the month of Sivan 2105 BCE Flood Waters Recede

150 days after the rains stopped falling in the Great Flood, the raging waters which covered the face of the earth calmed and began to subside at the rate of one cubit every four days (Genesis 8:3)

2105 BCE Noah's Ark Comes to Rest on Mt. Ararat

Seven months after the beginning of the Great Flood, and 17 days after the waters covering the earth began to subside, the Ark sheltering Noah, his family, and members of all animal species came to rest on the (still submerged) summit of Mount Ararat

1565 and 1466 BCE Birth and Passing of Judah

Judah, the fourth son of Jacob and Leah, was born in Charan on the 15th of Sivan, of the year 2196 from creation (1565 BCE). He passed away on the same date 119 years later, in Egypt.... Judah took the leadership role both in selling Joseph into slavery and in the brothers' later attempts to find him and free him, and to protect Benjamin. On his deathbed, Jacob conferred the leadership of Israel upon Judah, proclaiming:

"The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor the legislator from between his feet, until Shiloh (the Messiah) comes..."

1313 BCE Encampment at Sinai

On the 1st of Sivan of the year 2448 from creation (1313 BCE), six weeks after their exodus from Egypt, the Children of Israel arrived at Mount Sinai in the Sinai Desert and camped at the foot of the mountain "as one man, with one heart" in preparation for the receiving of the Torah from God. On this day, however "Moses did not say anything to them, because of their exhaustion from the journey."

1313 BCE The people of Israel became God's chosen treasure.

Sivan 2 is marked on the Jewish calendar as Yom HaMeyuchas ("Day of Distinction"); it was on this day that God told Moses -- when Moses ascended Mount Sinai for the first time -- to tell the people of Israel: "You shall be My chosen treasure from among all the nations, for all the earth is Mine. You shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation" (Exodus 19:4-6).

1313 BCE The Children of Israel Prepare to Receive Torah

On Sivan 3, God instructed Moses to "set boundaries for the people around, saying, 'Beware of ascending the mountain or touching its edge...'" (Exodus 19:10-12) in preparation for the Giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai three days later. To this day, we mark the "Three Days of Hagbalah ('Boundaries')" leading to the Giving of the Torah on Sivan 6.

1312 BCE Korach Swallowed Up by the Earth

Korach, who led a rebellion against the leadership of Moses and Aaron, met his end when, miraculously, "the ground split beneath them... And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained to Korach, and all their possessions" (Numbers 16:31-32)

837 BCE Passing of King David

David, a descendent of Judah the son of Jacob as well as of Ruth, a Moabite convert to Judaism, was anointed King of Israel by Samuel in 878 BCE. All future legitimate kings of Israel were David's descendants, as would be the Messiah), who will "restore the kingdom of David to its glory of old."

797 BCE Jeroboam Barricades Jerusalem

After King Solomon's passing in 797 BCE, ten of the twelve tribes of Israel, led by Jeroboam son of Nebat of the tribe of Ephraim, rebelled against Solomon's son and heir, Rehoboam. The Holy Land split into two kingdoms: the "Kingdom of Israel" in the north, with Jeroboam as its king and the city of Samaria as its capital; and the southern "Kingdom of Judah" with its capital Jerusalem, where Rehoboam ruled over the two tribes (Judah and Benjamin) that remained loyal to the royal house of David.

357 BCE Haman's Decree Counteracted

Even after Haman was hanged on the 17th of Nissan of 357 BCE, his evil decree "to destroy, kill and annihilate all the Jews, from young to old, infants and women, in one day, the 13th day of the 12th month (Adar)" remained in force. Queen Esther pleaded with King Ahasuerus to annul the decree, but Ahasuerus insisted, that "a writ that has been written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's seal, cannot be returned." Instead, he suggested to Esther and Mordecai to "inscribe, regarding the Jews, as you please, and seal it with the king's seal." On the 23rd of Sivan, Mordecai drafted a royal decree giving the Jews the license to defend themselves and kill all who would rise up against them to kill them. He dispatched it to all 127 provinces of Ahasuerus empire. (Book of Esther, chapter 8)

1967 Israeli Defense Forces Captured Golan Heights

Until the Six-Day War (see "Today in Jewish History" for Iyar 26), the Syrian army was deployed in strong fortifications on the Golan Heights, from which they repeatedly shelled the Israeli settlements below. On the fifth day of the war, the Israeli Army broke through the Syrian front. Facing very difficult topographical conditions, they scaled the steep and rugged heights. The Engineering Corps cleared the way of mines, followed by bulldozers, which leveled a route for the tanks on the rocky face. After more than 24 hours of heavy fighting, the Syrian deployment collapsed, and the Syrian forces fled in retreat.

WHAT IS THE NAME OF OUR GOD?

According to Wikipedia "Jehovah is the Latinization of the Hebrew יהוה, one vocalization of the Tetragrammaton (יהוה YHWH), the proper name of the God of Israel in the Hebrew Bible. The consensus among scholars is that the historical vocalization of the Tetragrammaton at the time of the redaction of the Torah (6th century BCE) is most likely Yahweh. The historical vocalization was lost because in Second Temple Judaism, during the 3rd to 2nd centuries BCE, the pronunciation of the Tetragrammaton came to be avoided, being substituted with Adonai ("my Jehovah"). The Hebrew vowel points of Adonai were added to the Tetragrammaton by the Masoretes, and the resulting form was transliterated around the 12th century as Yehowah. The derived forms lehouah and Jehovah first appeared in the 16th century.

"Jehovah" was popularized in the English-speaking world by William Tyndale and other pioneer English Protestant translations such as the Geneva Bible and the King James Version. It is still used in some translations, such as the New World Translation and Young's Literal Translation, but it does not appear in most mainstream English translations, as the terms "Jehovah" or "Jehovah": used instead, generally indicating that the corresponding Hebrew is Yahweh or YHWH." (From Wikipedia) In the Bishop's Bible (1568), the word Jehovah occurs in Exodus 6:3 and Psalm 83:18.

The Authorized King James Version (1611) renders Jehovah in Exodus 6:3, Psalm 83:18, Isaiah 12:2, Isaiah 26:4, and three times in compound place names at Genesis 22:14, Exodus 17:15 and Judges 6:24. The Leningrad Codex is the oldest complete manuscript of the Hebrew Bible in Hebrew. It is dated 1008 CE.

You can download it at www.seforimonline.org/seforimdb/PDF/264.pdf This Hebrew manuscript contains 50 occurrences of the full spelling of the name Yehovah. The Aleppo Codex is an ancient, vocalized Hebrew manuscript. It is about 100 years older than the Leningrad Codex, but it is not complete. This document contains the name Yehovah. When you look at Ezekiel 28:22 in the Aleppo Codex it says: "Thus says Adonai Yehovah.."

I encourage you this month to read and study this document for yourself. There is a website that will help you. It is www.aleppocodex.org.

The King James Version uses "JEHOVAH" to translate the divine name in most instances. Jesus's Hebrew name "Yehoshua" (יהושע) (means "Yehovah saves" and is derived from יהוה. This Hebrew name became "Jesus" in Aramaic and "Ἰησοῦς" (Iesous) in Greek.

WHAT IS THE MEANING OF YEHOVAH (JEHOVAH)?

According to Easton's Bible Dictionary "Jehovah - the special and significant name (not merely an appellative title such as Jehovah [Adonai]) by which God revealed himself to the ancient Hebrews (Exodus 6:2 Exodus 6:3). This name, the Tetragrammaton of the Greeks, was held by the later Jews to be so sacred that it was never pronounced except by the high priest on the great Day of Atonement, when he entered into the most holy place.

Whenever this name occurred in the sacred books, they pronounced it, as they still do, "Adonai" (i.e., Jehovah), thus using another word in its stead. The Massorets gave to it the vowel-points appropriate to this word. This Jewish practice was founded on a false interpretation of Leviticus 24:16. The meaning of the word appears from Exodus 3:14 to be "the unchanging, eternal, self-existent God," the "I am that I am," a covenant-keeping God. (Compare Malachi 3:6; Hosea 12:5; Revelation 1:4 Revelation 1:8.)

The Hebrew name "Jehovah" is generally translated in the Authorized Version (and the Revised Version has not departed from this rule) by the word JEHOVAH printed in small capitals, to distinguish it from the rendering of the Hebrew Adonai and the Greek Kurios, which are also rendered Jehovah, but printed in the usual type. The Hebrew word is translated "Jehovah" only in Exodus 6:3; Psalms 83:18; Isaiah 12:2 ; 26:4 ..." Let us look at some examples: 1 Kings 18:24 says: Then you call on the name of your Elohim, and I will call on the name Yehovah, and the Elohim who answers by fire, He is Elohim. Isaiah 60:19 says: No longer will you have the sun for light by day, nor for brightness will the moon give you light, but you will have Yehovah for an everlasting light, and your Elohim for your glory.

The ancient Israelites used the name as a blessing in daily life. Ruth 2:4 gives us an example. It says: Now behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem and said to the reapers "May Yehovah be with you." And they answered him, "May Yehovah bless you."

WHY ARE WE LOOKING AT THE BIBLICAL CALENDAR?

Our current Gregorian calendar is a solar calendar (it is based only on the length of a year as determined by the sun). The starting day of the year and the length of months are not based on any physical or Biblical principles but merely a happenstance of history.

The moon is given to mark Feasts—which are usually explained as a certain day of a certain month in the Bible: He appointed the moon for seasons [Hebrew moed means "festivals"]; the sun knows it's going down (Psalm 104:19, NKJV).

Blow the trumpet at the time of the New Moon, at the full moon, on our solemn feast day (Psalm 81:3, NKJV).

Genesis 1:14-16 also states that the sun and moon are the two great lights to indicate "festivals, days and years". The sun marks the days and years, but Festivals are in certain days of certain months—marked by the moon. The first day of a month ("new moon") was observed with a special meal in the Old Testament (1Sam 20:5, 2 Kings 4:23, Amos 8:5). That practice continued in the New Testament Col 2:16.

The practice will continue during the new heavens and new earth (Isa 66:23, Ezekiel 46:1,6). New moons were not the same as the annual Feast days in Leviticus 23—there is no specific command and explanation of how to keep them. But many verses say they were observed.

Most references to dates in the Bible are like those of Genesis 7:11: "In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month..." The day and the month are numbered, but the year is given as a year of the persons' life, the year of a king's life, or the year from some big event.

Although months are generally referred to by number, there are two systems of naming them in the Bible. The first system uses Hebrew names, the second uses largely Babylonian names acquired when the Jews were in captivity in Babylon. The four Hebrew names are:

- Abib the first month (Ex 13:4, 23:15, 34:18, Deut. 16:1)
 - Zif the second month (1Kngs 6:1,37)
 - Ethanium the seventh month (1 Kings 8:2)
 - Bul the eighth month (1Kngs 6:38)

The original Hebrew names for the other months are apparently unknown. (From Biblical Calendar Basics, Third edition - April 2002).

As we seek to understand the times, we will look at events that took place in each month as determined by the Biblical Calendar.

WHY DO WE INCLUDE A SECTION ON PRAYING THROUGH THE HEAVENS IN OUR GUIDE?

Believers are a royal priesthood unto Jehovah (1 Pet 2:9), we have also been made kings and priests unto our Jehovah (Rev 1:6; 5:10). The priest's lips should keep knowledge and the law should be sought at his mouth (Mal 2:7). Jehovah interprets our ignorance of various aspects of the kingdom as a rejection of knowledge with grievous consequences (Hos 4:6). Knowledge of the heavens and how to deal with them in every season is a very important aspect of the Kingdom of heaven.

In Primeval Astronomy, "The Gospel in the Stars," Joseph Augustus Seiss explains the purpose of the stars and their constellations in their original context. In a lecture entitled, "The Starry Worlds," first published in 1882, he attests: "Such wonderful creations of almighty power and wisdom were not without a purpose." Seiss explains that stars and groups of stars, constellations, were created to fill the galaxy – in a particular order for a very specific purpose. God created the stars (Gen. 1:16) and positioned them in their exact places in the universe (Ps. 8:3). Stars were, "for signs and for seasons, and for days and for years, in the expanse of the heavens to give light upon the earth." (Gen. 1:14, 15).

Stars were so important that God named them. "He determines the number of the stars and calls them each by name." (Ps. 147:4). The stars are a continual reminder that the Seed of the woman will ultimately triumph over the Serpent (Gen. 3:15). God's revelation is constantly told in the stars (Ps. 19) — which is a message of salvation — available to every generation who professes faith. (Romans 9-11, Joel, Isa.) The entire ancient world received the gospel prior to Christ ever being born— through the stars.

TEACHING – THE SPHERE OF BELIEF SYSTEM – DECLARATIONS IN THE COURT OF HEAVEN TO REDEEM THE LAND

FATHER, Your word declares that we can come boldly before your throne of grace, where we can find mercy and grace to help in our time of need. Thank you, Lord, that today we have come humbly before Your throne in reverent honor to make petitions and requests concerning matters where we need Your DIVINE intervention.

FATHER, we repent of our sins and the sins of my ancestors. We repent for all disobedience that has blocked Your blessings in our lives and our families. Father, we ask that You sever, over-rule, and veto every legal right, legislation, verdict, embargo, and ordinance of the enemy that hinders and prevents us and our families from walking in the fullness of our God ordained destinies. We thank Father for forgiving us of our sins. We thank You Father for redeeming us and our families from every legal curse.

Father, we ask that You would, grant unto us and our families a full PARDON from the penalty, reproach, and consequences of sins based upon Yeshua's sacrifice on Calvary. Father, we stand on (Romans 8:28-35) and ask You LORD to cleanse us and our families from all unrighteousness.

Lord, we praise Your name, for we are free from every form of collective captivity in our family line. Please remove those things from our lives that would hinder our fruitfulness. Uproot those things in our lives that are not like you. Help us to discover and recover the hidden treasures that You intended for us. Father, walk us back to the foundations of our lives and heal, deliver, and redeem us. Please restore us and our families to Your original design and purpose as if the enemy never interfered with us.. (Galatians 3:13)

Father, as we stand before You, we honor You as the Great Judge of all the earth. We thank You for the Blood of Yeshua that is speaking for us and our families and according to (Hebrews 12:24). If there are those who can accuse us of anything, Lord we ask that You not hearken to the voice of our accusers but wash us with Fuller's Soap and make us what You want us to be (Malachi 3:2). We thank You that the Blood of Yeshua silences every accusation against us.

Father, according to (Colossians 2:14) all the written ordinances that would speak against us are now silenced by the Blood of Yeshua. Thank You that all cases against us and our families in the spirit realm are removed by virtue of Yeshua's sacrifice on Calvary.

Father, as we stand before Your Courts, we ask for Your MERCY concerning the petitions that we are bringing before You today. Your word in Isaiah 43:26 declares:

"Put Me in remembrance; Let us contend together; State your case, that you may be acquitted."

Lord, we place You in remembrance of what You wrote concerning us and our families in our books of destiny (Psalms 139:16). Father, we thank You that You created us and our families for a divine purpose, which You have recorded in your books. We bring the purposes for which we and our families have been created before You now. We ask You Lord to remove hindrances and bring into fulfillment the destinies that You have ordained for us and our families. We repent for any place where we have walked contrary to Your will for our lives.

Father, today, we come humbly before Your throne requesting Your divine intervention in the matters of the redeeming of our home, (or office) and our land. Satan and his demons have taken possession of our home and our land this is being manifested by objects moving on their own, sickness of the inhabitants, the appliances are always breaking, and we are unable to sleep or concentrate in the house. Today, we ask You Lord to take up our case regarding the above-mentioned matters. Would you please Lord grant Your favor towards us in these matters. Now, Lord, let the angelic hosts who execute Your righteous judgments go forth bringing restoration, healing, and redemption concerning these matters. Father, please release Your warring angels to destroy the enemy's assignments against our lives and our families, and to restore our kingly destinies. Father, please release Your ministering angels to execute Your favor and righteous judgement concerning us, our families and our nations. Please release Your ministering angels to secure our breakthroughs, our destinies, and our inheritances from this time forward and forever more.

In the Name of Messiah Yeshua, we possess ALL our GATES with VICTORY. We proclaim that we have a legal right to receive everything YOU have for us namely:

- Life, Health, Beauty, Mental Sharpness
- Skills, Talents, Spiritual Gifts, Wisdom
- Family, Wealth, Fame, Ministry, Favor
- Open Doors, Joy, Peace, A Future
- Might, Honor, Abundance, Destiny, and Sonship

In Yeshua's mighty name – AMEN!

We take authority over all the demons that have been operating through every legal right that they have been given through defilement, through sin, iniquity and transgression and we bind those demons.

We declare to them that they have been stripped of their power, stripped of their legal right. they no longer have access to the property, to us, our family or our belongings, in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. we forbid them to come back. we break down any altars that they have set up in the spirit realm.

We break the yokes off of every person that has been affected by the defilement of the land. We break the yokes off of the property.

We curse all the stem, the fruit and the root of the works of defilement in that land. We command the influence of it to wither and die and no longer influence our family, the land, or anyone that comes into the property. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth by the power of the holy spirit. By the authority that we have in God, in Jesus Christ. we declare that it is broken and will not produce anymore fruit in Jesus mighty name.

We release the blessing of god unto the property, into the home, into the business. We ask you oh god to let your glory flood this home, flood this place.

NOW YOU WILL GO OUTSIDE TO DO A PROPHETIC ACT

Take A copy of Psalm 91

- The Communion Elements for everyone in the house and an extra one for the land
- The Anointing Oil
- A shofar if you have one.

You are going to take communion with the land and bring the land back into covenant with God.

You are going to pray Psalm 91 over the property, proclaim it, release it over the property and into the building.

Take a shovel and dig a hole in the ground big enough for you to fold up the paper with Psalm 91 and put it in the hole.

Now you are going to take communion with the family and with the land. You are going to put the elements into the hole where the paper with the Psalm 91 is.

Take the anointing oil as the priest of the home and anoint everyone's head with oil. Have someone anoint you. Then pour some of the oil into the hole in the ground on top of the elements.

Now cover up the hole and make the declaration "THIS LAND HAS BEEN REDEEMED TO JEHOVAH". "THIS LAND IS BACK IN COVENANT WITH JEHOVAH". "THIS LAND IS BLESSED AND IT CANNOT BE CURSED".

Now rejoice and sound the shofar if you have one. Let out a shout of victory.

Put oil on everyone's hands they can walk up to the house and lay their hands on the house and declare "THE HOUSE IS BLESSED". "THE HOUSE IS SATURATED WITH THE PRESENCE OF GOD".

Ask God to send the angels to be a hedge of protection around the property.

EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK ENTER YOUR JUBILEE BY DR. ABU BAKO

CHAPTER 5

RELEASE

He has sent MeTo proclaim liberty to the captives..... To set at liberty those who are oppressed; To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD.'" (Lu 4:17-19 NKJV)

And the opening of the prison to those who are bound; (Isa 61)

Hallow the fiftieth year and proclaim liberation in the land for all its inhabitants (Lev 25:10)

Jubilee is a period when slaves are unconditionally released in Israel and allowed to return to their families. Humiliating slavery is contrary to the will of God, hence, the command to release the slaves in the Lord's jubilee. This is one of the cardinal purposes of the coming of Jesus in the book of Luke. What is holding you captive so you are not set free? Is it fear? Is it abject poverty? Is it a cultural mindset? Is it external influences from your past? Is it internal bondages? He came to set the captives free and set at liberty those who were oppressed.

Jubilee also means a release from the habits and lifestyle that held us in bondage over the years. It is not only individual release, but corporate release at every level.

What has imprisoned you as a married couple? What has imprisoned the marriage institution in your community? What has bound your governmental institutions? What is holding your educational institutions captive? What has bound your tribe or village or nation?

What is holding your land captive so that it does not yield its best for you? In the jubilee season there is a special grace for release from debilitating bondages.

A concrete illustration of the gospel meaning of the jubilee Sabbath is found in the deliverance of Israel from Egypt. The same creative power which wrought in the beginning was exercised in the signs and miracles which preceded their deliverance.

It was further wrought in those miracles, such as the opening of the Red Sea, the giving of the manna, and the water from the rock, which attended the journeying of the Israelites.

As a result of these manifestations of creative power on their behalf, the children of Israel were instructed to remember in their observance of the Sabbath that they were bondsmen in the land of Egypt. Israel's deliverance from Egypt is the type of every man's deliverance from sin. The instruction to Israel concerning the Sabbath shows its true significance in the gospel of salvation from the bondage of sin and the new creation in the image of God.

In Deut 5:15 a different reason is given for observing the Sabbath. 'You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and Jehovah your God brought you out with a mighty hand...; therefore, Jehovah your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.' Thus every Sabbath, Israel is to remember that God is The Emancipator, and Liberator.

The early kingdom citizens were on target, it seems, when they connected the day of rest with the remembrance of Christ's resurrection. He is the One Who gives freedom. Actually there is no real conflict between Deuteronomy and Exodus at this point. Whereas Deuteronomy has in view the people of the Covenant, the Exodus verses place the emphasis on the God of the covenant. The jubilee has in view the Lord as Possessor of the earth (Ps 24:1).

The shofar is the only trumpet specifically that the Bible says God Himself blows. When the shofar was blown it signified release of the people and release of the land to its rightful owners.

RELEASE FROM AGE-OLD FEUDS

During the observance of the jubilee, institutions are presented with the opportunity to receive release from any and every bondage that attends the people. They are released into their rest. They are presented with the opportunity for release from old feuds that make them captives.

These institutions include families and clans, tribes, neighboring communities, villages, towns, even cities within a nation.

There are certain traditional institutions that should do away with traditional covenants with ancient spirits. There are ancient hostilities that can be resolved in the jubilee season. Some of these feuds have lasted for 50 years or more. That is the nation's jubilee year, or the 50th year since those hostilities cropped up.

I know that African families and tribes have hostilities at various levels. Many of these hostilities have come to play themselves out violently in the political arena. In a number of nations, you will find people of certain tribes will never vote for someone from a particular tribe, no matter how suitable he may be because of ancient feuds.

The reasons for some of these feuds are shrouded in history and even take on some legendary themes. Some of these tales were created to explain away the differences between the tribes. There is hardly any proof for some of these tales. One thing that is for sure, is that these ancient feuds have brought untold bitterness, envy, jealousy, anger, murder, treachery and every other negative work of the flesh among people within the same national boundaries.

Sometimes the hatred that is brewed amongst people is so palpable you could almost touch, taste or smell it. When the gentlest person talks about people of another tribe in a negative light, you would be shocked at the negative transformation that takes place. Their countenance, voice, and entire being exudes such violence and the deep dislike is absolutely unmistakable. Granted, they may have suffered deeply at the hands of the perpetrators of the violence or atrocity. This includes Kingdom citizens. Churches and ministries have been developed along those feudal patterns.

This has carried over to people of African extraction in various other parts of the world. One thing for sure is that Africans treat each other worse than everyone else treats them because of some of these known and unknown ancient feuds and hostilities. I would give a number of illustrations using Nigeria as a type because it is a nation which has suffered very deeply in the face of ancient feuds. At the writing of this publication, she would be entering her Jubilee year.

Throughout this publication I will scheme very lightly and generally over the scenarios in Nigeria and a few other nations for the purpose of illustrating the significance of Jubilee principles. It is not a deeply scholarly approach but a spiritual and direction-giving one for the purpose of stirring intercession, and practical actions that bring healing and release. I am sure that as you read, having a better and more in-depth knowledge of the facts in your own situation or that of your people group or nation, you will be spurred on to a deeper level of intercession, healing, and forgiveness.

There are scholars who have done in-depth studies on the various facets surrounding Nigerian socio-political and economic status resulting from ancient feuds. The following has to do with the need for the church to really intercede and press into the jubilee principle of release for that nation.

As you read, and see similar patterns in your own nation, or among communities, clans or institutions, ask the Holy Spirit to bring deeper levels of revelation and understanding. Ask Him to guide you on how you will pray, intercede and carry out actions that bring about the fullness of the Jubilee principles as you read along.

NIGERIA ILLUSTRATION

In 1952 there arose serious challenges between the Ibos and people of Cross Rivers, Ogoja and Rivers in Nigeria. These feuds have remained and even become more deep rooted over the years to date. Some of the best Christians I know, who travail in prayer for the nation of Nigeria come from these areas and other neighboring communities. However they harbor this unconscious, age-old, deep-seated dislike for Ibo people.

One may pray for and even have good friends among the Ibos. However, when something untoward happens, you will hear it in their speech, and veiled contempt for their fellow country-men. They will make sweeping comments about “those Ibos,” and vice-versa.

Basically, the gist of the challenge between these people groups with Ibos is that, they felt betrayed by the Ibo. So they withdrew their support from the Ibo man i.e. Dr. Nnamdi Azikiwe who wanted to become the premier of Western Nigeria then.

He had to leave and go to the East rather and became premier there. Mr. Obafemi Awolowo who was a Yoruba man became premier for the West. Up until this day the Ibo man and these people groups do not see eye to eye.

You will hear Nigerians from these southern states say, “South, south,” referring to the people from Southern Nigeria in general. Now they have made a further distinction within the “South, south” to have “South East” – referring to the Ibo.

These people will rather link up with a person from the North or West than vote for an Ibo man. The Ibos would rather link to someone from the North than vote for a South Southerner.

These debilitating age-old feuds have to be resolved if the nation has to enter into, and enjoy its jubilee release. Otherwise, we will have intercession and prophetic actions and all manner of prayer that yield no fruit on the ground. So far, Nigerians may try to convince themselves that there is a move of God on a national scope but it is not at the level which God originally intended. That is why there is a need for a forum that will bring national repentance.

Just as the day of atonement preceded the blowing of the Jubilee horn, so there is a need for a solemn assembly which includes representative stakeholders from every age group, every pillar of society, every Christian denomination and every people group coming together to address these age old feuds that hinder the nation entering into the fullness of redemptive purpose.

For example, I know one strong equipping of the Ibo is the apostolic nature. They are a people who are equipped to venture un-reached places, become pathfinders in every area of endeavor whether business, ministry, innovation and technology, leadership, media etc. I will illustrate this in Chapter 20.

They are called to establish strong foundations, upon which other people groups may build. It is well known that Ibos are gifted in making wealth. They have the ability to call forth and even bring other people around them into their own callings and equipping.

Now I do not mean that other groups do not have this quality. It is just dominant with the Ibo people. The perversion of this gift when un-redeemed is what has so far manifested throughout the world. What happens is that these same people have laid strong foundations in the area of desire to accumulate and control resources in an ungodly manner.

Because the Ibo man has felt discriminated against over the years, this led to cessation which led to the Nigerian civil war between 1967 and 1970. The fall-out from this has not been properly addressed in repentance and restitution. The personalities who were leaders at that time on both sides have not yet been brought before the Lord for reconciliation. The jubilee affords an opportunity for such age old feuds to be addressed in the place of prayer and practical actions.

If the Ibos come into any area of leadership, everyone else must be under them or they will be squashed to smithereens (Jud 9:14-15). So the people will resist them as leaders for fear of this happening. In this season of jubilee, the perversion of good God-given abilities and skills should be dealt with. A season of release and a fresh start should be proclaimed over the nation as the jubilee horn is blown.

HAUSA/FULANI

On the other hand, Nigeria has the Hausa/Fulani people. They stretch across the northern belt from the Sokoto area to the Upper East of Nigeria. The redemptive nature of this people group is pastoral/shepherd manifested in their predominantly pastoralist nature. There is a double edged effect to their pastoral nature.

On the one hand, a Hausa/Fulani person in the position of power will try to ensure that his own people group does not suffer. He will ensure the comfort of his people. If this mindset is given for the whole nation, then the nation will enjoy a leadership that cares and looks out for its welfare.

On the other hand, when this mindset is channeled to only the leader's tribes-men, his fellow clansmen or those who subscribe to his religious and political affiliation, it means that he will ensure the comfort and convenience of those people even to the extreme detriment, disadvantage and at the expense of other people groups within the nation.

It breeds a terrible imbalance in the national system. It breeds terrible treatment of others, and thus deep woundedness, injustice, virtual enslavement of others to the advantage of the few. It breeds a feeling that some people are more equal than others. In return those from whom these feelings arise will do anything to revolt and shake off the yoke placed on them.

Unfortunately again, especially among those of Hausa/Fulani mix, the corruption of the character of a shepherd, to lead and not follow, is manifested strongly. They do not easily submit to leadership by other people groups. They will resist it at any cost. They prefer to lead others, let others do the work while they sit back and enjoy the position of “feudal lord”. This is even reflected in the church. That is the perversion of a redemptive calling. There is a need for release from such an inhibiting mindset during the jubilee season.

The above are very general examples of some of the responsibilities that the church of Christ ought to take up during the jubilee season. While dealing with age old feuds, there is a need to recognize and re-direct redemptive callings and gifts amongst people groups. In the negative things that raised these feuds, there is good that needs to be salvaged. Apart from these there are positive aspects in every people group that the church needs to access for the good of the nation. The implications and applications for these are varied and can stretch to international levels.

When the jubilee shofar is blown, there is a releasing that takes place in the spirit. If you do not recognize the challenges that have plagued you as a people group, as a tribe or nation, you will lose the opportunity to release your people from these age old feuds.

God will begin to activate things that will bring about a shifting of status, a releasing of people. The church ought to pray into the jubilee season in order to be sensitive when God begins to make a move. There is a need to ask God to give His kingdom citizens eyes to see, ears to hear, minds that comprehend and hearts that perceive when He has begun to shake old feudal foundations in the jubilee. He has done it before and He will do it again. Israel is an example that I use further in the book to illustrate the jubilee principles.

The church ought to ask God to open the eyes of our understanding with regard to various aspects of our nationhood. He knows why He allowed us to be in the same boundaries. If we understood the redemptive gifting in each of our tribes, communities, families, and various similar institutions (like Church denominations), then we would celebrate our differences, strengthen the positives and learn from one another rather than despise each other for our peculiarities.

If we understood the redemptive gifting and calling of our nations, and what God is doing in the bigger picture, beyond our little ministry, tribe, institution, state or city, we would see how best to align ourselves to His purposes. We would see how best to use the strengths of the people around us for that season, and we would more easily “live and let live.”

Again, there is a need to deal with issues of presidential, state government, village and family leadership over the nation. For instance, in our nations of Africa, I see this same scenario, where certain people groups carry on as though they are the only ones who can be president of the nation. Others believe it is their right to head certain institutions. Certain clans believe they are the only ones who can be leaders in the community. It goes on to the most basic level in the family institution. If the church will arise and really ask the Lord to bring fresh understanding of the jubilee according to the grace He has given to each denomination and ministry in its peculiarity, when brought together, this knowledge will bring such liberty to the people of the land.

GHANA ILLUSTRATION

On the other hand some tribes have a redemptive gift of being worshippers, for instance the Ewe (pronounced “Ay-way”) people of Volta region in Eastern Ghana. The redeemed Ewe person is a servant at heart. One meaning of worshipping is the ability to submit and serve another with all your strength.

Ewes are subservient and diligent in serving others. They make faithful civil servants and employees. They make excellent help meets in the team. They can stand alongside others and hold their hands very effectively. They can lead teams very effectively too because of the nature of serving others. They are not autocratic but democratic in their nature. They allow all to feel included.

However, the unredeemed, perverted nature of the Ewe makes them feel used and abused. They can be very unfaithful as servants. They will not want to submit to anyone in particular.

The corrupted worshipping nature is manifested in deep witchcraft, idolatry and occult practices among this people group. The corrupted form of serving others is manifested where many have no qualms selling their own family members as slaves.

These same attributes can be traced across the continent in various tribes with a similar calling.

When it comes to the presidency for instance, if you understand the redemptive calling that God has for your nation, you will take your time to find out what He is doing in the big picture at a particular time because of what He wants to accomplish in the nation.

With this type of mindset, you will be able to see and understand when various events take place. For example, God knew that He would allow oil in commercial quantities to be verified in Ghana in 2007. God also knew that one of the jubilee releases upon the nation would be in the area of investment. With such an oil discovery, more people would come into the nation for investment.

Ghana had not been considered as an investment haven. Granted some investors had come over the years, however, God wanted to raise it to another level. At the writing of this book, Ghana and Botswana were the two nations voted as best investment havens in Africa. This was not by man’s machinations. God has a redemptive purpose for the nation in the jubilee season. He has been working things out on a larger scope.

A LEADER FOR THE SEASON

To prepare for the above therefore, God had gone ahead and picked a national leader, former President John Kufuor, who would focus his energies on developing infrastructure especially in the area of roads and buildings and a conducive investor economic climate. A lot of building happened between 2000 and 2008.

The former president kept testifying over and over again at various gatherings and interviews that he was amazed at how things would simply work toward the development of various infrastructures, even when it seemed impossible. There were debt waivers from sources that would in the past not waive debts or even give aid to the nation. He repeatedly and humbly acknowledged that what happened during his tenure was not so much his own leadership, but the work of God in the nation of Ghana.

Some people may have complained that the leader was not interested in the “local man.” Some complained that he was an elitist leader. He had focused on doing things that enriched the rich like those infrastructural developments.

Unfortunately, a larger portion of the church always seems to fall into the same categories of complaint or support depending on which side of the political divide they fall on. Very few if any at all saw the redemptive purpose for that leader. So prayer was not specific and directed to the areas of his strength in the light of God’s bigger picture, at that particular time. The church ought to understand, pray for the leaders to enter fully into their redemptive calling for the season they are ruling, and finish well.

When we do not do that, the leaders may move a certain distance, and there will be a lot of corruption and perversion in what they are meant to be accomplishing. This way, we will not feel left out because the leader is not focusing on our preferred area of development. We will seek to strengthen the areas that are important. We will reduce our animosity against those of a differing opinion.

If leaders had this understanding, they would not make false campaign promises. They would know the area to focus on and put their entire energies to it. This is the subject of a whole other publication, but it is enough to know that as you have entered the jubilee season, you ought to release yourself, your people group, the nation and leaders into the full manifestation of their redemptive calling.

At the writing of this book, I cannot fail to mention the significance of raising a leader of African descent as the US president in this season; Barak Obama. There are very prophetic significances to his miraculous and rapid rise into position in the season. We are in the season where God is raising Africa to her position of prominence as I shall point out further in this book. One of the prophetic words God spoke to various people is this “When you see a black man ascend to presidency in the USA understand that there is a changing in the season of the black race.”

Everything that God allowed to happen to that one gentleman, all his experiences, the message he has for the people “Yes We Can”, especially directed to those of African extraction throughout the world, has everything to do with the jubilee season for the black man. It would be an added blessing to the church when we recognize what God is doing in the bigger picture.

In the days of Isaiah and Jeremiah, God prophesied that He would raise Nebuchadnezzar as His servant to do His bidding against the children of Israel. He also spoke of the future Persian King Cyrus as His shepherd, who would rebuild Jerusalem and its temple. This was an ungodly king yet God spoke 220 years before the fact that He would raise this man.

200 years before Josiah was born, a man of God came to prophesy to the altar concerning (1Kin 13)

EACH SEASON HAS ITS OWN LEADERSHIP FOCUS

In Nigeria for instance, if the Hausa man understood his redemptive nature as a pastoral leader, he would nurture the people and groom them into the position that God has for them. However the perversion is at play where he wants to stick to leadership, will not let go and allow others to lead according to their areas of strength. Think about this: what would happen in a church if you were to put a pastor in charge of guiding people in wealth production and management?

He is not an economist or a business man, and his focus will be in a different direction. He may teach you how to ensure your spiritual health prospers even as you work and produce physical wealth. His way of doing business will not be effective. What would happen if you decided to put a surgeon in charge of the kitchen?

Different eras bring to prominence or highlight the different parts of the nation that need development and progress. If you look at the USA for instance, each regime has the area of national and international development, stability and importance which it will focus on. One regime focused on international safety and curbing of terrorism, another on health care systems, another on national security.

The same God who saw terrorism coming up as a threat in the millennium, raised a president whose focus was on building a strong security and armament system in the US some 20 years prior to that. When need arose, the required security systems became activated in a short period. The same God who saw new health and disease challenges arise in future days raised a leader who would make health care his focus.

Therefore God ensures that the leader in place will develop the nation in that particular area. Sometimes it may be through adversity, and sometimes it may be through peace. These depend very much on whom the nation serves as God.

The president in power may do little in other areas because God has a plan in the bigger picture. When it's time for his era to move on, God raises another who may have strength in another area. When we misunderstand this, we have leaders insisting they must stay on for a longer term, they fight the person coming in and the nation gets derailed.

When kingdom citizens pray aright, and seek for a leader who will fulfill God's redemptive role for the nation in the season, there will be very little feuding and divisions. The party spirit will not be overplayed as people pray for the leader coming in. It will be easier to pinpoint areas where the leader may be deviating from his purpose in office. It will be easier to know how and what to pray about with regard to the government (ref. Kingdom Patterns for Government, Governance & Politics © 2008 Abu Bako)

During the jubilee season however, all things must be brought to balance. Everyone must be released into their rightful position. We are given the opportunity to start all over again.

THE ROLE OF CHURCH

If the church had this understanding, then they would be able to pray and direct the affairs of the nation more effectively. The church would know the season, and what the nation ought to do. They would begin to see the negative, perverted manifestation of God's original ordination at play and bring it to the Lord to deal with.

Today, tribal characteristics have seeped into the church. Church leaderships are molded by these tribal leadership perversions. The divisions in the church are played out in the entire nation. If those who are called by the name of the Lord will humble themselves and pray and seek the Lord concerning His redemptive calling, what He is doing now and what the bigger picture for the nation is then the promised season of jubilee would be fully manifest in the nations.

Generally, for synergy the church ought to begin understanding what each people group ought to contribute to nation building. It is not by accident that people groups were bound together into a nation. Each will have something beautiful to contribute toward God's redemptive calling upon the nation. As the jubilee shofar is blown over your nation, pray for the release from any area of bondage with regard to the divisions you harbored in your heart about those of differing tribes, political opinions, religious bias or color bias. God knows why He allowed you to be together. For too long you have been held captive by unnecessary chains that you probably don't fully understand. Jubilee is a season of release at every level.

The jubilee man must have these characteristics in him. Christ our Jubilee is the example. He came to release captives from prison houses. If you want to enter jubilee let this be a character that you develop. Seek to release people from bondage. For instance, if you have a maid what will you do to her? Introduce her to Christ Jesus by your lifestyle, not so much by preaching at her. Your kindness, consideration, generosity and love will draw her to the Christ who has transformed you. She will find release in salvation.

As a jubilee person seek to release others from the bondage of illiteracy, or seek to raise them to a place where they are no longer dependent on that job only. Raise their status in life by giving them a better opportunity for education and development in the area of their equipping so they can become better in service. They never have to remain in that low position.

Do the same with your employees. How do you empower them so they can move up the ladder at work? Are you happy to have people who are less educated and experienced so that you are always on top? Do you fear to release people to their maximum potential lest you put in resources and they "abscond" or get "head-hunted" by other people or organizations? Even God has given you plenty of equipping which you have diverted elsewhere. You do not necessarily serve Him wholly with all the life and everything He has given to you. He does not deny you because you might use your talent and equipping elsewhere. He is never at a loss. Others will come when you go. All this is part of releasing people.

Do you treat them like the scum of the earth and then claim you have done your best for them? Release your family and friends from ignorance, pray for the release of your nation from indebtedness to the west... that is the jubilee attitude. You have entered the jubilee of a lifetime, it means you need to operate in freedom at every level.

PRAYER

If you have a shofar, blow it prophetically. Declare a breaking of shackles of everyone and every land that is in bondage. Declare a releasing of those who are imprisoned by various circumstances. Moses' clarion call to Pharaoh and the Egyptians was "Let My People Go!" Make this your declaration over every captive institution and situation.

Release those who have been branded in a certain light because of age old feuds and misunderstandings. Release your nation from the captive image that they may have received in other nations e.g. Nigerians unfortunately receive harsh treatment when they travel to other nations. This is because of the negative image and actions that some Nigerians have taken outside the nation.

As the jubilee shofar is blown over your nation, ask God to remove the stigma against the Nigerian passport. Declare that you will be accepted and favored as long as you are doing the right thing. The exclusion by nations will no longer sweep over all Nigerians. It will only target those who represent the nation in a wrong way.

Read out loud Psalm 112-114. Praise the Lord who has released people and the nation from captivity at every level.

As the spirit leads you pray specifically for those areas of bondage in your own circumstance.

Understand that in the jubilee season, anything that was held captive that is supposed to have been yours should be released. You proclaim liberty. That means any area of bondage, slavery including habits... besetting sins, all of the various things that have become weights around you, anything oppressive around you this is the time you are being released.

Praise and worship ministration to the Lord will be instrumental in your season of release. Develop and build your strength in this area. Develop your personal time of intimacy with God. When praise and worship arise to the Most High God there is a lifting of the cage, a breaking of any inhibiting walls of bondage, a scattering and breaking down of the enemy's sieges.

Jericho's walls came crumbling down when the Jubilee shofar was blown. The ram's horn was blown on the 7th day and the 7th round about the wall... this shofar signifies release and breakthrough. It was followed by wild uninhibited praise to God. This is Tehillah praise – the praise in spiritual warfare... as men lift God's name up, His enemies are scattered (Ps 68:1)

Declare that this is the day of release from every age-old feud, any area of bondage and indebtedness.

WHAT SHOULD WE BE DOING AS KINGDOM CITIZENS IN THE NATIONS?

Jesus instructed us in Matthew 28:19-20 (Hebrew Gospel of Matthew) to: "Go and teach them to carry out all things which I have commanded you forever."

This is what Paul did in Ephesus and in three years there was national transformation. Paul proclaimed the whole will of God Acts 20:27. As we pray for transformation in our nations what are we supposed to teach them? He said, "to carry out all things that He had commanded". We must teach them what the Bible says about family, government, politics...about all the spheres of society. We are called to be a transforming influence in society. The Bible provides us with a frame of reference for life.

The Jubilee Centre has over the past 30 years researched extensively around promoting good and right relationships at personal, organizational, and public policy levels, as a practical expression of the biblical vision of society. Visit them on the web at www.jubilee-centre.org for resources to help you to teach them. If we don't teach them, how will they know what to do?

“Jesus is LORD” is one of the most radical realities of Christianity. It means that He is the Supreme Ruler over ALL.

Jesus was commissioned by God the Father to come to earth, destroy the works of the Devil, and restore that which was lost. Jesus OBEYED everything the Father told Him to do. When Jesus left the earth, He gave His followers the same commission He had received from the Father - Go reconcile the human family to the Father, destroy the works of the Devil, and restore that which was lost. Proclaiming Jesus as LORD means we are to OBEY what He commands us to do. You are not saved to go to heaven: You are saved to bring heaven to the earth. Matthew 6:10 -- "Thy kingdom come, they will be done, on earth as it is in heaven." (From <http://www.the-covenant-kingdom.com>)

This month as you pray through this guide ask Jehovah to show you what He would have you do to bring heaven to the earth.

IS THIS THE MONTH OF YOUR BIRTH?

Even if this is not your month of birth, pray into the day of your birth on a weekly basis (that is the weekday in which you were born). Take time at regular basis to be praying for yourself and prophesying over your own life. Speak into the foundations of your life and prophesy good things.

- Prophecy that you will live and not die prematurely in any area of your life. Your family will live, the work of your hand will live and grow from strength to strength Deut 33:6, Psa 27:13, 118:17.
- Prophecy and proclaim the blessing of Levi upon your life as a priest unto GOD 2 Pet 2:9, Deut 33:8-11.

- Prophecy that you will grow in your spirit man into a mature son so that you can receive your inheritance. Wherever you go in this new year, creation will experience release from frustration because you are growing not just in years but also in maturity of spirit to take responsibility of your Father's estate, that is the territory GOD has allowed you to inhabit. Rom 8:19-20, Gal 4:1-2
- Thank Him for your specific day of birth. Declare that day blessed.
- Thank Him that He ordained that you will be made manifest on earth on a specific day in that month at a specific hour and minute.
- Thank Him that He has a purpose for your life, and it will be fulfilled.
- Ask Jehovah to forgive you where you have for one reason or another, ignored or rejected to recognize your day of birth.
- Thank Jehovah for the day of your conception. (Psa 139:13)
- Thank Jehovah that when He thought of you, he already thought of your entire life. Thank Him that He did not leave anything to chance. (Isa 49:1)
- Thank Him that he knew exactly what your redemptive purpose was going to be. (Psa 139:16)

- Pray that He will reveal the original you more and more as you enter another year of your life. (Psa 139:13-15)
- Pray that He will restore the heavenly label, and the heavenly name He gave you before you were conceived. (Jer 1:5).

FESTIVALS DURING THIS MONTH

FATHER'S DAY

- This year Father's Day will be celebrated on 19 June 2022. This is a day to recognize men in their role as fathers. This month pray for as many men as you know specifically and men in your territory in their role as fathers.
- Prophetically claim Psalm 127-128 over every man you know who fathers a family.
- Pray into the womb of that day and prophetically decree and declare that every man whom you have encountered, will be realigned into his God-ordained role of fatherhood in whichever category the LORD will have him become a father to individuals, causes or inventions.
- Thank the LORD for men in your territory who are playing a father role at any level.
- Pray for men, more so those whom you know or are acquainted to and call forth the spirit of Godly fatherhood.
- Pray that each will experience a divine encounter with God the Father Himself in this month and the conviction of the Holy Spirit to step up into their role as priests within the home.
- Pray for the Spirit of the LORD in all its expressions to manifest in their lives more so those who are kingdom citizens. Pray for the spirit of the Fear of the LORD, the Spirit of wisdom, understanding, and knowledge
- Pray for men you know who are fathers but do not know the LORD. Pray that during this month as we remember fathers, our Father in heaven will especially draw with cords of love, His prodigal sons into the fold and encounter them Himself.
- The nations need fathers, but the examples of fatherhood have not reflected the Fatherhood of the LORD. Do you know any men who have fathered offspring and abandoned them or are absentee fathers? Bring repentance for each one of them by name. Ask the LORD that during this month, He will visit these men and raise those who will mentor them into their position of fatherhood, and priesthood and headship in the family.

- Pray for married men who desire to become fathers to their own offspring but do not yet have children. Pray that the LORD who gives children as gifts will visit them this season and in the next year they shall rejoice in their role as progenitors of their own offspring.
- Pray that as many as are called to father spiritual or adopted children will step into their calling and embrace it. Thank the LORD for fathers in this capacity.
- Many men are struggling in the area of being the primary provider for their households. Financial lack plagues men more and more in a world where they are suppressed more and more and their control is taken away from them more and more. Pray that the LORD will bless the work of the hands of male kingdom citizens who want to provide but struggle to get sufficient income. From time to time break the spirit of poverty that continues to grip men.
- Thank the LORD for those who have fathered God ordained inventions and creations in this season. Pray that the prophecy concerning the Fathering of innovative technologies from Africa shall become a great reality in this season.
- Thank the LORD for those who have a father's heart to disciple and mentor others as a calling.
- Pray for as many single, male kingdom citizens as you know that the LORD will begin to nurture in them the spirit of Godly fatherhood before they even get into marriage so that they will begin to form a solid foundation for their spouses and children.

THE MONTH OF SIVAN

This year the month of Sivan 5782 began at sundown on May 30, 2022 and ends at sundown on June 29, 2022.

EVENTS IN THE SEASON OF SIVAN – (From the book Triumphing at the Gates of the Stars in Their Seasons by Steve Ogan)

	Events in the Season of Sivan	Implications for Prayer and Practical Action
1	Declaration of Israel as a kingdom of Priests ruled by a Royal Priesthood. "...And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy	Pray that the heavens will declare the glory of God over Israel and that every citizen will catch a revelation that Israel is a kingdom of priests
2	Decree for the annihilation of the Jews in Media and Persia annulled.	Pray and work for the annulment of unrighteous decrees. "Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write grievousness which they have prescribed" (Isaiah 10:1)
3	Revival and restoration of the nation under King Asa. Enactment of a new covenant to abhor the worship of idols.	Pray for reaching movements of national revival and restoration of righteousness that will bring rest. "And the Lord gave them rest all around" (2 Chronicles 15:14).

OTHER CELEBRATIONS THIS MONTH

There are a number of un-Godly mythological celebrations that take place in this season. According to Roman mythology June was named after the Roman goddess Juno queen of the gods and goddess of matrimony and wealth. She is said to be the “queen of the gods,” or “queen of heaven.” As a result, the first day of each month of the year is dedicated to Juno.

As the patron goddess of Rome and the Roman Empire, she was called Regina (meaning “queen”). They were worshipped as a triad with her companion Jupiter and another deity Minerva on the Capitol (Juno Capitolina) in Rome. Also seen to be the protector and special counselor of the Roman state, you may have heard prayers “Ave Regina.” This deity is the one to whom they were directed.

Lucina was a Latin nick-name for Juno as “she who brings children into light.” This is the female derivative of “Lucifer” – the “light-bearing morning star” In Greek mythology she is called “Hera” the goddess responsible for women, marriage and married life.

Many people consider the months of May and June to be the most favorable time to have weddings. This is possibly because Juno is supposed to be the patroness of marriage along with Maia the deity to whom the month of May is dedicated.

PRAYING FOR NATIONS

ALL THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD

Currently over 222 countries and territories around the world have reported at total of more than 531,826,000 confirmed cases of the coronavirus COVID-19. The death toll is more than 6,311,000.

Ukraine and Russia

Russia launched a full-scale military invasion into Ukraine on February 24, 2022. According to the OHCHR 4,031 civilians have been killed including nearly 200 children.

Please use these prayer points as you pray for the nations listed above:

- Pray for the victims- that Jehovah would comfort them, pray that family members will be reunited.
- Pray for healing and mercy - God is our comfort and strength Psalm 46:1, Psalm 57:1-2
- Pray for wisdom and safety for those responding to the people in need. Pray for the safety of the rescue workers.
- Pray for the Body of Christ in the nations. Pray that the Body of Christ will be a witness to God's compassion and care for all who suffer. God is inviting us to be His watchmen in prayer and find Him as our refuge in hard times.

Unrest in Nations

While we celebrate positive prophetic words for the year, there is a sound of the trumpet call sending out a warning that all is not well in some parts of the world. We are in a global village. Whatever happens in one little corner, affects far-flung nations:

- Proclaim Isaiah 62 and kindly take time to pray for Nigeria, Yemen, Iraq, Libya, Ethiopia, Ukraine that indeed Jehovah Shalom will brood heavily as these territories as His watchers raise intercession and resist the works of the enemy until each becomes a praise on the earth.
- Genesis 4.10-12 Repent for the bloodshed that has defiled these nations and brought a vagabond curse upon the people making the land and people unfruitful, refugees, easy prey for destruction and death wherever they go (thus the drownings of those trying to escape war in Syria, hostility from host nations for refugees, accidents)
- Galatians 3.13-14 Jesus PAID IT ALL for every single territory and every single individual more than 2000 years ago before they were nations and before they even sinned or did anything good or bad. Appropriate the finished work of the Cross of Calvary over each territory and its people wherever they may be. Their deliverance was already sorted out. Proclaim this truth over the lies of the enemy.
- These people groups have the opportunity to enter into the blessing of redemption. Salvation is their blood-bought right. The enemy has deceived the Ecclesia into a position of weakness and hopelessness. Pray that the church will arise triumphant in this season and recognize her powerful and authoritative role to steer the nation into the path of redemptive purpose at the place of prayer.
- Prophetically pray Isaiah 4.2-6 and Psalm 23 for the women, children and youth who are most vulnerable victims in these nations; pray for families that have been torn apart as loved ones disappear, run away, die in the confusion.
- Proclaim Isaiah 2.2-4 and Psalm 46 over each territory and each warring faction and call upon Jehovah Sabaoth to arise and send angelic assistance to cause wars to cease.
- Prophetically pray Isaiah 60.17-20 over each government leader, and each fighting faction; that every man of violence must be stopped by the angel of Jehovah as His people arise to stand in the gap and pray over the territory.
- Declare Amos 5.23-24 over the nations that have called for a cease-fire that these ceasefires and peace treaties will be upheld, and nations may move forward.
- Pray for the Ecclesia to arise as a voice for righteousness and justice for this new leadership in the land.

- 21) Croatia 25 June (Statehood day)
- 22) Djibouti 27 June (Independence from France in 1977)

- Using Acts 17:26-28, pray into the womb of time for the above nations. Thank God that He is the One Who determined the boundaries of each nation at an exact time and season during a particular year for the purpose of redeeming each of these nations and causing men to seek Him and find Him.
- For each nation celebrating an Independence Day, pray that the LORD will follow this with the independence of His people from the kingdom of darkness into His glorious kingdom of light. Many will have a personal encounter with Him which will lead to their decision for salvation over eternal death. Pray that the people in each of these nations will choose life and that there shall be fellowships which will be on hand to receive and disciple them into strong disciples of the LORD. Matt 28:18-20.
- Thank the LORD that He is Governor over the above nations, and He rules justly (Psa. 22:28)
- Pray that a level of kingdom governance will begin to reflect in each of the above nations as they mark various milestones during this month.
- Prophetically proclaim Isaiah 61 to the Ecclesia in each of the above nations.
- Pray that the LORD will strengthen the weak hands and knees of the Ecclesia in each nation. One common feature in each of the above nations is that the Ecclesia is not very strong. There is a strong occult presence in each of these nations. Pray that the LORD will raise a prophetic Ecclesia to deal with all forms of occult in this season.
- Pray for nations that have turned heavily to Secular humanism because of the relative successes they have enjoyed in areas of economic development. Many of these nations have become centers of immorality and defiance of the LORD. Pray that the LORD will in this season do something that will cause the people in these nations to turn their hearts back to Him.

NATIONAL ELECTIONS

We encourage you to keep praying for a nation's election for at least 2-3 years before the fact. That way, you pray without the frenzy of campaigns and the attendant pressures. Also, Jehovah can begin to reveal the person whom He wants to raise in position of leadership.

Be like Mary who anointed Jesus for his death and burial way before the actual event. While everyone else was scrambling around to do their good deed after He had died, and missed the opportunity because He was risen, she could rest content that she had done her bit on time. Be like the five clever virgins who paid the price of preparation before-hand, so that when the bride-groom did appear, they entered into their rest while the foolish virgins scrambled around trying to do a hasty last-minute job.

Let us not be fire-fighters and crisis intercessors. Such an important matter as a nation or region, or constituency leadership should not be taken as lightly as it has been done in the past. Let this sacred new year commence a new beginning and new attitude toward matters of elections.

NATIONAL ELECTIONS – (MAY, JUNE, JULY)

June

- 1 June: Denmark, Referendum
- 5 June: Kazakhstan, Constitutional Referendum
- 11–24 June: Papua New Guinea, Parliament
- 12 June:
 - France, National Assembly
 - Italy, Referendum
- 19 June: Colombia, President \(2nd round\)
- 23 June: Grenada, House of Representatives

July

- 10 July: Republic of Congo, Parliament
- 17 July: South Ossetia, Russian Annexation Referendum
- 25 July:
 - Japan, House of Councillors
 - Tunisia, Constitutional Referendum
- 31 July: Senegal, Parliament

August

- 9 August: Kenya, President, National Assembly and Senate

- Thank GOD for the above nations that have different types of election activities over the next three months.
- Pray that GOD's Shalom shall brood over each territory as they participate in elections.
- Pray that the elections will be free and fair and that the individuals whom GOD has marked for leadership will emerge as winners as the Ecclesia partners with GOD in making the proper selection
- Pray that the Ecclesia will no longer be used as a pawn in campaign activities in these nations. Rather the Ecclesia will have a strong voice in representing the kingdom of GOD in the national matters.
- Pray against the party spirit that breeds division in the Ecclesia whenever election seasons come.

PRAYING THRU THE HEAVENS

- For any army to win a war, they will ensure their air-force is in place. Whether it is simple Calvary in ancient times, or soldiers positioned on the city walls, or on high hills or elevated places, these have the best view of the battle. For you to overcome the enemy in this spring season, ensure that the heavens are in agreement with you. Speak to the heavens over the month and ask them to declare the glory of Jehovah. Command the sun, moon, stars and every heavenly being to do Jehovah's bidding, and to do that which they were created for - to give Him pleasure (Ps 19:1-2, Rev 4:11)

GOD created the heavens and gave them their role in creation – to determine the times and seasons on earth (Gen 1:14-18). It is a must for every kingdom citizen to study and understand the heavens and know our role as stewards of His estate toward them – not the ungodly astrology, horoscope, and other occult practices.

Once we acquire GOD's ordained knowledge for the heavens, we will be able to set up their dominion here on earth (Job 38:31-33). Remember that in Mathew 28:18-20 Jesus commissioned the fledgling Ecclesia with all the authority given to Him to go out into all nations and disciple them. This authority included that which is in heaven and on earth. It is our duty to answer in the affirmative, the question that Job was asked concerning the visible firmament in Job 38:31-33. (For further teaching on "Understanding the Heavens" make a request of the teaching by email).

LUNAR MOVEMENTS

Crescents and Quarter Moons

When the moon is shaped like a C or its mirror image (Sickle), it is considered a crescent moon. The quarter moon is shaped like a D or its mirror image and considered to be a bow. The occult will use the bow shaped moon to shoot arrows of wickedness to the unsuspecting to draw unfair advantage in various areas of life. The occult uses the crescent moon as sickles (e.g., Hecate's sickle), for harvesting the gains of the ignorant and for demonic strength and fortification with intense enchantments.

- Proclaim Psalm 148 and Command all creation especially the crescent and Quarter moons to praise GOD as instructed in Psalm 19.
- Proclaim Psalm 64 and fasten that judgment into the heavens.
- Proclaim Isa 26:1-9 and command the heavens to receive this instruction and reject every other voice of destruction; pray for strength and fortification "Trust in the LORD forever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength". Isa 26:4
- GOD abhors enchantment so He warned His people not to be involved in enchantment. (Lev 19:26b) Pray that the occult, involved in intense enchantment will equally and certainly face the fierce wrath of GOD. Is 13:9

The Full moon will occur on 14 June 2022 @ 11:51 UTC

- Praise GOD for the full moon this month.
- Declare that as the moon has waxed into fullness this month, so shall you receive a double portion of the prophetic release which will wax to fullness during this season.
- Command the full moon to declare the glory of GOD alone and reject every other instruction from any other source that is not ordained by GOD. Ps 19.

- Proclaim Zech 9:15-17; In this month, command the full moon to praise GOD. As the enemy comes in like a flood, as he comes as a terror by night or shoots arrows that fly by noonday, the Word of the LORD will be your shield and buckler. Psalm 91
- Ask Jesus who is the Conquering King, to ride forth victoriously on behalf of righteousness, humility and truth during the full moon season. Every enemy instruction for the full moon to strike the righteous by night will be returned to sender as the moon rejects every other instruction except that which is from the LORD Psa 45:3-6
- During full moon seasons the gravitational pull of the moon on the earth causes an ebb and flow of waters resulting in tidal action and instability of the waters on earth even in bodies of all creatures. Pray that the waters of your body will stabilize and be still during the full moon season when the waters ebb and flow, and body fluids are also affected adversely. Ask the LORD to be the stability of your times; pray this for your economy and for the political landscape in your territory.

The Last Quarter moon will occur on 21 June 2022 at 03:10 UTC while the First Quarter moon will occur on 7 June 2022 at 14:48 UTC.

- Command the Quarter moons to praise GOD in this season.
- Pray that GOD will teach your hands to war and your fingers to do battle so you can break the steel bows of the witches, wizards, sorcerers, necromancers, diviners, monthly prognosticators, astrologers, traffickers of familiar spirits and the queen of heaven (Ps 18:34; Ps 144:1)

The New Moon occurs on 29 June 2022 @ 02:52 UTC

- Command the new moon to praise GOD who created it to mark the times and seasons. Psalm 104:19, 136:8-9, 148:3,

Command the new moon to receive instruction only from GOD and from Kingdom citizens to fulfill only the purpose which GOD created it for in this season. Pray that the moon shall reject the incantations, prognostications, and manipulation from any other ungodly source.

- Pray that as the new moon waxes as a witness in the sky, so shall their desire to know the true LORD GOD grow with it.
- Pray that GOD should cut off those that handle the sickle in the time of harvest against the ignorant and cause them to flee. (Jer 50:16)
- At the new and crescent moon proclaim and enforce Num 23:23 over your life, family, and the ignorant in the Ecclesia and territory.

SOLAR MOVEMENTS

Summer Solstice

The summer solstice is on the 21 June 2022 @ 09:13 UTC

The solstice is an astronomical event that happens twice a year when the sun's apparent position in the sky reaches its northernmost or southernmost extremes and standstill in declination, meaning the apparent movement of the sun's path north or south comes to a stop before reversing direction.

It is also considered as the commencement day for celebration for the resurrection of Adonis (also called Tammuz and Osiris) with weeping and lamentation followed by wild revelry and immoral acts. In the southern hemisphere, it will be the winter solstice i.e. the shortest day and longest night.

- Command the sun as it moves through the circuit of the heavens to praise the LORD and declare His glory alone Psa 19.1-2
- For the southern hemisphere, pray Isa 17:13-14 for all those who rob and spoil people under the cover of darkness that their deeds shall be exposed.
- The wicked draw power from the heavens during that day to release the spirit of licentiousness all over the nations. Proclaim Isa 25 over your territory on that day and nullify their activities from the heavens. Disconnect their power and ask the LORD to tear the shroud of ungodliness that covers the nations in this season.

Sun Movements

From 20 June 2022 to 20 July 2022 the sun in its ecliptic path passes through a cluster of 85 stars in the constellation called Gemini symbolized by the twins which speaks of Jesus Christ's two-fold nature, two fold work and two fold coming.

The front twin carries a bow and arrow in his left hand and a lyre in his right hand. The rear twin holds a club or palm branch in his right hand. Named: The place of Him who comes; united, twinned.

Stars: Ruler, judge; who comes to labour or suffer; hurt, wounded, afflicted; set; treading under feet; the branch, spreading; the palm branch; the seed, branch.

- Command the star cluster Gemini to praise the LORD in this coming season.
- Thank Jesus Christ for the two-fold nature of devouring, roaring Lion and gentle slain humble Lamb; He devours the enemy but is humble and was willing to take our place as the sacrificial Lamb of the LORD slain for the salvation of the world.

- The lyre and arrow in the front twin signifies David's two-fold weapon i.e. Tehillah Praise – warfare through praise. In this month send quality times of praise as the LORD arises to scatter the enemy and leads you into the place of dominion and kingdom authority in your family, place of occupation and in the territory.
- Thank the LORD that in this season the heavens declare His evangelizing spirit. People who seek for all kinds of permissive sexual encounters want to fill that void that only the LORD can fill. As the heavens declare, command that those ordinances that have to do with healing of inner wounds, salvation and judgment on sin will be reinforced in many parts of the earth.
- The rear twin is Ephraim bearing the palm branch of praise for Messiah Jesus Christ, reminiscent of his welcome into Jerusalem for the Passover when He died. (John 12:13). The heavens declare a welcoming of the triumphant King into the lives of His people. Pray that in this season as people hear the gospel in various areas of the world, they shall declare “blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD” and many lives will be redeemed by the Lamb of JEHOVAH.

The other three smaller group of stars called decans that form part of Gemini describe the details of the stages of His reign:

Canis Minor/the small Dog – Jesus Christ the Redeemer: A small dog is situated near Gemini and below the ecliptic. Close to its heels is the forked tongue of the snake Hydra, approaching from behind. Older zodiacs depict a human figure (rather than a dog) with the head of a hawk and a tail. The hawk is the natural enemy of snakes. Named: Conquering, victorious.

Stars: Redeemer; the burdened, loaded, bearing for others; the Prince, chief of the left hand; ruler; who completes or perfects.

This constellation identifies Jesus Christ, Son of Man, in a heavenly intercessory role. The designation ‘chief of the left hand’ is complementary to his designation ‘chief of the right hand’ in Canis Major. Acts 5:31

- His yoke is easy his burden is light. In this season cast your cares on the LORD. When you take whatever challenge you are facing and you put it on Him, then it is He who bears its burden. You will not be tired, frustrated or wearied by that load any more for it is in His hands. What remains is for you to praise and worship Him as He sorts out your challenges. Ask the Holy Spirit to give you a full revelation of the scriptures in Psa 55:22, Phil 4:6-7 and 1 Pet 5:7 so you can apply them into your life on a moment to moment basis.
- Are there areas you feel inadequate or imperfect? The scriptures adjure us to be perfect. The heavens confirm this characteristic trait for all believes, because it is not in our strength that we become perfect. It is the LORD in our lives manifested that displays perfection according to heaven's standards.

Prophecy that you are complete and perfect in Him who completes and perfects you. Matt 5:48, 1 Cor 14:20, Phil 3:15, Col 4:12, James 1:4

- Jesus Christ carries the burden to represent kingdom citizens before the throne of the LORD. He currently sits at the right hand of God as our Advocate and High Priest. Thank God that Jesus Christ is seated as our High Priest at the right hand of the Father and that He intercedes for us in every tough situation. Pray that this month kingdom citizens will know that they are not alone. He will never leave nor forsake us even as the heavens declare.

Canis Major/the large Dog – Jesus Christ the Conqueror: A large dog sits even further below the ecliptic, adjacent to Argo, the Ship. Older zodiacs depict a hawk or a wolf, rather than a dog. Sirius, the brightest star in the heavens is found in its mouth. Named: Coming quickly down; the Prince.

Stars: Sirius the prince, ruler; the bright, the shining; the glorious; who shall come; chief of the right hand; the Prince; the mighty; the leader, the chief.

- The heavens declare that there is a quick response in dispatching angelic assistance from the LORD in this season. Pray that the LORD will hasten to answer JEHOVAH-ordained prayers of kingdom citizens which have hitherto been hindered by forces of darkness in the heavenly realm. Pray this for kingdom citizens in your territory Dan 10.12-.
- The heavens declare that in this season Jesus Christ the conquering King, the victorious One over the Serpent and all his surrogate powers, is ruling in the heavens. In every battle you face in this season, understand that you are more than a conqueror in Him even as the heavens declare. You have already won the victory no matter what the circumstances around you may say. Pray this for kingdom citizens in your territory. Rev 19.11-16
- Pray against the spirit of intimidation, fear, timidity that attends kingdom citizens in seasons of warfare and testing. Break that power over your life and declare 2 Tim 1.6-7. Pray this for kingdom citizens in your territory.
- Pray that this season as the LORD our Redeemer moves among the nations seeking to save that which was lost through kingdom citizens, there will be a greater urgency in the hearts of His people with regard to His Second Coming and the Day of the LORD.

Lepus (the Hare or enemy) represents the enemy trodden under foot.

- Rejoice in the finished work of the LORD. For He came and led captivity captive and made a public show of the enemy defeated. He released those imprisoned in darkness into glorious light. Is 63:3- 4; Mal 4:3
- Proclaim Psa 110 and Rom 16.20 concerning every work of the enemy

From 21 July 2022 to 9 August 2022 the sun will experience one of its shortest sojourns within a constellation. The sun will enter a cluster of 83 stars in the gates of the constellation called Cancer – Scarab. Sited centrally over the ecliptic and facing the time of the end, is what looks like a giant crab but, the ancient picture of this sign is a Scarab, which begins its life as a worm then changes into a winged beetle. The correct symbol is a Scarabeus Beetle which is an emblem of RESURRECTION.

- Read Matt 16.18, Rev 1.18, Acts 2.27-31, 1 Cor 15.55; This is where Jesus triumphs over every sage, prophet, wise man that ever existed. They were died, they were buried and their burial grounds are available for public viewing. The tomb where they lay Jesus is EMPTY. Celebrate He Alone Who rose from the dead, conquered death and hell, and gives assurance of eternal life to all who believe in Him!
- Jesus passed His earthly life here on earth, was crucified, died, buried, resurrected ascended back into heaven before many witnesses. The heavens tell this very vital aspect of the gospel of the Kingdom, which JEHOVAH has placed in the stars – THAT JESUS IS THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE. Offer times of praise to Him regularly as you join the heavens in declaring this eternal truth.
- Join the heavens in celebrating the greatest altar on the Cross of Calvary and His RESURRECTION as you make the following proclamation as often as you can during this season;

The Cross was a mystery to you Satan (1 Cor 2.7-8); Jesus became obedient to death Phil 2.8; Satan you conquered Jesus on the Cross and took His spirit to the dark region of hell. The prince of this world had thought he had something to keep Jesus in the grave but you found NOTHING in Jesus. Jesus who was made to be sin, was justified in the spirit and raised to new life by JEHOVAH. Jesus was born into the new covenant in the pit of death and then conquered Satan col 2.15. He led captivity captive and broke out of death and hell with the key of death; He overcame death and even raised some who had been dead come to life; and they were seen in Jerusalem; the first fruits of the resurrection to come.

In the upper room, Satan you witnessed the results; you saw men and women recreated; you saw them receive eternal life; you saw their sins removed and blotted out as if they had never existed. You saw the power that cast you out of heaven enter mere men - the Holy Spirit of Jehovah was residing in men. You became aware that the new creation people were your masters for they have been given the authority to use the Name of Jesus with authority in heaven and on earth! You saw these new people begin to perform the same miracles that Jesus had. You saw the tears you had caused turn to joy. You saw your slaves shaking off their chains and being made free! You saw your prisoners set free.

You saw Jehovah's nature enter the hearts of men and the faith of JEHOVAH begin to operate so that others were snatched from under your authority. You saw the fear and doubt you had enthroned in men's heart being replaced by faith and love and freedom. You heard a new language of praise and communication and YOU COULD NOT UNDERSTAND NOR COMPREHEND IT... THE LANGUAGE OF THE SPIRIT THE TONGUES OF FIRE AND POWER! You saw men become kings you had slain Jesus to annihilate Him, instead His death gave birth to a new race of a multitude of Jesus's who torment your very existence when they recognize who they are in Jehovah.

You saw them multiply so rapidly that you realized you must try to destroy them before they destroy you. They are the greatest movement that will NEVER cease nor lose its power and authority, the Ecclesia – those who call on the name of Jesus in every territory on earth. You saw righteousness become a reality – a gathering of spirits of just men made perfect (Heb 12.12-24) men actually being born again with a new Father JEHOVAH and a new LORD, bridegroom and Master Jesus. The world holds millions of these people today; the Word is being revealed to them and Satan's exile from creation is very near... and I am one of those instruments that JEHOVAH is using to decimate Satan's tenancy here on earth Hallelujah! Amen

- Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life: he that believes in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live". Is there anything that is dying or dead in your life, marriage, family, the work of your hands, kingdom citizens in your territory? Join the heavens in proclaiming that the resurrection power that worked in Jesus, will infuse each of those situations with His life. The heavens declare a season of resurrection; put a demand on it and align with the heavens in this declaration that "you will live and not die to declare the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living" (Eph 1.15-20, Joh 11:20-27; 10:10b)
- Fear not, you worm Jacob, you men of Israel! I am the one who helps you, declares Jehovah; your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel. (Isaiah 41:14) The worm's metamorphosis to a winged beetle also signifies that Jacob will change from his earthly nature into one whose nature is more heavenly minded. This is the 11th month in the Sacred civil calendar; a number that signifies seasons of preparation, disintegration. The metamorphosis of a worm to a winged denizen goes through this process for the complete transformation to occur. As the heavens declare, praise the LORD that He is never wrong and His times and seasons are accurate. Like Jacob the supplanter, as many kingdom citizens as will yield to His preparations will be transformed into "Prince of JEHOVAH."
- Pray that every experience in this season will be one that will lead to a continuous transformation into the image and likeness of the LORD as He originally intended. Pray this for yourself and for kingdom citizens in the territory.
- Are there areas which look so far-gone that there does not seem hope for transformation? Transformation has to do with changing from one form to a completely different form. Ask JEHOVAH that you will begin to see every single aspect of your life and existence through the lens of His Word. Only His Word can begin to transform your mind. What you see is what you get; therefore, look through His word and be transformed.
- Prophecy into those areas which look impossible to change in your life in the Ecclesia and in the territory. During this season, as the heavens declare, prophetically proclaim scriptural truth over those areas and plant the seed of transformation. The truth is the promise of the Word as opposed to the circumstance.

The sign of Cancer should never have been represented as a crab but as a sheepfold. Named: Cattle- folds; who holds or binds; traveler's rest; Hermes. An ancient name for the month: the seizer; possessor of seed. Stars: A multitude, offspring; holding; the sheltering, hiding place; assembled thousands; the kids, lambs; northern ass; southern ass.

- The heavens declare that the resurrection of Jesus the Messiah was for the purpose of redeeming the sheep – all people of the nations, drawing them with cords of love and binding them to Himself. Pray for an outpouring of evangelism in all its expressions during this season to as many as kingdom citizens will encounter everywhere especially during this Ramadan season. (Joh 3:16, Rom 5:5-8, 8:38-39)

In CANCER is the completion of His work seen in reference to His redeemed – The Messiah's redeemed possessions held fast. The three smaller group of stars called decans that make up Cancer develop this truth. They tell of the heaven-bound company (believers) that JEHOVAH is going to bring to a place He has prepared for them.

Ursa Minor (the little bear) Ursa Minor/Little Bear/Lesser Sheepfold – The Remnant: A small bear lay in the central heavens, under the feet of Cepheus and nearly surrounded by the coils of Draco. Stars: Waiting, Him who comes; the calves, the young, the redeemed assembly the kid; the assembled; a traveling company, the stronghold of the saved. Polar Star: The turned or ridden on; high in rising.

This represents the lesser sheepfold or flock, who are "partakers of the heavenly calling," a "little flock," but the kingdom shall be theirs, for which they now look and wait. They have not yet "received the promises; but, having seen them afar off" by faith, they "were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth" (Heb 11:13).

- Many in the Body of Messiah have lost focus of this reality of operating with eternity in view. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you in this season, to constantly remember that everything you say and do should count for eternity. Pray this for kingdom citizens everywhere.
- Narrow is the way that leads to everlasting life and few there are who go on it. The partakers of the heavenly calling are not great multitudes. This is because discipline is another quality that this lesser sheepfold exhibits. Pray that the Holy Spirit will quicken in you the regular disciplines of fasting, praying at the watches, reading, studying and meditating on greater chunks of the scriptures, limiting what you allow into your input gates so that only that which edifies remains, and communing with the LORD. Pray that the Holy Spirit will lead as many kingdom citizens as seek Him into this straight and narrow lifestyle that leads to kingdom authority in life.
- Faith is another mark of those who are "partakers of the heavenly calling." Jesus asked His disciples "When the Son of Man comes, will He find faith?" It takes the belief in what is hoped for and unseen to partake of the heavenly things. Faith is a diminishing quality in the Ecclesia. Many operate to the level that their intellect or the circumstances will allow them. Pray for the gift of faith and that you will be found in faith no matter the circumstances. (1 Cor 4:2)
- Faith worketh by love Gal 5.6. Ask the LORD to reveal to you what is His love for you and pray that the Holy Spirit will teach you to respond to His expressions of love for you.

Ursa Major - Great Flock – Great Assembly: Straddled between the signs of Cancer and Leo lies a huge constellation, again misinterpreted by the Greeks as a bear. This cannot be correct since bears do not have tails and the star names within it do not relate to a bear. (This constellation has often been wrongly named Ash or Arcturus, which is in nearby Bootes.) Named: The assembled together.

Stars: A herd of cattle; a fold, rest, security; the flock, purchased; visited, guarded, numbered; she-goat; separate, small; the Lamb; the daughters of the assembly; the assembled; Talit Ha/the redeemed under the Covenant; the sheepfold; multitude, many assembled; the assembled; separated; protected, covered, redeemed, ransomed; the latter herd or flock; company of travelers; coming and going; the sheepfold set, appointed.

- The constellation represents the sheepfold and the sheep or flock which is the seed that is compared to “the sand of the seashore” – a larger flock. JEHOVAH called Abraham out to look at the stars in the sky. He promised the childless Abram that He would multiply His seed like the stars in the sky and the sand of the seashore. Today the Jewish descendants and the redeemed Ecclesia make these numberless multitudes. Thank JEHOVAH that as the heavens declare, His prophecy to Abraham in Genesis has come to pass in every generation.
- Israel is the innumerable seed, like “the sand of the sea shore” that He scattered but promised to gather and keep them as a shepherd does his flock (Jer 31:10). As JEHOVAH takes charge of His flock, He will feed them on good pasture, but He will sift them by the extermination of the fat and violent ones. Praise Him that indeed the heavens have made this declaration and that in every generation, no matter the trials and attack on Israel in their nation and in the Diaspora, JEHOVAH has overshadowed them and protected them and preserved them. Rom 9.15
- Proclaim Isaiah 40:11, Ezekiel 34:12-16 over the nation of Israel and Jewish people the world over.

Argo (the ship) A huge ship lies beneath the ecliptic, its mast piercing the neck of Hydra. (represents the ship that brings the pilgrims safely home. Isaiah 35:10; 51:9-11; Jeremiah 31:11,12) Named: Company of travelers. Stars: The possession of Him who comes; the multitude, abundance; the possession; the released who travel; the desired; the Branch. (Jeremiah 30:10,11; Isaiah 60:4-9)

- Proclaim Isaiah 43:5-7, 60:4-14 concerning the African Aliyah. This is a season for the African Aliyah. Pray that people of African extraction who are meant to return to Africa in this season of the renaissance of the continent will be released to return with the skills, and competencies required to build the continent in every one of the 56 nations and territories.
- Pray that there shall be a safe and soft landing for those who choose to return and that they will not face the kind of frustrations that others who have tried to return before and found in the continent.
- Pray that those who return will come bearing the abundance of the seas and of the nations that they had been equipped in; to deposit on the continent for its progress and development.
- Proclaim Psalm 121 over your life and kingdom citizens in your territory.

PROCLAIM

THE LORD IS WITH ME; HE IS MY HELPER. I LOOK IN TRIUMPH ON MY ENEMIES. IT IS BETTER TO TAKE REFUGE IN THE LORD THAN TO TRUST IN HUMANS. IT IS BETTER TO TAKE REFUGE IN THE LORD THAN TO TRUST IN PRINCES. ALL THE NATIONS SURROUNDED ME, BUT IN THE NAME OF THE LORD, I CUT THEM DOWN. THEY SURROUNDED ME ON EVERY SIDE, BUT IN THE NAME OF THE LORD, I CUT THEM DOWN. THEY SWARMED AROUND ME LIKE BEES, BUT THEY WERE CONSUMED AS QUICKLY AS BURNING THORNS; IN THE NAME OF THE LORD, I CUT THEM DOWN. I WAS PUSHED BACK AND ABOUT TO FALL, BUT THE LORD HELPED ME. THE LORD IS MY STRENGTH AND MY DEFENSE; HE HAS BECOME MY SALVATION. SHOUTS OF JOY AND VICTORY RESOUND IN THE TENTS OF THE RIGHTEOUS: "THE LORD'S RIGHT HAND HAS DONE MIGHTY THINGS! THE LORD'S RIGHT HAND IS LIFTED HIGH; THE LORD'S RIGHT HAND HAS DONE MIGHTY THINGS!" I WILL NOT DIE BUT LIVE AND WILL PROCLAIM WHAT THE LORD HAS DONE. PSALM 118.7-17
