PRAYING THROUGH THE MONTH OF OCTOBER 2022

The Prayer Guide is sent to many users all over the world and can look quite lengthy at times. We have numbered the pages and provided a table of contents to allow the reader to access the areas that are of interest. We have inserted hyperlinks so you can go directly to the sections you are interested in.

PREPARING THE INTERCESSORS TO BRING IN THE END TIME HARVEST

On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization (WHO) declared Coronavirus COVID-19 a pandemic. Currently, the worldwide death toll is over 6,541,000 with over 620,693,000 confirmed cases. Countries have closed their borders and ordered their residents to stay at home.

On April 8, 2020 at the conclusion of the Eagle's Fast at Logos-Rhema Central Community Assembly in Accra, Ghana Dr. Abu Bako was ministering. The Lord said that it was time to release the prophetic at unprecedented levels of expression and manifestation. The Lord also said this was the time of unprecedented release and manifestation of the supernatural and increased human and angelic collaboration.

The Lord has spoken to many prophets about the times we are in. The summary of what we have been hearing is:

- 1) Prepare for my coming.
- 2) Focus on the end time harvest.
- 3) Though part of the Lord's shaking (Haggai 2:6-9) the coronavirus pandemic should not be allowed to distract us but rather, promote us into our place in God.

As we focus on the end time harvest, we are offering resources to equip the intercessors to bring in the harvest.

Here are some recommended online resources:

Dr. Abu Bako has prepared a series entitled "Times and Seasons" that can be seen on the Facebook page of Logos-Rhema Foundation HQ. Professor Vincent Anigbogu has prepared a series entitled "Developing the Total Man for God's Use". The recordings are on the Facebook page of Prof Vincent Anigbogu.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE MONTH OF OCTOBER

The word October was derived from the Latin “Octo” meaning eight (8). October retained its name from the Latin origin when July and August, named after Julius and Augustus Caesar respectively, were inserted into the calendar that had originally been created by the Romans. It is now considered the tenth (10th) month in the now widely used Gregorian calendar. Consequently, it is the gateway into THE LAST QUARTER of the Gregorian calendar.

October 26, 2022 will be the 1st of Cheshvan 5783. This is the tenth (10th) month of the Gregorian calendar. This is the second (2nd) month of the Jewish civil year.

WHAT IS THE NAME OF OUR GOD?

According to Wikipedia "Jehovah is the Latinization of the Hebrew יהוה־י, one vocalization of the Tetragrammaton (יהוה) YHWH), the proper name of the God of Israel in the Hebrew Bible. The consensus among scholars is that the historical vocalization of the Tetragrammaton at the time of the redaction of the Torah (6th century BCE) is most likely Yahweh. The historical vocalization was lost because in Second Temple Judaism, during the 3rd to 2nd centuries BCE, the pronunciation of the Tetragrammaton came to be avoided, being substituted with Adonai ("my Jehovah").

The Hebrew vowel points of Adonai were added to the Tetragrammaton by the Masoretes, and the resulting form was transliterated around the 12th century as Yehowah. The derived forms lehouah and Jehovah first appeared in the 16th century.

"Jehovah" was popularized in the English-speaking world by William Tyndale and other pioneer English Protestant translations such as the Geneva Bible and the King James Version. It is still used in some translations, such as the New World Translation and Young's Literal Translation, but it does not appear in most mainstream English translations, as the terms "Jehovah" or "Jehovah": used instead, generally indicating that the corresponding Hebrew is Yahweh or YHWH." (From Wikipedia) In the Bishop's Bible (1568), the word Jehovah occurs in Exodus 6:3 and Psalm 83:18.

The Authorized King James Version (1611) renders Jehovah in Exodus 6:3, Psalm 83:18, Isaiah 12:2, Isaiah 26:4, and three times in compound place names at Genesis 22:14, Exodus 17:15 and Judges 6:24. The Leningrad Codex is the oldest complete manuscript of the Hebrew Bible in Hebrew. It is dated 1008 CE.

You can download it at www.seforimonline.org/seforimdb/PDF/264.pdf This Hebrew manuscript contains 50 occurrences of the full spelling of the name Yehowah. The Aleppo Codex is an ancient vocalized Hebrew manuscript. It is about 100 years older than the Leningrad Codex but it is not complete. This document contains the name Yehowah. When you look at Ezekiel 28:22 in the Aleppo Codex it says: "Thus says Adonai Yehowah."

I encourage you this month to read and study this document for yourself. There is a website that will help you. It is www.aleppocodex.org.

The King James Version uses "JEHOVAH" to translate the divine name in most instances. Jesus's Hebrew name "Yehoshua" (יהושע) (means "Yehovah saves" and is derived from יהוה). This Hebrew name became "Jesus" in Aramaic and "Ἰησοῦς" (Iesous) in Greek.

WHAT IS THE MEANING OF YEHOVAH (JEHOVAH)?

According to Easton's Bible Dictionary "Jehovah - the special and significant name (not merely an appellative title such as Jehovah [Adonai]) by which God revealed himself to the ancient Hebrews (Exodus 6:2 Exodus 6:3). This name, the Tetragrammaton of the Greeks, was held by the later Jews to be so sacred that it was never pronounced except by the high priest on the great Day of Atonement, when he entered into the most holy place.

Whenever this name occurred in the sacred books, they pronounced it, as they still do, "Adonai" (i.e., Jehovah), thus using another word in its stead. The Massorets gave to it the vowel-points appropriate to this word. This Jewish practice was founded on a false interpretation of Leviticus 24:16. The meaning of the word appears from Exodus 3:14 to be "the unchanging, eternal, self-existent God," the "I am that I am," a covenant-keeping God. (Compare Malachi 3:6; Hosea 12:5; Revelation 1:4 Revelation 1:8)

The Hebrew name "Jehovah" is generally translated in the Authorized Version (and the Revised Version has not departed from this rule) by the word JEHOVAH printed in small capitals, to distinguish it from the rendering of the Hebrew Adonai and the Greek Kurios, which are also rendered Jehovah, but printed in the usual type. The Hebrew word is translated "Jehovah" only in Exodus 6:3; Psalms 83:18; Isaiah 12:2; 26:4 ... Let us look at some examples: 1 Kings 18:24 says: Then you call on the name of your Elohim, and I will call on the name Yehovah, and the Elohim who answers by fire, He is Elohim. Isaiah 60:19 says: No longer will you have the sun for light by day, nor for brightness will the moon give you light, but you will have Yehovah for an everlasting light, and your Elohim for your glory.

The ancient Israelites used the name as a blessing in daily life. Ruth 2:4 gives us an example. It says: Now behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem and said to the reapers "May Yehovah be with you." And they answered him, "May Yehovah bless you."

WHY ARE WE LOOKING AT THE BIBLICAL CALENDAR?

Our current Gregorian calendar is a solar calendar (it is based only on the length of a year as determined by the sun). The starting day of the year and the length of months are not based on any physical or Biblical principles but merely a happenstance of history. The moon is given to mark Feasts—which are usually explained as a certain day of a certain month in the Bible: He appointed the moon for seasons [Hebrew moed means "festivals"]; the sun knows it's going down (Psalm 104:19, NKJV).

Blow the trumpet at the time of the New Moon, at the full moon, on our solemn feast day (Psalm 81:3, NKJV).

Genesis 1:14-16 also states that the sun and moon are the two great lights to indicate "festivals, days and years". The sun marks the days and years, but Festivals are in certain days of certain months—marked by the moon. The first day of a month ("new moon") was observed with a special meal in the Old Testament (1Sam 20:5, 2 Kings 4:23, Amos 8:5). That practice continued in the New Testament Col 2:16.

The practice will continue during the new heavens and new earth (Isa 66:23, Ezekiel 46:1,6). New moons were not the same as the annual Feast days in Leviticus 23—there is no specific command and explanation of how to keep them. But many verses say they were observed.

Most references to dates in the Bible are like those of Genesis 7:11: "In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month..." The day and the month are numbered, but the year is given as a year of the persons' life, the year of a king's life, or the year from some big event.

Although months are generally referred to by number, there are two systems of naming them in the Bible. The first system uses Hebrew names, the second uses largely Babylonian names acquired when the Jews were in captivity in Babylon. The four Hebrew names are:

- Abib the first month (Ex 13:4, 23:15, 34:18, Deut. 16:1)
- Zif the second month (1Kngs 6:1,37)
- Ethanium the seventh month (1 Kings 8:2)
- Bul the eighth month (1Kngs 6:38)

The original Hebrew names for the other months are apparently unknown. (From Biblical Calendar Basics, Third edition - April 2002).

As we seek to understand the times, we will look at events that took place in each month as determined by the Biblical Calendar.

WHY DO WE INCLUDE A SECTION ON PRAYING THROUGH THE HEAVENS IN OUR GUIDE?

Believers are a royal priesthood unto Jehovah (1 Pet 2:9), we have also been made kings and priests unto our Jehovah (Rev 1:6; 5:10). The priest's lips should keep knowledge and the law should be sought at his mouth (Mal 2:7). Jehovah interprets our ignorance of various aspects of the kingdom as a rejection of knowledge with grievous consequences (Hos 4:6). Knowledge of the heavens and how to deal with them in every season is a very important aspect of the Kingdom of heaven.

In Primeval Astronomy, "The Gospel in the Stars," Joseph Augustus Seiss explains the purpose of the stars and their constellations in their original context. In a lecture entitled, "The Starry Worlds," first published in 1882, he attests: "Such wonderful creations of almighty power and wisdom were not without a purpose." Seiss explains that stars and groups of stars, constellations, were created to fill the galaxy – in a particular order for a very specific purpose. God created the stars (Gen. 1:16) and positioned them in their exact places in the universe (Ps. 8:3). Stars were, "for signs and for seasons, and for days and for years, in the expanse of the heavens to give light upon the earth." (Gen. 1:14, 15).

Stars were so important that God named them. "He determines the number of the stars and calls them each by name." (Ps. 147:4). The stars are a continual reminder that the Seed of the woman will ultimately triumph over the Serpent (Gen. 3:15). God's revelation is constantly told in the stars (Ps. 19) — which is a message of salvation — available to every generation who professes faith. (Romans 9-11, Joel, Isa.) The entire ancient world received the gospel prior to Christ ever being born— through the stars.

TEACHING – TRAGIC BUSYNESS by The Preacher

TRAGIC BUSYNESS

The wise Solomon tells us that laziness is tragic (Proverbs 6:9; 12:24; 24:33), but the irony is that some busyness is no less tragic than laziness, as we shall presently learn from the prophetic parable to King Ahab. In that account, King Benhadad of Syria had been at war with King Ahab of Israel; Benhadad had been thoroughly defeated but got strangely spared by the king of Israel. God was very displeased with Ahab for sparing whom He had appointed to death, so a prophet was promptly dispatched to the king, with a message on the implications of the unwarranted 'mercy' that he had unilaterally shown to the enemy. The prophet disguised himself to deliver his message as follows:

39 And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king: and he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of silver.

40 And as thy servant was busy here and there, HE WAS GONE. And the king of Israel said unto him, So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it (1 Kings 20:39-40).

The soldier in the parable was not an idle soldier. He was a very active person, busy everywhere, "here and there." In the process of being so active, however, he could not also be still – at his post. He was so busy doing 'so much' that he failed to do the one thing that was his primary assignment – watching. In the process of being "here and there" and everywhere, he was missing from the one place that it mattered most to be at, in that season. He had not prioritized his activities. He probably failed to realize that not everything 'urgent' was important; that not everything that should be done now can still be done later to the same effect. He learned sadly that some things cannot be deferred without consequences, especially in the season of war – such as the world is in at this time.

It is possible to get lost in a multitude of activities. Here-and-there busyness might seem more engaging, more honorable, more 'international,' and more distinguishing than being 'localized' and sedentary, but the quantity of activities is not Heaven's ruler for measuring effective and commendable service (Matthew 20:12-13).

Keeping watch on the prisoner of war meant sitting still and just watching that lone prisoner. Between such an 'idle' watcher over one prisoner and another soldier who is everywhere chasing all the enemies, whom would you have honored? Certainly, we would have been more disposed to commend the 'busier' one, yet, according to this prophetic parable, sometimes we do more sitting down, 'doing nothing,' than when we are everywhere doing everything.

Jesus visited the home of Mary and Martha. Mary sat down to listen to Jesus; Martha was busy everywhere with the protocols of hospitality, and was understandably uncomfortable with Mary's spiritualized 'laziness.' When Martha took her case to the Master, His verdict was shocking: the sitting woman had done more preferably than her sister who had been 'busy here and there' (Luke 10:38-42).

Sometimes we are proud of being thought 'very busy,' but how much of that is productive busyness? How much of it is pointless activity? What was God's sentence against the busy but distracted soldier?

And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people (v.42).

Being busy is good, but busyness can sometimes be a subtle distraction. Sometimes we get distracted by what is urgent but not important; or what is important to somebody but not important to us. Being very busy with wrong (but apparently good) things, we have often lost irreplaceable opportunities. A good task does not mean the right thing for me. It is helpful always to ask, like Paul, "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?" (Acts 9:6).

Yes, we are in a season of busyness. We spend many hours each day on zoom calls. We are too tired to read the Word. We are too busy to pray. It is time to check ourselves.

This month we have a video we recommend for you to watch. It is an interview with Johnathan Cahn about his new book, Return of the Gods. This is the link: <https://youtu.be/LFn34viEcCE>

EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK ENTER YOUR JUBILEE BY DR. ABU BAKO

CHAPTER 9

RETURN TO THE LAND OF INHERITANCE

I pray that you will understand fully and pray into this particular area because it is key if you will enter your jubilee. I have separated this as a chapter on its own because I believe it is one of the most crucial and visible characteristics of the jubilee season.

It is also one of the most practical characteristics which must be fulfilled if individuals will enjoy the full jubilee blessing.

When Jubilee season comes over a people, God will return them to the land of their inheritance.

Due to various adverse circumstances, people find it needful to move from their inheritance to other places where the situation is more conducive for living.

For instance, Naomi and her husband, sons and Moabite daughters-in-law had to move from Bethlehem to Moab in a season when there was famine in Bethlehem (Ruth 1).

Under normal circumstances, because the Lord had declared that the Hebrews should not go and mix with the gentile nations or even live among them lest they learn their ways and defile themselves (Deut 7:3-4), they would not do such a thing.

Soon, adverse situations pushed her back to Bethlehem. She felt that God had dealt with her harshly. However, God knew that her jubilee had come. She was about to create the environment within which the future descendants of Jesus Christ were to meet, marry and beget an important ancestor to the Lord.

She may not have been aware of it. She felt that her fortunes were ruined, that time was against both her and her daughter-in-law Ruth. For her to fulfill her purpose she had to return to the location which was connected to her destiny in God. The same can be said for Ruth.

Due to adverse circumstances, Abraham moved from Canaan where God had instructed him to settle. There was famine in Canaan so he went down to Egypt for a period. During that season, things did not go well with him. He had to cheat in order to stay alive.

Consequently, his wife was taken from him and given to Pharaoh (but for God's intervention). Soon when he was found out, he had to be sent away from Egypt, back to the place of his inheritance. God allowed the circumstances to prevail.

However, while he was in Egypt he was made wealthy by pharaoh who paid him to take Sarai away. Pharaoh had to also give him many gifts in order to restore her back to him. When he went back to Canaan he continued to lay claim to the land that would become the home of future generations of his descendants.

There was no connection between his destiny in God, and Egypt. In the season of his jubilee, God had to bring him to the right location in order to maximize his potential.

To date, people have had good reason to move from place to place seeking after a better life. Some, due to adverse weather conditions and natural disasters like volcanic eruptions, floods, tsunami, earth quakes and the like, move to safer territory. Some due to famine, war, or political oppression will move to a more secure location.

Some for economic reasons, like abject poverty, a lack of opportunity for development and a lack of educational facilities have had to go to lands of better opportunity to survive.

In the jubilee season, there is a special grace for people to return to their inheritance to start afresh.

When I look at the continent of Africa for instance, many have been moved as slaves, refugees, political fugitives, or gone for better opportunities in other nations. People have been shifted from the bounds in which God linked them with their destinies.

In the Jubilee year God will cause as many as are destined to return to come back to their rightful inheritance, whether by obedience or by force. I say as many as are destined, because there are those who are meant to move to certain places and stay there. God has a purpose for them there.

For example, God told Jacob to move to Egypt with his family for the next season. That would be their inheritance for the next 430 years. God had a purpose for this move. Finally, when the time came, they had to go back to their inheritance in Canaan. Daniel and Joseph lived all their lives in their new territories. Nehemiah was in Babylon then he came back to Jerusalem for a period, and then went back to Susa in Persia when he had accomplished his mission.

ISRAEL

When the fullness of time had come, and the land had had its Sabbath rest for about 2000 years since AD 70, around the first decade of the 1900s, there ignited a desire among numerous Jews in the Diasporas to go back to Jerusalem. This had begun much earlier in small trickles, but the fullness of time had come. They had to return en-masse. After the First World War, there was a promise by the British Empire to release land in the then Palestine to these original owners. A number of circumstances delayed this from happening.

Many Jews by then had settled in various nations and become successful citizens of those lands. They had become British, Polish, German, Dutch, French, American, Italian, Austrian, Russian, Turkish, Iranian or Hungarian Jews.

Many were comfortable and content in the adopted land. They had developed good businesses and were thriving. When Britain was not prompt in obedience to return them to their original inheritance, this did not happen in the period 1917-1920, God allowed the holocaust to take place in the first half of the 1940s.

So many Jews were tortured and killed. The allied nations came together to form the League of Nations which later become the United Nations. This body monitored and regulated the returning of Jewish people from the Diasporas en-masse back to Israel. In 1948, the nation of Israel was born.

Of course, this is a very broad and rather simplistic summary of the entire detail and intricacies involved in the birthing of Israel as a nation. But the principle was that jubilee had arrived – the people had to be returned to their inheritance in order to fulfill their destiny.

Can you imagine a people who had established themselves, had been key in the building of the European and American nations being brought back to a strip of desert land? Of course they may have thought life was unfair. Many may have felt forsaken by the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Many may not have understood the purposes of God. However, Jubilee had arrived. A nation was about to be birthed. God had determined the bounds within which the majority of the Jewish people were to be found. He continues to move them to make the Aliyah (a return to their homeland from the Diasporas).

Today the desert has been turned into a fruitful field. Against all odds, Israel has arisen as a force to be reckoned with in every field of endeavor. They entered into the season of the acceptable year of the Lord for the next 50 years. Israel is established, developed and highly advanced in technology.

One would not have imagined that they would have survived or benefitted from anything in that desert. Other people groups that had lived in that area some centuries before i.e. the Palestinians, had struggled to cultivate the land and even make a living out of it. To the average Palestinian the land is cursed by God so it cannot bear fruit for them. When the Jews came, their destiny being connected to the land, they not only survived, but thrived.

It was up to them as a nation to entrench the authority of God by keeping the jubilee practice alive. In 1997 Israel was to enter into their next jubilee season.

LIBERIA

Nearer home in Ghana, there have been very many refugees from formerly war-torn Liberia. They had settled in the refugee camps in Ghana for more than 20 years. Many did not even envisage ever returning home. However the bounds that God allowed Liberia to have are where the majority of Liberians should be. The war and political unrest had caused many to seek refuge all over the world including Ghana.

After their first peaceful general election since the war in which they elected the first African female president, the nation was moving toward peace and stability.

When the jubilee season for Ghana came in 2006, one of the things witnessed but not even noted was that God began returning people back to their land of inheritance.

For years, the Ghanaian government had wondered how to send the refugees home now that their own nation was becoming more and more safe. In a space of a few weeks during the jubilee season, the matter that had taken so long was swiftly sorted out by the United Nations. Just as they monitored the move of the Jewish people back home, so did they move the Liberians en-masse back home.

The United Nations decided that it was time the Liberians went back to help rebuild their nation with the skills and abilities they had acquired in other nations. God had allowed these people to live in other nations and learn nationhood, learn to live cohesively as one people.

They were being taught to learn to “live and let live”. They were taken to nations which enjoyed this homogenous type of existence so they could learn it and then take it back to their once-troubled nation.

Ghana was one of the first places where they took the refugees and returned many of them from the refugee camps back to Liberia.

Naturally many Liberians and other people did not see the jubilee blessing in this move. They did not want to partake of it either. Many cursed the United Nations, the Ghanaian government and the church. They felt they had no one to support their continued stay in Ghana. Many had married Ghanaians and other nationalities in order to change their nationality status.

They did not grasp that they were partaking of the blessing from Ghana’s jubilee season. Many found ways not to go back. Many went and tried to return or run to another place of refuge rather than stay in the “barren” land of Liberia. I pray that as this knowledge comes you will return to your inheritance. God will bless you there just as He did Israel. He will bless you in the land of “famine” just as He did Isaac when Gerar was in famine (Gen 26). God told him not to move away and seek for “greener pastures.” It takes a step of faith to make that move.

God is about to turn Liberia into a fruitful field. Those who understand jubilee have a grace to become rebuilders of the broken and desolate places of many generations. This is not just for Liberia but it goes for the refugees from Africa and other nations running to the “greener pastures.”

There was a lot of protest from Liberian refugees as they did not understand why they should go back. However, the same God who was able to return the Jewish refugees back to a strip of desert and cause them to turn it into a fruitful field, and become sons who own an inheritance is the same One who has allowed the Liberian refugees to go back home and turn their nation into a coveted, fruitful, blessed and peaceful land.

They may not even realize it now, and many are still resistant to returning, but this is a jubilee release. They will no longer be referred to as refugees. They are back in their land where they too are sons and daughters of the land. They too have as much right to develop themselves, start afresh and do a new and good thing for their nation.

Unfortunately many Liberians still “pride” themselves in being “Americo-Liberians”. They refuse to detach from this slave attachment from which they were released when they were brought back to Africa in 1847.

You read earlier what happens to a people who reject the characteristics that come with the jubilee. God, in allowing the African former slaves to be settled in various nations both in Africa and mainly in the Caribbean was instituting a jubilee experience.

If the church in Liberia will lay hold of the reality of the numerous jubilee blessings that have eluded the nation then she will be on track to a full, swift recovery. At the moment they can tap into the jubilee that has come over the continent as a whole.

If Liberians will embrace their full African-ness, and the church begins to retool and retrain the people to have pride in their land, their African heritage, their son-ship as Liberians, and their nationhood as one people under God, then God will release them into the fullness of the jubilee seasons that the nation has neglected to celebrate. God will release the rich natural resource inheritance that remains untapped in that nation. I discussed earlier that it is only sons who inherit from the Father. It shall profit the sons of the land. God will not release it to profit slaves.

The Church in Liberia must grow up, mature, get their identity right as sons. As the church goes, so goes the nation. Only sons of the land can inherit. I have discussed this further in chapter 20- Sonship of nations.

As long as they do not realize this, the inheritance will be taken by servants. For as long as the heir is still a child he is no better than a servant though the whole estate belongs to him (Gal 4:1).

As it has been, up until now, the nation had been released into the opposite of the jubilee characteristics. God is giving Liberia a new lease of life. This is not just for Liberia, but for every other African nation with large numbers of refugees in other lands.

RWANDA

After the 1994 genocide, God allowed the nation of Rwanda to be virtually reborn. I pointed out that certain leaders, certain elections and drastic changes in the land and leadership can bring the nation into a jubilee experience even though it's not the 50th year.

The president of the nation made a call to all nations with Rwandese refugees to surrender them and return them back to the land. Rwandese who had been refugees in other nations, now were going back to the land of their inheritance. The United Nations again monitored the move of many of them from various refugee camps in Tanzania, Democratic Republic of Congo and other parts of the world.

This nation that had experienced a traumatic genocidal war beyond any human comprehension began to be rebuilt. Today, a little over 10 years later, Rwanda has begun to be a reference point for a successful, politically stabilized African nation. The land that flowed with human blood and more dead bodies than anyone could imagine, today is fast becoming an investors' haven on the continent.

Again the examples are numerous of God returning people back to their inheritance, and there prospering them and causing them to be a praise to the glory of His name.

TURN BACK OUR CAPTIVITY

When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The Lord hath done great things for them. The Lord hath done great things for us: whereof we are glad. Turn again our captivity, O Lord, as the streams in the south. They that sow in tears will reap in joy, He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed, will doubtless come again with rejoicing bringing his sheaves with him (Psa 126).

If Africa is going to be brought to a shine, then part of what God is about to do is to change the status of African refugees, political fugitives and illegal immigrants wherever they are, to becoming legal citizens in their own inheritance. This will happen as the African Aliyah takes place when most of the people who were hitherto in other locations, are returned back to their rightful place of inheritance. Only the ones whose destiny is tied to the foreign land will remain. Turn back our captivity Lord!

As each nation enters the jubilee in Africa, this same grace will be released to the refugees, and fugitives and immigrants to return to their inheritance. They will carry the grace to rebuild and establish their lands. That is the seed that they will come back with from the diasporas. They will come with that which they have learned to deposit in the nation for its development. Turn back our captivity Lord!

Many will come weeping, bearing this precious seed of development, education, skills and abilities, new and better ideals that they learned in more peaceful lands. It may not be easy. It was not easy for the Jews coming into a barren strip of desert. But they came weeping with their seed. Today they rejoice as they bring the harvest of years of hard won sacrifices and endeavors. Turn back our captivity Lord!

This is the pattern. As God turns back your captivity, it may not be very easy at first. It may look daunting but with God all things are possible. His grace is sufficient for you. His strength will be made perfect in your weak moments (2Cor 12:7-10).

You may have to dig up stumbling blocks of corruption and deal with some of the sordid ways of the land in order to set up God's pattern. However the anointing to turn back your captivity is now released in this jubilee dispensation. Turn back our captivity Lord!

EVERYONE HAS A PORTION

It is not about praying people out of a place because they have invaded the place and taken over the business sector or other areas of investment and development. It is about asking the Lord what the portion of the foreigner is, in your land. It is about asking God, as a foreigner, whether He wants you to be plugged in at that place.

The favor of God will be upon you if you are to stay. The people will be favorably disposed toward you just as Pharaoh was favorably disposed toward Joseph; just as the Egyptians became favorably disposed toward the Hebrews; just as the prince of the eunuchs and Nebuchadnezzar were favorably disposed toward Daniel and his friends; just as the king became favorably disposed towards Esther and the Jews in Persia.

Rather than complain about foreigners encroaching your businesses and land and other areas of the nation, ask God what you need to learn from the foreigners who have “invaded” your territory. As a foreigner, ask God what you need to learn from the people of the land where you are a sojourner, that you will take away with you and implement in your own nation or wherever God will take you next.

THE EARTH IS THE LORD’S

God allows other people to come into the land for a purpose. Seek to know that purpose rather than becoming xenophobic, bitter and hateful. You may miss your season of visitation if you do not learn from them. Ask God to pour out the grace for you to learn to “live and let live.” Ask God to help you to play down the difficulties you encounter from foreigners and highlight the beauty in the differences between yourself and people from other nations and cultures.

It will be much better if you hear the voice of God and get the hint when He is leading you away from a particular location to your inheritance in another location. Move in obedience to Him. If you do not do it by obedience, God will use force and other adverse circumstances to return you back to the place of destiny. Returning to the inheritance is one of the main characteristics of the jubilee season.

When God spoke to me about what He is planning to do in 2009 and beyond this is part of what He said;

If you know anybody who is out there that is not supposed to be out there, in the western world and is struggling and suffering, tell them it is time to move back home. Whether they have immigration papers or not, they should move back home. Only those whom God wants to keep there for certain purposes should remain. Any other person will create room for all kinds of persecution and oppressions. Laws will continue to change and it is not because anyone hates you but God wants to push you out. (Audio CD Power Encounter Service 04 January – © 2009 Abu Bako)

It is not just for Africans in the Diasporas, but also, there are people in Africa who need to move back to their nations and release the inheritance that belongs to the people of the land. Please listen to the Lord and find out what He is saying.

This is not a call to begin harassing anyone in the land and trying to push them out. If you stretch your hand against any one and bully them out of the land against God’s will and timing, you will be seeking for dire judgment from God. You never know where God may have you or your descendants move to. Handle the stranger with respect. It is a command from the Lord.

Even within the nation itself, there are people who insist on being in particular parts of the nation, especially the cities. God will cause them for various reasons to go back upcountry and to rural areas. You may be thinking you should stay in that village, but God will move you to another village or another city within the same nation.

RIGHT LOCATION IS IMPORTANT

It is time for kingdom citizens to pay attention to the issues of moving. You may be required to move from where you are to another place because that is your inheritance for an appointed season, and then you will come back. It does not mean that you must stay forever in a particular place.

This issue of inheritance is so important because there is a location that is linked to your destiny at a particular given period of time. For some it is a lifetime thing, for others, it is a seasonal thing. In this season be very keen to know exactly where God wants you to be. Do not move around simply because it is convenient, or the move is profitable according to your human understanding. Let God guide you.

Isaac was about to move to Egypt when the famine hit Gerar (Gen 26:1). However, God instructed him that he should remain in that famine hit area and He would prosper him there. It did not seem to make sense. However, his destiny was linked to that particular place in that season. That was where his inheritance was. While everyone else seemed to suffer, he continued to prosper.

This goes to even simpler matters like where to bank your money in this season of financial turbulence in the banking sector. You may want to move your money to a more profitable place but God may tell you that your place of inheritance is in a seemingly weak or small or unknown bank.

It has to do with moving house. You may want to live in a particular environment in the city but God would have you move in another. Seek God concerning these things. God is so specific about where He wants you to live even on a day to day basis. He knows where you can position your shop for maximum impact. The impact may not be equated in physical terms more than in spiritual terms.

There are people whom God will ask to open up a shop in a very busy part of the local market for the sole purpose of reaching out to the lost, or simply being an altar connecting Him to that place as they intercede in that location while doing business. God is faithful to prosper them both physically and spiritually.

The examples are vast and varied with regard to your being rightly located to receive your inheritance. Be obedient to what God is saying even when it seems odd. Do not try to run ahead of God. Do not try to move slower than Him or you will miss this season. If God wants you to go east and you decide to go west, His hand will not be upon you in the west. You may even seem to prosper but it will all amount to nothing before Him.

PRAYER

Do you experience land clashes, tribal and community conflicts with regard to land and inheritances? Ask for the jubilee release of favor, and wisdom to deal with and settle once and for all the matters of inheritance and ancestral land belonging to various groups of people.

Ask God to give leaders wisdom on how to enshrine all the wise decisions made concerning inheritances in the constitution of the nation with the appropriate checks and balances.

When all people in the land are at peace with their location, then the nation can prosper more easily. This is the great difference between the western nations where most of the land issues are more settled, and the nations of Africa and other parts of the world where land issues have caused untold harm to the land and its people. Pray that your people, wherever they are will receive this grace of returning back to the land of their inheritance.

Do you think you have gone astray? Pray that God will help you get back into the right spiritual location in Him. Ask Him to begin to lead you to the places that are connected to your destiny in this season. Pray this for your family, the church and nation too.

When God begins to answer the above prayer, He can disrupt a number of your best laid plans. There may be a requirement for major re-adjustment and a total overhaul of priorities. It is not easy. Those who sow seed in tears... (Psa 126).

There may be a requirement to go through tough times ahead. However, there will come a season of reaping ... they will come rejoicing bringing in their sheaves. God promises a season of rejoicing in the fruit of your obedience to be in His location. Ask for great grace to withstand tough times and stay focused on God's bigger picture.

Do you know of people who have gone away from the land of inheritance? Ask the Lord if this is an issue of concern to you. Maybe you are, or you know of someone who has refused to return to the land of inheritance because of the daunting challenges that seem to lie in the land. Ask the Holy Spirit to give you grace and the necessary requirement to go back and rebuild the land of your inheritance.

Ask for greater wisdom with regard to what you have read in this chapter. If God has required you to move, you can do it in obedience, or He will simply create circumstances that will bring you where you ought to be.

Seek to know how long you are to stay in a place. Even with regard to church or fellowship. Many people feel they can move from one church to another because it is convenient for them. Maybe you have been in that position. Seek repentance. Ask God to forgive you for areas where you have impulsively or out of bitterness moved out of fellowship with others thinking you would find rest in another place.

Have you moved cities, houses, banks, any small movement without His prompting and consultation? Seek God. I know that people say there is “common sense” Well common sense is not so common. You can only operate at that level when you have a continuous uninterrupted communion and effective communication with God by your lifestyle. Ask the Holy Spirit to show you where you can begin to build your relationship with Him so that you will be operating supernaturally, with continued guidance in every move you make.

WHAT SHOULD WE BE DOING AS KINGDOM CITIZENS IN THE NATIONS?

Jesus instructed us in Matthew 28:19-20 (Hebrew Gospel of Matthew) to: "Go and teach them to carry out all things which I have commanded you forever."

This is what Paul did in Ephesus and in three years there was national transformation. Paul proclaimed the whole will of God Acts 20:27. As we pray for transformation in our nations what are we supposed to teach them? He said, "to carry out all things that He had commanded". We must teach them what the Bible says about family, government, politics...about all the spheres of society. We are called to be a transforming influence in society. The Bible provides us with a frame of reference for life.

The Jubilee Centre has over the past 30 years researched extensively around promoting good and right relationships at personal, organizational and public policy levels, as a practical expression of the biblical vision of society. Visit them on the web at www.jubilee-centre.org for resources to help you to teach them. If we don't teach them how will they know what to do?

“Jesus is LORD” is one of the most radical realities of Christianity. It means that He is the Supreme Ruler over ALL.

Jesus was commissioned by God the Father to come to earth, destroy the works of the Devil, and restore that which was lost. Jesus OBEYED everything the Father told Him to do. When Jesus left the earth, He gave His followers the same commission He had received from the Father - Go reconcile the human family to the Father, destroy the works of the Devil, and restore that which was lost. Proclaiming Jesus as LORD means we are to OBEY what He commands us to do. You are not saved to go to heaven: You are saved to bring heaven to the earth. Matthew 6:10 -- "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven." (From <http://www.the-covenant-kingdom.com>)

This month as you pray through this guide ask Jehovah to show you what He would have you do to bring heaven to the earth.

PRAYING THROUGH THE MONTH OF OCTOBER

- As a gateway into the last quarter of the Gregorian calendar year, command the gates of the month to be lifted up to allow the King of glory to enter and take possession so He will take charge of the entire month and rule it the way He wants. That way, all their orchestrations for the month will be thwarted. (Ps 24:7-10)
- The final lap is usually the most tedious, but it is the one which the greatest strength is reserved for, in order to finish well. Pray for a manifestation of great strength to finish the year well in this final quarter.
- Read Matt 13:23 and Ask Jehovah to prepare you to become the kind of good ground that will receive His word, and bring forth a bumper harvest. Pray this for your family, Ecclesia and territory
- Pray that any surplus harvest which was meant to be your portion will come to you and any that was meant to be released as seed for future harvest will be released with joy from your hand.
- Read Prov 6:6-11 This is a month of preparing to go into hibernation. Just like the little ants, which gather all summer and autumn so that they can be prepared for the hibernation and Sabbath season of rest and recuperation, prepare to take up more times of communing with Jehovah as the year winds down to a close. Take prolonged seasons of reflection, word study, song ministrations to Jehovah in this jubilee season.
- Read Matt 8:24-27 These are turbulent times morally, financially, politically, socially and even in weather patterns. No matter what turbulence there is in the world, the seasons of Jehovah continue unperturbed. Nature prepares to go into hibernation during this season while men fret and are tossed about. Resting has an inference of trusting. Pray that your trust in Jehovah will increase in this season and you will enter into His rest no matter the circumstances you are in. As you rest in Him, may the great storms bring about a great calm; pray for your family, Ecclesia and territory
- Read Psalm 32:6-7: Even as Noah's family was saved in the ark, ask Jehovah to create an ark for you, a hiding place while the world is drowning in human and natural disasters and refuses to receive Jehovah's prophetic directions
- Read Mark 4:14,16-17 Persecution comes for the sake of the word. Are you going through a tough season? Could it be that every persecution the enemy has targeted you with, is to attempt to kill the incorruptible seed of the word of Jehovah concerning your life and circumstance? Could it be that there is enough of the word of Jehovah through prophetic words, through scriptural proclamations that have been planted in your life to attract the enemy's persecution? Is it time to rejoice or be despondent about your circumstance? If your situation has been one of great trial and challenge after challenge, then it informs you that there is something worth fighting for growing inside you. Once it bears fruit, once it manifests, it will be limitless amount of seed to bless you and bless others. Ask Jehovah to open your eyes so you can see the truth against every lying physical circumstance that may cause you to not to speak the seed of His word in your life and circumstance.

- Read James 5.7-10, and Take time to revisit all the prophetic words, all the scripture proclamations you have had over the past season. Have you been believing Jehovah for healing? Have you been believing Him for provision or for promotion? Does the opposite seem to be true instead? Then the enemy is persecuting you for the sake of the word. It is by your words that you will either water and nurture the seed of the word planted in your life or by your words that you will uproot that seed, never to germinate. Which one will it be? Present yourself and each word before Jehovah and deliberately examine where the enemy has brought a counterfeit circumstance to rob you of the truth.
- Read Isa 40.8, Psa 103.20, Matt 5.18, 24.35 Remember that the enemy was defeated 2000 years ago. He has absolutely no power, no authority to do anything to you. The only power he has, the only authority he has is the one which you give him when you acknowledge his wily activities or listen to the circumstances that are contrary to Jehovah's promises in Scripture. The enemy does whatever it takes around you, to cause you to speak negatively to uproot the seed of words planted in your life. He has absolutely no authority in his words because he is a fallen angel and angels will only hearken to the voice of our words or the words of Jehovah because ONLY HUMAN BEINGS have the authority and power to uproot and undo the word of Jehovah which otherwise never fails to come to pass! Ask the Holy Spirit to remind you and bring a revelation of this truth in your life so you are always alert with regard to every word you speak.
- Read Psa 19.14 and 104.34; When we doubt the promises of Jehovah concerning our lives and begin to say things like "maybe it is not Jehovah's will to heal everyone", "Maybe this is a test He has "allowed", "Maybe He has "allowed" this suffering for a reason" "this is judgment of the Jehovah over X situation"; then we have allowed the physical persecution of the enemy, the circumstances around us to dictate our actions and speech and we impute a good, loving Jehovah with wickedness. By such speech which imputes the Jehovah with evil actions, we begin to uproot the word of life in us. All His wrath, His judgment was finished in Jesus on the Cross; that is why we are accepted in the beloved by UNMERITED favor. Would you look back and bring repentance for those areas where you let the temporal physical circumstances make you speak contrary to the truth of the word of Jehovah.

- To counter every lying “reality” around you, speak the word of Jehovah against that circumstance; whether it is sickness, lack, failure, area of bondage. Proclaiming the truth of the word against the lie will water the seed of Jehovah’s word in your life and bring fruit in due season. Proclaim healing scriptures against illness, proclaim scriptures of success against failure, proclaim scriptures of prosperity against lack and poverty. The Bible is full of words that water your situation into fruition. It is a deliberate choice whose report you will believe concerning your situation.
- Read Psa 141.2-3 Prov 18.20-21, Deut 30.19, Prov 5.8,: Notice that when the word comes, you receive it joyfully but the enemy will ensure that which is beginning to take root is uprooted by your own utterances that counter the truth Ask Jehovah to send an angel to guard your tongue in this season so you will speak only that which will help the word in your life to grow, and you will remain silent when it is required of you. It means the season of whining and being “angry with Jehovah” and allowing yourself childish tantrums in the name of “being real” is over. You now know that it is by your own mouth you will have success or you will fail. Life and death is in the power of the tongue and those who love it will eat the fruit thereof. Choose life, speak life and reject speaking or even hearing anything contrary to it until fruition happens.
- Read Mark 4.26-29 Sometimes when there is inactivity, it does not necessarily mean that you have done something wrong, or that the enemy has triumphed in your life. it means that its between the planting and harvest of the word- a time of sleeping; waiting without activity. Ask the Holy Spirit to give to you patience, and a restful disposition as you wait for the seed of prophetic words to take root and germinate.
- How will you know what Jehovah is saying when you do not read, study, meditate on, or listen to Scriptures? Read Prov 15.23, Isa 50.4-5, Mal 2.7, 2 Tim 2.15 & 4.2, Luke 12.42-43, Heb 13.15: Today we listen to a lot of teaching of scriptures by men’s interpretation; but we hardly give ourselves time to just read study meditate or even listen to the Scripture on its own. In this last quarter, and as we enter this new gates of seasons, the Jehovah declares that we must be serious with His Word. Only His word will renew our minds and change the lenses thru which we look at all the shifting circumstances with His Word as our benchmark and plumb-line. Only then will we be able to receive all the blessing while the world around us conflagrates. Ask the Holy Spirit to put His word in your mouth so that you will always speak a word in season, you will read and meditate on the word, and out of your mouth will come forth life and hope as you determine to focus more on the word in this season.
- This is a good season to take time out, rest and do the Bible Marathon; reading the entire Bible or the entire New Testament over a number of days. You may make an email request for the Bible Marathon program so as to select which program you will take over a period in this season. (ref The Bible Marathon: Culled from Dealing with evil foundations @ the Gates and watches)

- What are you experiencing in this season? Jesus already looked at every possible probability and already made a provision for it, calculated what it would cost to redeem it. Then He paid the price for it on the greatest Altar ever raised, Calvary. There is nothing that we can ever experience, no sickness, no poverty, no condition that was not anticipated. When we turn our situations over to Him, He already has the solution. That is why He said we can ask and will receive, seek and we will find and knock and door will be opened. It was an open cheque for WHOSOEVER WILL.
- Everything that Jesus died for on the Cross is Jehovah's will for your life; health, strength, wealth, peace, joy, forgiveness of sins, breaking of bondages etc. Proclaim Isa 53, Gal 1.4, 2.20, Rom 8.32, 1 Cor 15.3, Rom 4.25, Tit 2.14, 1 Pet 2.24-25 and declare that each of those things He died for are the will of Jehovah for you and kingdom citizens everywhere.
- He gave us the power that raised Jesus from the dead inside of us and the power inside must be stirred up by faith and it will heal everything. No recession can happen to you when you trust that the Jehovah will supply your need. He is aware of any financial challenge and the Jehovah is already aware of it and made a way to escape and rest in Him. Instead of saying, 'Jehovah do something' if you rest in Jehovah you will rather say 'Jehovah You knew this would come so reveal to me the solution. Holy Spirit help me to access the solution and show me how to pray concerning it until it comes to manifestation.'
- When you watch a wrestling match with a tag-team i.e. teams of two wrestlers fighting against another team of two wrestlers; you will notice that only one of the team can enter into the ring at a time, to fight. When he becomes overwhelmed, in the heat of the fight, it is when he stretches out his hand so that his tag-team partner can step in and take over from him while he remains inactive and rests outside the ring. The only thing he can do is encourage the partner, praise him and cheer him on.
- Read Hab 3:17-19, Psa 68.1-4, Most kingdom citizens, when going through the heat of the fight and in overwhelming situations, that is when they increase their focus on the fight, rather than reach out to their eternal tag-team partner Jesus, to step into the ring and take over the fight while they step out and cheer Him on to victory. That is rather, the time to take off, switch off that phone, go somewhere and rest - literally.
- When all is going haywire, and you choose to go and spend time in the presence of Jehovah, praising Him, worshipping Him and simply losing focus on all else but Him – not whining and complaining about the hard times; then your actions say that you trust Him to step into your ring and take over every situation. This is not an easy thing to do, but it is a very effective message of trust and faith in the Jehovah.

- Ask the Holy Spirit to remind you, in the heat of the battle, to step aside and let Jesus take over. Remember He won this battle 2000 years ago and He steps in to remind the enemy that It is already done!
- Read Exodus 14:10-14 Are you are going through a very difficult season, plagued with exhaustion, loss of focus, loss of relationship, lack of joy or creativity. Could it be that Jehovah would have you find a time to simply step out of that particular ring and literally rest – be inactive in your mind, your spirit and your body. Taking LITERAL rest is a decision. It does not mean that pressure is not high or that you have time. You create time for rest. Only you can allow your tag-team partner Jesus, to step in and fight for you. If you have never thought to ask Jehovah to become your tag team partner, this is a good season to invite Him into your life.
- Read Col 3:3 Just like the animals that prepare to hibernate ask Jehovah to take you through a dying off of the old carnal nature , and an entering into rest in Him.
- Choose to trust in Jehovah in this season. Pray that kingdom citizens everywhere will be totally dependent on Jehovah. Ask Jehovah how He would have you operate in TRUST of Him in every aspect of your life. (Joh 14:26, Gen 2:1-3, Heb 3:7-4:6, 10) This has to do with trusting Jehovah. In this season ask Jehovah to reveal to you areas where you have operated by trusting the arm of flesh and repent of those areas where you have been limited by your income or lack thereof, your medical insurance or lack thereof, your occupation, your intellect and education, your connections etc.
- He had already anticipated every need, ever catastrophe, every growth of population, every technological gadget that would ever be needed and made provision for it. He did not get shocked that mankind needed mobile phones and computers that He must create what was required for it. Man just has to harness it from the earth because it was already provided for. Jehovah gave us wisdom to turn them into parts that we ever need.
- The number 10 signifies the perfection of divine order. Is there any sense of disorder in your life, family or in your territory? Pray that during the coming month, the Holy Spirit Who brings order into any chaotic, formless or void situation will brood over your life, over as many kingdom citizens as are seeking His stability and in your territory
- Read Rev 22:2, and pray that the virtues of the fruit for the 2nd, 8th and 10th month will be released in your life, the Ecclesia and your territory.
- Pray concerning any areas of healing that you require in your own life, in your family, among kingdom citizens and in your territory. Ask that Jehovah will release this coming month's portion of the leaves from the tree of life which are for the healing of the nations.

IS THIS THE MONTH OF YOUR BIRTH?

Even if this is not your month of birth, pray into the day of your birth on a weekly basis (that is the weekday in which you were born). Take time at regular basis to be praying for yourself and prophesying over your own life. Speak into the foundations of your life and prophesy good things.

- Prophecy that you will live and not die prematurely in any area of your life. Your family will live, the work of your hand will live and grow from strength to strength Deut 33:6, Psa 27:13, 118:17.
- Prophecy and proclaim the blessing of Levi upon your life as a priest unto GOD 2 Pet 2:9, Deut 33:8-11.
- Prophecy the blessing of the wisdom of Issachar in every area of life. Wisdom to establish the work of your hands, your family, as you grow a year older 1Chron 12:32, Deut 33:18b-19, Pro 24:3-4.
- Prophecy and proclaim the blessing of Benjamin upon your life Deut 33:12.
- Prophecy the blessing of Joseph. Speak to the earth and declare that the earth will bring forth its best for you in this New Year. Prophecy to the heavens to declare the glory of GOD over your life every day of this New Year. Deut 33:13-17, Lev 26:4-5, Hos 2:21-22, Psa 19:1-2, Isa 55:12.
- Prophecy that you will grow in your spirit man into a mature son so that you can receive your inheritance. Wherever you go in this new year, creation will experience release from frustration because you are growing not just in years but also in maturity of spirit to take responsibility of your Father's estate i.e. the territory GOD has allowed you to inhabit. Rom 8:19-20, Gal 4:1-2
 - Thank Him for your specific day of birth. Declare that day blessed.
 - Thank Him that He ordained that you will be made manifest on earth on a specific day in that month at a specific hour and minute.
 - Thank Him that He has a purpose for your life and it will be fulfilled.
 - Ask Jehovah to forgive you where you have for one reason or another, ignored or rejected to recognize your day of birth.
 - Thank Jehovah for the day of your conception. (Psa 139:13)
 - Thank Jehovah that when He thought of you, he already thought of your entire life. Thank Him that He did not leave anything to chance. (Isa 49:1)
 - Thank Him that he knew exactly what your redemptive purpose was going to be. (Psa 139:16)
 - Pray that He will reveal the original you more and more as you enter another year of your life. (Psa 139:13-15)
 - Pray that He will restore the heavenly label, and the heavenly name He gave you before you were conceived. (Jer 1:5).

- Speak into the foundations of your life and prophesy good things.
- Praise Jehovah that your birthday marks the entry into another season of Jubilee. Thank Jehovah that immediately you were born, you cried out prophetically blowing your own jubilee cornet, and prophetically rejoiced in yourself. Ask Him to give you joy no matter your circumstance, to rejoice on this day

FESTIVALS DURING THIS MONTH

Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement) – begins at sundown October 4, 2022, to sundown on October 5, 2022.

*Day of Atonement [Yom Kippur] is a day which Jesus fulfilled by His final sacrifice on Calvary. Pray that in this season, the Ecclesia will recognize the need to reach the nations with the Great Commission to fulfill the purpose for which Jesus fulfilled this feast.

The Jewish people believe this is the holiest day of the year. The day on which they are closest to God. Leviticus 16:30 says “For on this day He will forgive you, to purify you, that you be cleansed from all your sins before God.”

For nearly 26 hours – from several minutes before sunset on 9 Tishrei to after nightfall on 10 Tishrei they will abstain from food and drink, do not wash or anoint their bodies, do not wear leather footwear and abstain from marital relations. The time will instead be spent in prayer to God.

- Pray that many Jewish people who observe religiously this season oblivious to the fact that Jesus has already fulfilled this feast on the Cross, will receive a visitation of the risen Jesus as they seek Him in their observances and ignorance.

*The other part of the prophetic fulfillment of this day is an eschatological event when Jesus will be at-one with His bride. Pray that you and kingdom citizens in your territory will develop a desire and longing for the coming of Jesus and thus be prepared for our Bridegroom and we will not be like the 5 foolish virgins who were unprepared. Rev 22.17. Matt 25.1-13

Sukkot, which is commonly called the Feast of Tabernacles, begins at sundown on October 9, 2022 and ends at sundown on October 16, 2022. This is a seven-day feast.

Sukkot is a weeklong Jewish holiday that comes five days after Yom Kippur. Sukkot celebrates the gathering of the harvest and commemorates the miraculous protection God provided for the children of Israel when they left Egypt. The Jews celebrate Sukkot by dwelling in a foliage-covered booth (known as a sukkah).

- Declare Psalm 90. Pray that the Jehovah will bring you to a fresh understanding of the role of the Holy Spirit as the One who constantly tabernacles with you.

- Pray that you will be sensitive to the Holy Spirit and commune with Him more and more, you will build yourself up as you pray in the Holy Spirit. Pray this for the Ecclesia
- The Feast of Tabernacles also depicts a futuristic event when Jesus will tabernacle with His Ecclesia forever. Pray that kingdom citizens will operate with view of this future event and to live lives that will find us worthy to tabernacle with Jehovah.
- In this season of key Feasts of Jehovah, pray that many Jews worldwide, who are earnestly seeking for the Messiah, will find that Jesus is the fulfillment of every feast. Ask Jehovah to cause them to have encounters with Him, during the feast days, and that many will have the veil lifted off their face, to behold the Messiah Jesus for who He truly is - the awaited Messiah.

THE SEASON OF CHESHVAN

(Marcheshvan)- Begins on October 26, 2022 and will end at sundown on November 24, 2022.

The original name of this month was not Marcheshvan. This Babylonian name was adopted when the Jews went through the 70-year exile between the first and second temples. The original Hebrew name for the month was Bul, which denotes the idea of “drying up,” as the leaves begin to decay with the approach of Autumn.

In the time of King Solomon, the Jewish people labored for seven years to build the Holy Temple in Jerusalem. Their work was finally completed in the month of Cheshvan. The Holy Temple epitomized the balance between doing and being. There were many detailed commandments about how the Temple must be built, and how one must go about bringing a sacrifice, a korban, in the Temple. A pilgrim would spend the year raising his flocks and tending his orchards and vineyards before choosing the choicest of his accomplishments to bring to the Temple¹

EVENTS IN THE SEASON OF Cheshvan

	Events in the Season of Cheshvan	Implications for prayer and Practical Action
1	The flood in the times of Noah began on the 17th of Cheshvan, and the waters receded by the following year on the 27th of Cheshvan, allowing Noah and the other inhabitants of the ark to disembark.	Declare that despite the darkness, and even because of the darkness, there is future growth that awaits us.
2	The death of Jacob's wife Rachel, as well as the birth of Benjamin, occurred on the 11th of Cheshvan. It was precisely the same day as Methusaleh's death, the very day that flood had originally been slated to begin. Rachel represents the Jewish people in exile, and Benjamin represents the completed state of the Jewish people in the Land of Israel. Rachel spent her entire life outside of Israel. She passed away just as Jacob and his family entered the holy land. Benjamin is the last son of Jacob, the twelfth of the tribes, whose birth marks the completion of the people of Israel. He is also the only son of Jacob that is born in Israel, and thus represents the Jewish people's perfected state in the land of Israel.	Pray that now as we gather the seeds and plant them, and carefully water them through the winter months, with God's help, we will soon marvel at the beautiful spring bounty that we merit to cultivate.

COUNTERFEIT FESTIVALS

Halloween/ All Soul’s Day and Death Festivals

October 31st – Halloween developed from ancient New Year festivals of the dead (the Celtic festival of Samhain). The Catholic Church in A.D. 800’s established ALL Saints Day on November 1 so that people could continue a festival they had celebrated before becoming Kingdom citizens. The mass said on that day is called All Hallows Mass. The evening before became known as All Halloween.

In the western world and increasingly in urban areas in developing nations, children wear costumes on Halloween and go trick-or-treating. At Halloween parties, people enjoy such activities as fortune – telling, hearing stories about ghosts and witches and celebrating the festival of the dead which includes grave sweeping, channeling spirits of the dead and getting in touch with familiar spirits of dead loved ones. Unfortunately, kingdom citizens also involve themselves in these festivals without realizing that festivals are originally covenant renewal activities whether they are the Festivals of Jehovah or counterfeit festivals derived by men for demon –deities. In participating we renew covenants which we do not even understand the real significance of what we are renewing.

- Read Psa 118:24, Psa 19:1-2 Declare that October 31 is the day that Jehovah has made. It must declare His glory rather than obey the instructions from voices in the kingdom of darkness.
- Read Col 2:14-15, Heb 12.24; Blot out with the blood of Jesus, silence with the voice of His blood, every written or spoken ordinance that is contrary to kingdom citizens during those festivals;
- Proclaim Psa 29 and utter the voice of Jehovah over every incantation, curse, hex, ill-spoken word that invokes demon-deities. Proclaim Psa 118 and Gal 3.13-14 to nullify every counter-utterance over kingdom citizens during these seasons.
- You notice that the media has become increasingly involved in producing occult productions like Harry Potter, Twilight Zone, Bewitched, Ghost whisperer even cartoons, toys and games. By watching such programs and movies, and playing such games, the enemy's motive is to ensure that masses are desensitized to gross wickedness, murder, diabolic behavior. Involving one-self in such demonic activity has become entertainment yet the effects are real and have opened doors for the kingdom of darkness to find entrance into homes through music, movies, games and the like. Ask Jehovah to renew your mind and the mind of all kingdom citizens to begin to see that WE ARE WHAT WE WATCH and to recognize the real danger lurking behind the wicked comedy, intrigue, horror and all other such media.
- Pray that Jehovah will raise kingdom citizens who will develop creative media which will be an alternative to what is being spewed out in the Education system, media, arts, sports and culture.
- Read Matt 28:19a; 1 Tim 2:7; 2 Tim 4:2-4 It is the responsibility of the Ecclesia to educate the world about the spiritual dangers involved in such festivals. Pray that Jehovah will reveal to you and to kingdom citizens in the education and media sector these truths.
- Declare John 5.21-26 & 11.25, that Jesus is the resurrection and the life in every area where men have deified the dead and death, thus carrying out various ceremonies like sweeping the graves, using Feng Shui interior decorating which was originally meant to draw powers from the grave into homes.

- Using Acts 17:26-28, pray into the womb of time for the above nations. Thank God that He is the One Who determined the boundaries of each nation at an exact time and season during a particular year for the purpose of redeeming each of these nations and causing men to seek Him and find Him.
- For each nation celebrating an Independence Day, pray that the LORD will follow this with the independence of His people from the kingdom of darkness into His glorious kingdom of light. Many will have a personal encounter with Him which will lead to their decision for salvation over eternal death. Pray that the people in each of these nations will choose life and that there shall be fellowships which will be on hand to receive and disciple them into strong disciples of the LORD. Matt 28:18-20.
- Thank the LORD that He is Governor over the above nations and He rules justly (Psa 22:28)
- Pray that a level of kingdom governance will begin to reflect in each of the above nations as they mark various milestones during this month.
- Prophetically proclaim Isaiah 61 to the Ecclesia in each of the above nations.
- Pray that the LORD will strengthen the weak hands and knees of the Ecclesia in each nation. One common feature in each of the above nations is that the Ecclesia is not very strong. There is a strong occult presence in each of these nations. Pray that the LORD will raise a prophetic Ecclesia to deal with all forms of occult in this season.
- Pray for nations that have turned heavily to Secular humanism because of the relative successes they have enjoyed in areas of economic development. Many of these nations have become centers of immorality and defiance of the LORD. Pray that the LORD will in this season do something that will cause the people in these nations to turn their hearts back to Him.

NATIONAL ELECTIONS

We encourage you to keep praying for a nation's election for at least 2-3 years before the fact. That way, you pray without the frenzy of campaigns and the attendant pressures. Also, Jehovah can begin to reveal the person whom He wants to raise in position of leadership.

Be like Mary who anointed Jesus for his death and burial way before the actual event. While everyone else was scrambling around to do their good deed after He had died, and missed the opportunity because He was risen, she could rest content that she had done her bit on time. Be like the five clever virgins who paid the price of preparation before-hand, so that when the bridegroom did appear, they entered into their rest while the foolish virgins scrambled around trying to do a hasty, last minute job.

Let us not be fire-fighters and crisis intercessors. Such an important matter as a nation or region, or constituency leadership should not be taken as lightly as it has been done in the past. Let this sacred new year commence a new beginning and new attitude toward matters of elections.

- Pray that the elections will be free and fair and that the individuals whom GOD has marked for leadership will emerge as winners as the Ecclesia partners with GOD in making the proper selection
- Pray that the Ecclesia will no longer be used as a pawn in campaign activities in these nations. Rather the Ecclesia will have a strong voice in representing the kingdom of GOD in the national matters.
- Pray against the party spirit that breeds division in the Ecclesia whenever election seasons come.

PRAYING THRU THE HEAVENS

For any army to win a war, they will ensure their air-force is in place. Whether it is simple Calvary in ancient times, or soldiers positioned on the city walls, or on high hills or elevated places, these have the best view of the battle. For you to overcome the enemy in this spring season, ensure that the heavens are in agreement with you. Speak to the heavens over the month and ask them to declare the glory of Jehovah. Command the sun, moon, stars and every heavenly being to do Jehovah's bidding, and to do that which they were created for - to give Him pleasure (Ps 19:1-2, Rev 4:11)

GOD created the heavens and gave them their role in creation – to determine the times and seasons on earth (Gen 1:14-18). It is a must for every kingdom citizen to study and understand the heavens and know our role as stewards of His estate toward them – not the ungodly astrology, horoscope and other occult practices.

Once we acquire GOD's ordained knowledge for the heavens, we will be able to set up their dominion here on earth (Job 38:31-33). Remember that in Mathew 28:18-20 Jesus commissioned the fledgling Ekklessia with all the authority given to Him to go out into all nations and disciple them. This authority included that which is in heaven and on earth. It is our duty to answer in the affirmative, the question that Job was asked concerning the visible firmament in Job 38:31-33. (For further teaching on "Understanding the Heavens" make a request of the teaching by email).

LUNAR MOVEMENTS

Crescents and Quarter Moons

When the moon is shaped like a C or its mirror image (Sickle), it is considered a crescent moon. The quarter moon is shaped like a D or its mirror image and considered to be a bow. The occult will use the bow shaped moon to shoot arrows of wickedness to the unsuspecting in order to draw unfair advantage in various areas of life. The occult use the crescent moon as sickles (eg Hecate's sickle), for harvesting the gains of the ignorant and for demonic strength and fortification with intense enchantments.

- Proclaim Psalm 148 and Command all creation especially the crescent and Quarter moons to praise GOD as instructed in Psalm 19.
- Proclaim Psalm 64 and fasten that judgment into the heavens especially during this season of Ramadan when those who worship the moon-god Allah, draw power from the heavens in the above manner.
- Proclaim Isa 26:1-9 and command the heavens to receive this instruction and reject every other voice of destruction; For strength and fortification "Trust in the LORD forever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength". Isa 26:4

- GOD abhors enchantment so He warned His people not to be involved in enchantment. (Lev 19:26b), Pray that the occult, involved in intense enchantment will equally and certainly face the fierce wrath of GOD. Is 13:9

The Full moon will occur on 9 October 2022 @ 20:55 UTC

- Praise GOD for the full moon this month.
- Declare that as the moon has waxed into fullness this month, so shall you receive a double portion of the prophetic release which will wax to fullness during this season.
- Command the full moon to declare the glory of GOD alone and reject every other instruction from any other source that is not ordained by GOD. Psa 19.
- Proclaim Zech 9:15-17; In this month, command the full moon to praise GOD. As the enemy comes in like a flood, as he comes as a terror by night or shoots arrows that fly by noonday, the Word of the LORD will be your shield and buckler. Psalm 91
- Ask Jesus who is the Conquering King, to ride forth victoriously on behalf of righteousness, humility and truth during the full moon season. Every enemy instruction for the full moon to strike the righteous by night will be returned to sender as the moon rejects every other instruction except that which is from the LORD Psa 45.3-6
- During full moon seasons the gravitational pull of the moon on the earth causes an ebb and flow of waters resulting in tidal action and instability of the waters on earth even in bodies of all creatures. Pray that the waters of your body will stabilize and be still during the full moon season when the waters ebb and flow, and body fluids are also affected adversely. Ask the LORD to be the stability of your times; pray this for your economy and for the political landscape in your territory.

The Last Quarter moon will occur on 17 October 2022 while the First Quarter moon will occur on 2 October 2022.

- Command the Quarter moons to praise GOD in this season.
- Pray that GOD will teach your hands to war and your fingers to do battle so you can break the steel bows of the witches, wizards, sorcerers, necromancers, diviners, monthly prognosticators, astrologers, traffickers of familiar spirits and the queen of heaven (Ps 18:34; Ps 144:1)

The New Moon occurs on 25 October 2022 @ 10:48 UTC

- Command the new moon to praise GOD who created it to mark the times and seasons. Psalm 104:19, 136:8-9, 148:3,

- Command the new moon to receive instruction only from GOD and from Kingdom citizens to fulfill only the purpose which GOD created it for in this season. Pray that the moon shall reject the incantations, prognostications and manipulation from any other ungodly source.
- Pray that as the new moon waxes as a witness in the sky, so shall their desire to know the true LORD GOD grow with it.
- Pray that GOD should cut off those that handle the sickle in the time of harvest against the ignorant and cause them to flee. (Jer 50:16)
- At the new and crescent moon proclaim and enforce Num 23:23 over your life, family, and the ignorant in the Ecclesia and territory.

SOLAR MOVEMENTS

From 16 September 2022 to 30 October 2022, as the sun makes one of its longest circuits through the heavens, it passes through a group of 110 stars in the constellation called Virgo. Virgo marks the sun's first entrance into a constellation in its circuit through the heavens.

Virgo reveals the particulars of the Abrahamic Covenant – its guarantor the LORD, its legal executors Abraham and Sarah, and its first beneficiary Isaac. Its fulfillment in Jesus. It is a legal contract, written in the heavens, so that all creation can see and know that the Creator of the heavens and the earth is in a legally binding contractual relationship with a particular people who descend from the loins of Abraham and Sarah and the other nations were grafted in through Jesus.

Virgo is symbolized by a virgin who lay across the ecliptic bearing a branch in her right hand and a sheaf of wheat in her left hand. Her head is positioned very close to the tail of Leo. She stands upon the sign of Libra.

The wheat sheaf is a fertility symbol; the branch refers to the Messiah. (Isaiah 11:1). Here begins the tale of the Jesus's life as foretold by the heavens. It starts with a two-fold testimony of the Coming One. Stars: The branch; the gloriously beautiful; who shall come down; who shall have dominion; the son; who carries; a spike of corn; the seed.

- Command the constellation Virgo to praise the LORD as it dominates the skies in the coming season.
- Thank the LORD for Jesus who humbled Himself and became just like vulnerable baby, allowed himself to be raised by a regular poor couple, grew into a man and made choices that enabled Him to BECOME the Savior. He allowed Himself to come through the channel of fallen man in order to redeem us (Phil 2:5-11, Joh 3:16, Rom 5:6-8)
- Pray that during this season many in unreached places will receive a heavenly revelation of the redemptive role of Jesus who was born to save mankind from eternal destruction 1 Joh 3.8

- Isaiah prophesied about Yes the Branch that would spring forth from Jesse. Jesus proceeded to display the 7 spirits of God. Pray that during this season, as many as are willing in the Ecclesia , will begin to manifest in greater measure, each of the 7 Spirits of God in this new season Isa 11:1-2.

Four other smaller groups of stars called decans that form part of the constellation called Virgo give further details of who the “Branch” is.

COMA Above the ecliptic an enthroned young woman holds her infant son. Named: The desired or longed for.

- It represents “The Desired” which portrays the coming “Branch” to be a child who will be the “Desire of all nations” referring to Jesus. Thank God that Jesus fulfilled that which the heavens declare. Hag 2.7
- During this season of the Feast of Trumpets many orthodox Jews look forward to the first coming of the Messiah. Pray that the LORD will appear to many as the Messiah who already came more than 2000 years ago to redeem all creation and set off these last days.

CENTAURUS represents “the centaur” a being having two natures A man with the body of a charging horse (centaur) lies below the ecliptic. He holds a shield and spear and is piercing a victim. Between his hind legs is the ancient sign of the Hebrew letter Tav. Named: The despised; sin offering; the pierced or who pierces. Stars: Heretofore and hereafter.

- Meditate on Isaiah 53 during this season
- These stars depict Jesus in His two-fold natures, Son of GOD and Son of Man, the Lion and the Lamb, the root and offspring of David, the peasant Shepherd and royal King. Praise the LORD that the heavens declare this truth.
- Pray that kingdom citizens will during this season gain a better understanding of the two-fold nature of Jesus and how it manifests in their lives as He dwells in us.

CRUX – THE COVENANT: Rather than a cross this constellation is the ancient version of the last letter of the Hebrew alphabet, the Tav. This sign is positioned directly between the centaur’s legs. Named: Cutting off; boundary; mark; finish.

- Pray that as the heavens declare, you will during this season go back to the message of the cross and ask the Holy Spirit to give you a revelation on this greatest altar that was ever raised.
- Pray that you will revisit the importance of “carrying your cross” daily as commanded by Jesus
- The Cross was the scene of the new covenant that was cut between the LORD and man restoring us back into fellowship with Him and therefore back into our redemptive purpose as mankind to rule and reign with Him forever. Read and meditate on Gen 1:26-28, Rev 22:4-5 and ask the Holy Spirit to bring you to a new and greater revelation of the significance of the Cross and the covenant we have through it.

BOOTES represents the “Coming One”, referring to Jesus the coming Messiah and Judge of the earth.

- Is it not amazing that the heavens declare this reality in line with the Fall Feast of Trumpets? Praise the LORD that His promise to return for His bride remains true even as the heavens so declare.
- As the heavens are declaring His soon return, ponder on this question, are you ready?
- Thank the LORD that the heavens declare the season of judgment which brings forth justice and righteousness even as the season on earth signifies.
- As the heavens declare in line with this season, thank the LORD for becoming the complete and total solution to the question of reconciliation of man and all of creation to the LORD. He is indeed the price which covered the cost of sin through all eternity.
- Thank Him that His role as our High Priest and Advocate before the courts of heaven, has already answered every accusation of Satan and his surrogate spirits against kingdom citizens. HE PAID IT ALL. Rev 5:12
- The heavens are declaring a season of balance but also a season of judgment. Scales symbolize judgment. Pray that those who reject the message of salvation, redemption and deliverance in this season will indeed face a season of judgment so that they will realize the seriousness of including the LORD in the equation of their lives
- Pray for every area that requires the just scales of Jehovah to be applied in every gate of society including family, politics and governance, education and economy etc.

PROCLAIM OVER CREATION:

THE LORD IS WITH ME; HE IS MY HELPER. I LOOK IN TRIUMPH ON MY ENEMIES. IT IS BETTER TO TAKE REFUGE IN THE LORD THAN TO TRUST IN HUMANS. IT IS BETTER TO TAKE REFUGE IN THE LORD THAN TO TRUST IN PRINCES. ALL THE NATIONS SURROUNDED ME, BUT IN THE NAME OF THE LORD I CUT THEM DOWN. THEY SURROUNDED ME ON EVERY SIDE, BUT IN THE NAME OF THE LORD I CUT THEM DOWN. THEY SWARMED AROUND ME LIKE BEES, BUT THEY WERE CONSUMED AS QUICKLY AS BURNING THORNS; IN THE NAME OF THE LORD I CUT THEM DOWN. I WAS PUSHED BACK AND ABOUT TO FALL, BUT THE LORD HELPED ME. THE LORD IS MY STRENGTH AND MY DEFENSE; HE HAS BECOME MY SALVATION. SHOUTS OF JOY AND VICTORY RESOUND IN THE TENTS OF THE RIGHTEOUS: "THE LORD'S RIGHT HAND HAS DONE MIGHTY THINGS! THE LORD'S RIGHT HAND IS LIFTED HIGH; THE LORD'S RIGHT HAND HAS DONE MIGHTY THINGS!" I WILL NOT DIE BUT LIVE, AND WILL PROCLAIM WHAT THE LORD HAS DONE. PSALM 118.7-17
